Achieving Nelson Mandela University? Sibongile Muthwa, Denver A. Webb, 2024-08-20 South Africa s higher education sector is rooted in the country s divided past A significant State driven restructuring from around 1997 to 2005 resulted in what is largely the current configuration of public universities But just over two decades later for a variety of reasons the higher education sector in South Africa appears beset with numerous challenges Nelson Mandela University is one of the public universities that emerged from the restructuring process The university is in an ongoing state of evolution of becoming It developed out of the amalgamation of the University of Port Elizabeth Port Elizabeth Technikon and incorporation of the Port Elizabeth campus of Vista University as Nelson Mandela Metropolitan University in 2005 In 2017 it was renamed Nelson Mandela University after the world renowned statesman rather than the metropolitan area in which the university is primarily located The renaming was conceptualised as more than a marketing opportunity to rebrand the university but as an opportunity to reorientate the university to reposition Nelson Mandela University as an engaged and socially embedded university in the service of society striving to be the academic expression of the values and ethos of its iconic namesake Endeavouring to be something greater and different from the norm imbues its strategy public statements and practices The determination to achieve Mandela University serves or is intended to serve as both an organising principle and a lodestar A cross section of writers from different backgrounds situates Nelson Mandela University within the contemporary historical moment from which it emerged and examines its subsequent evolution While Nelson Mandela University has performed the usual work expected of any university it has also sought to turn the university outwards to achieve a higher purpose framing itself as a values based university on a journey to become something else In Achieving Nelson Mandela University the university attempts to give an account of itself The book is an intellectual and scholarly reflection on where the university has come from and where it is seeking to go ICEL 2017 - Proceedings of the 12th

International Conference on e-Learning Laurie O. Campbell, Richard Hartshorn, 2017 Information and Communication Technologies for Development Jyoti Choudrie, M. Sirajul Islam, Fathul Wahid, Julian M. Bass, Johan Eka Priyatma, 2017-05-15

This book constitutes the refereed proceedings of the 14th IFIP WG 9.4 International Conference on Social Implications of Computers in Developing Countries ICT4D 2017 held in Yogyakarta Indonesia in May 2017. The 60 revised full papers and 8 short papers presented together with 3 keynotes were carefully reviewed and selected from 118 submissions. The papers are organized in the following topical sections: large scale and complex information systems for development; women empowerment and gender justice; social mechanisms of ICT enabled development; the data revolution and sustainable development goals; critical perspectives on ICT and open innovation for development; the contribution of practice theories to ICT for development; agile development; indigenous local community grounded ICT developments; global sourcing and development sustainability in ICT4D; and information systems development and implementation in Southeast Asia. Also included are a graduate student track, current issues and notes. The chapter 'An Analysis of Accountability Concepts for Open Development' is open access under a CC BY 4.0 license via link.springer.com.

Youth Language Practices and Urban Language Contact in Africa Rajend Mesthrie, Ellen Hurst-Harosh, Heather Brookes, 2021-09-09. An up to date theoretically informed study of male in group street aligned youth language practice in various urban centres in Africa.

Anchored in Place Bank, Leslie, Cloete, Nico, 2018-11-05. Tensions in South African universities have traditionally centred around equity, particularly access and affordability, historical legacies such as apartheid and colonialism, and the shape and structure of the higher education system. What has not received sufficient attention is the contribution of the university to place based development. This volume is the first in South Africa to engage seriously with the place based developmental role of universities. In the international literature and policy, there has been an increasing integration of the university with place based development, especially in cities. This volume weighs in on the debate by drawing attention to the place based roles and agency of South African universities in their local towns and cities. It acknowledges that universities were given specific development roles in regions, homelands and towns under apartheid and comments on why sub national place based development has not been a key theme in post apartheid higher education planning. Given the developmental crisis in the country, universities could be expected to play a more constructive and meaningful role in the development of their own precincts, cities and regions. But what should that role be? Is there evidence that this is already occurring in South Africa despite the lack of a national policy framework? What plans and programmes are in place and what is needed to expand the development agency of universities at the local level? Who and what might be involved? Where should the focus lie and who might benefit most and why? Is there a need perhaps to approach the challenges of college towns, secondary cities and metropolitan centers differently? This book poses some of these questions as it considers the experiences of a number of South African universities including Wits Pretoria, Nelson Mandela University and especially Fort Hare as one of its post centenary challenges Food Security and Nutrition Callistus Bvenura, Learnmore Kambizi, 2024-12-24 Food Security and Nutrition Utilizing Undervalued Food Plants explores the potential of underutilized and indigenous food plants to enhance food and nutrition security amid global challenges such as climate change water scarcity and population growth It emphasizes the importance of dietary diversification to reduce dependency on major staple crops highlighting the nutritional and health benefits of lesser known crops such as fonio pigeonpea finger millet and a wide array of wild vegetables and mushrooms The book reviews innovative farming techniques like the organic medium enclosed trough system and hydroponics which improve crop yield and nutrient content while conserving resources Additionally it addresses the commercialization potential of indigenous fruits and wild herbal teas emphasizing their market value and health benefits The book also discusses the reduction of goitrogenic compounds in certain crops to mitigate health risks By examining the unique nutritional profiles and local adaptability of these crops the book advocates for their broader use to build a more resilient and sustainable food system Through a combination of scientific research practical farming methods and market strategies the book aims to promote food diversity improve health outcomes and support sustainable agricultural practices Key Features Highlights the critical role of dietary diversification in reducing dependency on major staple crops advocating for the inclusion of lesser known nutrient rich plants to improve overall health and nutrition Introduces cutting edge farming methods such as the organic medium enclosed trough system and hydroponics Explores the market value and health benefits of indigenous fruits and wild herbal teas offering strategies for their commercialization to boost local economies and food security Addresses the reduction of harmful compounds and provides practical solutions to mitigate associated health risks and enhance the safety of food consumption Transforming Higher Education in Asia and Africa Fred M.

Hayward, 2020-03-01 Analyzes twelve strategic planning efforts in higher education in eight countries in Asia and Africa Drawing on over fifty years of on the ground experience Fred M Hayward s Transforming Higher Education in Asia and Africa analyzes change processes in higher education in eight Asian and African countries The twelve cases range from the push to upgrade and transform higher education in Afghanistan in the midst of a war to the successful struggle against apartheid in South African institutions as well as thwarted efforts in Sierra Leone and Madagascar Providing both practical lessons learned and hope for communities globally Hayward demonstrates that higher education change and even transformation which is more fundamental and structural can occur even in the most difficult environments Successful transformation requires well crafted strategic and budget plans with careful implementation monitoring and effective leadership at multiple levels Yet also critical are a commitment to human development a desire for freedom and belief in democracy and recognition that high quality higher education is essential to national development This book provides detailed and informative accounts of system transformation policymaking leadership and development in several developing countries These areas are largely neglected in the literature It also provides an account of the value of coordination and
