Fort Hare University Study Guide 2014:

Culture, philosophies and reforms in public administration for the globalizing world Edwin O.C.

Ijeoma,Ogochukwu I. Nzewi,2018-12-31 The aim of this scholarly collected work is to contribute to the scientific discourse on public administration in a globalised environment The book reflects on governance challenges in South Africa and in Africa with its point of departure being the master narratives the so called grand debates such as New Public Management and specifically the role of technology It also reflects on the so called middle range discourses concerning organisational level issues in government e g leadership and work procedures and explores new solutions to old governance challenges like corruption and service delivery The uniqueness of this collected work lies in its ability to reflect on existing philosophies and practices in an innovative way Through its multidisciplinary lens the book opens up a new vision for the future of public administration in the South African context and on the African continent not neglecting the current local regional and global environment Until recently globalisation was considered an entrenched world order but international political events during the course of the past few years have resulted in one of the biggest challenges to its endurance in recent history This includes developments such as the successful referendum in Britain to exit the European Union highlighting the growth of a severe nationalist and protectionist agenda that may be a signal of the unravelling of the current globalism world order These developments inspire deeper interrogation of the challenges to effective public administration globally and the ripple effects in South Africa and Africa as a whole Pointedly it is evident that ensuring the voice of citizens in policy decision making remains a critical governance challenge On the policy front there are perennial challenges of land reform service delivery and poverty while on the governance front corruption has metastasised with a growing culture of impunity and lack of accountability in leadership In the midst of growing corruption and more than 20 years into democracy South Africa s income inequality remains one of the highest in the world This setting constitutes the context of the research outcome published in this scholarly work 22nd European Conference on e-Learning Shawren Singh,Sarah Jane

Johnston,2023-10-26 These proceedings represent the work of contributors to the 22nd European Conference on e Learning ECEL 2023 hosted by University of South Africa Pretoria South Africa on 26 27 October 2023 The Conference Co Chairs Associate Professor Sarah Jane Johnston and Associate Professor Shawren Singh both from University of South Africa Pretoria South Africa ECEL is now a well established event on the academic research calendar and now in its 22nd year the key aim remains the opportunity for participants to share ideas and meet the people who hold them The scope of papers will ensure an interesting two days The subjects covered illustrate the wide range of topics that fall into this important and ever growing area of research It is especially relevant that the conference is being hosted by UNISA this year as the university celebrates its 150th anniversary UNISA has been a pioneer in first distance and now e Learning The conference will also host the final round of the 9th e Learning Excellence Awards where innovate case histories will be presented The opening keynote presentation is given by Professor Thenjiwe Meyiwa Vice Principal for the Research Postgraduate Studies Innovation and Commercialisation at University of South Africa who will speak on The Role of African Feminisms in Shaping a Sustainable Future of Being and Learning An afternoon keynote on Thursday will be made by Dr Zolile Martin Mguda University of South Africa on the topic of ChatGPT The first year The second day of the conference will open with an address by Dr Isabel Tarling MD Limina South Africa with the title Developing Digital Standards for Learning and Teaching in South Africa s Schools With an initial submission of 100 abstracts after the double blind peer review process there are 45 Academic research papers 3 PhD research papers and 1 Masters Research paper published in these Conference Proceedings These papers represent research from Belgium Canada Chile Czech Republic France Germany Ghana Greece Hong Kong Ireland Japan Malaysia Mozambique Norway Oman Per Poland Portugal Romania Singapore South Africa Sri Lanka Sweden Switzerland Turkey and the United Kingdom

The Oxford Handbook of Language and Society Ofelia García,Nelson Flores (Linguist),Massimiliano Spotti,2017 This book challenges basic concepts that have informed the study of sociolinguistics It proposes a critical poststructuralist perspective that examines the socio historical context that led to the emergence of dominant sociolinguistic concepts and develops new theoretical and methodological tools that challenge these dominant concepts

Enhancing Education With Intelligent Systems and Data-Driven Instruction Bhatia, Madhulika,Mushtaq, Muhammad Tahir,2024-03-04 In the dynamic environment of education the traditional methods employed by educators are struggling to keep pace with the evolving needs of students in the 21st century The challenge lies in fostering an environment that not only engages students but also equips them with the skills essential for the modern world Teachers find themselves navigating a complex terrain where outdated pedagogical approaches fall short of unlocking the full potential of diverse learning styles and unique talents within their classrooms Enhancing Education With Intelligent Systems and Data Driven Instruction is a groundbreaking book that goes beyond the constraints of conventional teaching methods offering a comprehensive guide that inspires and equips educators with innovative tools and approaches From integrating innovative technology to cultivating collaborative learning environments the book provides a roadmap for educators to reimagine their teaching practices By embracing student centered approaches fostering diversity and utilizing digital tools effectively this book empowers teachers to transform their classrooms into dynamic hubs of inspiration motivation and empowerment

