History Grade11 Final Exam:

Social Studies for Secondary Schools Alan J. Singer, 2008-10-26 This popular text advocates an inquiry and activity based view of social studies teaching that respects the points of view of students and teachers Based in practice and experience it offers systematic support and open honest advice for new teachers is conversational not pedantic and provides lots of examples While the structure and most of the topics remain largely the same as before this Third Edition presents new lesson ideas in every chapter especially designed to help new teachers to address learning standards to work in inclusive settings and to promote literacy and the use of technology in social studies classrooms puts a heavier focus on what is important to know and why includes new essays on the politics of social studies education responds to opponents of project or activity based social studies instruction and multicultural education with a sharpened defense of both of these approaches throughout the book Intended as a text for undergraduate and graduate pre service social studies methods courses this text is also useful for in service training programs as a reference for new social studies teachers and as a resource for experienced social studies educators who are engaged in rethinking their teaching practice

Schools of Opportunity

Adam York, Kevin Welner, Linda Molner Kelley, 2023 The National Education Policy Center's Schools of Opportunity project was designed to highlight public high schools that are using research based practices for closing opportunity gaps in student learning The project recognizes schools that are working to address the needs of all students regardless of their zip codes or their school's average test scores By embracing a shift away from the nation's myopic focus on standardized test scores the program's focus is on inputs access to equitable exemplary policies and practices that students experience every school day not outcomes This follows from research findings that schools alone cannot fix the problems created by the stark inequalities in our society Instead schools should be expected to do their part by responding to inequities with research based practices The book features case studies of schools that demonstrate key criteria that other schools can emulate such as an inclusive school climate support for language minority students performance based assessment teacher professionalism a commitment to detracking and supports for students in need Schools of Opportunity builds an argument for shifting the way that excellent public high schools are recognized and built Book Features Provides accounts of school reform jointly told by researcher practitioner teams connecting current research with successful efforts of educators to create outstanding learning environments Brings together the voices of principals and school leaders who share stories of how their work has unfolded in their school district and state contexts Identifies the school leadership and teacher practices that close opportunity gaps for student learning and what it takes to implement them Contributors Dwane Chapelle Janet Eckerson Lourenco Garcia Matt Garcia Kristen Goessling Kimberly Grayson Jill Gurtner Ted Hamann Ann Ishimaru Mark Larson Julie Mead John Murphy Jeannie Oakes Jeff Palladino Derek Pierce Jenifer Rayne Kellie Rolstad Lorrie Shepard Kate Somerville Michelle Valladares Kathryn Wiley
