Tolerance and Intolerance in Religion and Beyond Anne Sarah Matviyets, Giuseppe Veltri, Jörg Rüpke, 2023-10-09 This book focuses on religious tolerance and intolerance in terms of practices, institutions, and intellectual habits. It brings together an array of historical and anthropological studies and philosophical, cognitive, and psychological explorations by established scholars from a range of disciplines. The contributions feature modern and historic instances of tolerance and intolerance across a variety of geographies, societies, and religious traditions. They help readers to gain an understanding of the notion of tolerance and the historical consequences of intolerance from the perspective of different cultures, religions, and philosophies. The volume highlights tolerance's potential to be a means to build bridges and at the same time determine limits. Whilst the challenge of promoting tolerance has mostly been treated as a value or practice of demographic or religious majorities, this book offers a broader take and pays attention to minority perspectives. It is a valuable reference for scholars of religious studies, the sociology of religion, and the history of religion.

Edmund Roberts of New Hampshire Toby Finnegan, 2025-02-04 Edmund Roberts (1784-1836) of Portsmouth, New Hampshire, negotiated America's first treaties with Asian powers. He secretly took part in the slave trade between Africa and Argentina, traded illegally with the British during the War of 1812, and brought ruin to his family with foolish investments. President Andrew Jackson appointed him in 1832 to negotiate commercial treaties with Vietnam, Siam, and Oman. Though failing in Vietnam, Roberts succeeded at Siam and Oman. The British linguist John Robert Morrison, master of the Chinese language, proved critical to Roberts's success at Siam. Roberts almost sabotaged his treaty with the Sultan of Oman when he illegally demanded restitution for previous business losses at Zanzibar. During his second mission (1835-1836), Roberts exchanged ratifications with Oman and Siam but died in Macao in June 1836. This biography, focusing on American commercial and diplomatic history, will be of significant worldwide interest to historians, scholars, and general readers.

Mateo Mohammad Farzaneh, 2015-03-13 The Iranian Constitutional Revolution was the twentieth century's first such political movement in the Middle East. clergy in a modern Iranian political system Drawing on extensive analysis of religious texts fatwas and articles written by Khurasani an other pro and anti constitutionalists Farzaneh provides a comprehensive and illuminating interpretation of Khurasani s religious pragmatism Despite some opposition from his peers Khurasani used a form of jurisprudential reasoning when creating shari a that was based on human intellect to justify his support of not only the Iranian parliament but also the political powers of clerics He had a reputation across the Shi ite community as a masterful religious scholar a skillful teacher and a committed humanitarian who heeded the people s socioeconomic and political grievances and took action to address them Khurasani s push for progressive reforms helped to inaugurate a new era of clerical involvement in constitutionalism in the Middle East