The Routledge Handbook of Architecture, Urban Space and Politics, Volume II Nikolina Bobic,Farzaneh Haghighi,2024-11-22 Architecture and the urban are connected to challenges around violence security race and ideology spectacle and data The first volume of this handbook extensively explored these oppressive roles This second volume illustrates that escaping the corporatized and bureaucratized orders of power techno managerial and consumer oriented capitalist economic models is more urgent and necessary than ever before Herein lies the political role of architecture and urban space including the ways through which they can be transformed and alternative political realities constituted The volume explores the methods and spatial practices required to activate the political dimension and the possibility for alternative practices to operate in the existing oppressive systems while not being swallowed by these structures. Fostering new political consciousness is explored in terms of the following themes: Events and Dissidence, Biopolitics, Ethics and Desire, Climate and Ecology, Urban Commons and Social Participation, Marginalities and Postcolonialism. Volume II embraces engagement across disciplines and offers a wide range of projects and critical analyses across the so-called Global North and South. This multidisciplinary collection of 36 chapters provides the reader with an extensive resource of case studies and ways of thinking for architecture and urban space to become more emancipatory. Chapter 1 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution CC BY 4.0 license.

Handbook of Research on Records and Information Management Strategies for Enhanced Knowledge Coordination Chisita, Collence, Takaingenhamo, Enakrire, Rexwhite Tega, Durodolu, Oluwale Olumide, Tsabedze, Vusi Wonderboy, Ngoaketsi, Joseph M., 2021-01-15. The convergence of technologies and emergence of interdisciplinary and transdisciplinary modes of knowledge production justify the need for research that explores the disinterestedness or interconnectivity of the information science disciplines. The quantum leap in knowledge production, increasing demand for information and knowledge, changing information needs, information governance, and proliferation of digital technologies in the era of ubiquitous digital technologies justify research that employs a holistic approach in examining the challenges of managing information in an increasingly knowledge and technology-driven dispensation. The changing nature of knowledge production for sustainable development along with trends and theory for enhanced knowledge coordination deserve focus in current times. The Handbook of Research on Records and Information Management Strategies for Enhanced Knowledge Coordination draws input from experts involved in records management, information science, library science, memory, and digital technology, creating a vanguard compendium of novel trends and praxis. While highlighting a vast array of topics under the scope of library science, information science, knowledge transfer, records management, and more, this book is ideally designed for knowledge and information managers, library and information science schools, policymakers, practitioners, stakeholders, administrators, researchers, academicians, and students interested in records and information management.

International Environments and Practices of Higher Education Andrea Caputo, Deborah Lock, Dieu Hack-Polay, 2022-10-31. This book provides a critical review of the teaching practices in higher education in international contexts. Sticky problems and debates about inclusivity, diversity, and cultural representation in the curriculum and classroom are explored through the eyes of the academics who negotiate complex teaching landscapes.

Revisiting Environmental and Natural Resource Questions in Sub-Saharan Africa Wilson Akpan, Philani Moyo, 2017-06-23. Based on case studies in Southern Africa, West Africa, and East Africa, this book revisits some of the dilemmas and paradoxes associated with the development, management, and utilisation of environmental resources, as well as the lacklustre official handling of climate change-related challenges in Sub-Saharan Africa. On the subject of natural resource exploitation in particular the book revisits scholarly debates and specific practices around compensation benefit and burden sharing local participation and space place dynamics It highlights fundamental ambiguities in the ways the dominant discourses and policy responses have been framed and mobilised and examines epistemic and ideational incongruences that have hobbled and sometimes negated the effectiveness of otherwise well intentioned interventions On climate change the book revisits debates around the vulnerability assets nexus with regard to mitigation and adaptation as well as the intersection of climate information and livelihoods in agro based settings The contradictions gaps and limitations of climate change policies and strategies in different regions are re examined based on new data In the last few years the Environment and Natural Resources Working Group of the South African Sociological Association SASA has intensified efforts to go beyond the annual SASA Congresses and the production of journal articles in making the research agendas of its members more visible to the global scholarly and policy community This book is one result of such efforts It calls for a constant questioning of orthodoxies and the promotion of ethnographically sensitive and epistemologically nuanced scholarly and policy approaches to developmental challenges in Africa especially in relation to environmental resources and environmental change
