History Paper 1 November 2013:

The Routledge History of Fashion and Dress, 1800 to the Present Veronique Pouillard, Vincent Dubé-Sénécal, 2023-10-24

The time span covered by The Routledge History of Fashion and Dress starts in the nineteenth century with the aftermath of the consumers revolution and reaches all the way to the present. The fashion and garment industries have been international from the beginning and as such this volume looks at the history of fashion and dress through the lenses of both international and global history. Because fashion is also a multifaceted subject with human agency at its core at the confluence of the material fabrics clothing dyes tools and machines and the immaterial savoir faire identities images and brands this volume adopts a transdisciplinary perspective opening its pages to researchers from a variety of complementary fields. The chapters in this volume are organized based on their relationship to five fields of study economics and commerce politics business identities and historical sources. Paying particular attention to change the book goes beyond the great fashion capitals and well known fashion centers and points to the broader geographies of fashion. Particular geographical areas focus on the emergence of new fashion systems and business models whether they be in Sweden Bangladesh or Spain or on the African continent considered to be the new frontier of the industry. Covering myriad aspects of the subject this is the perfect companion for all those interested in history of dress and fashion in the modern world.

Academic Publishing David Coniam, Peter Falvey, 2022-10-02

This book focuses on the topic of academic publishing. It discusses the mounting serious problems that researchers particularly new researchers encounter when trying to publish their research. The book addresses the issues of publishing as well as the salient factors militating against academic publication and the mitigating factors encouraging academic publication. It provides potential solutions suggestions and strategies for overcoming some of these problems. Growing research output from Southeast Asia including Singapore Malaysia Taiwan and China reveals the struggles that many authors have to confront when attempting to publish their work in reputable journals. In both South Africa and other parts of Africa academic researchers are beginning to show strong evidence of credible academic output. These researchers all need valid outlets for their work and the security that authentic peer review brings to the reviewing process. In the fields of education social sciences and professional practices e.g. architecture and law recent years have seen the emergence of new outlets for practitioners research outputs in areas such as one's own practice self reflection and narrative inquiry. These outlets are discussed in this book. The book also discusses the malign influence of predatory publications in detail. This book will be beneficial to university academics postgraduate students Ph.D. supervisors and new researchers.

The United Nations in International History Amy L. Sayward, 2017-02-23

Guilt-free Bottle Feeding Madeleine Morris, 2014-09-15 You are not a bad mother if you can't breastfeed For decades mums have been told that breast is best that breastfeeding is the single most important thing we can do for our children Despite this huge pressure on modern mums the vast majority of us end up using formula And we feel guilty In Guilt Free Bottle Feeding award winning journalist Madeleine Morris and paediatrician Dr Sasha Howard challenge the simplistic message of breast is best revealing what everybody knows but nobody says out loud that bottle fed babies can grow up to be perfectly happy healthy and smart With a thorough yet accessible analysis of health science parenting sociology and the modern media the authors provide a balanced much needed and long overdue voice showing mothers who don't exclusively breastfeed why they are not failures A mix of political and practical Guilt Free Bottle Feeding also offers comprehensive advice on feeding including Choosing a formula and choosing a bottle Sterilising and preparing a feed How to promote bonding while bottle feeding Moving from breast to bottle and mixed feeding In an era where the pressure on mums is greater than ever before Guilt Free Bottle Feeding resets the conversation around infant feeding supporting all families regardless of how they feed their babies This is not an anti breastfeeding book This is an anti guilt book

span style="font-family: Verdana; font-size: small;">www.guiltfreebottlefeeding.com Social Finance Alex Nicholls, Rob Paton, Jed Emerson, 2015-11-05

Social Finance is a rapidly advancing area of practice policy and research with a lot of unanswered questions. What does it amount to? What is it to be social in finance? How do you value assets that offer a social as well as a financial return? This book provides a collection of authoritative essays on these and related topics. The essays embrace the different manifestations of social finance, collate existing research, set out the controversies, offer theoretical insights and advances, and draw together the ideas of the leading thinkers in the field. Contributors to this volume are leading exponents and practitioners of social finance and leading academics from the main relevant disciplines and fields of study. This book is the first serious and comprehensive treatment of social finance and as such will be of interest to academics with research and teaching interests in finance, social enterprise, entrepreneurship, public policy, business, economics, and international development, to name a few. If you want to understand and join in the academic and policy debates or if you are working in one part of this field and want to understand how the landscape is being rapidly re-shaped, then this is an essential guidebook. The Age of Scientific Naturalism Bernard Lightman, Michael S. Reidy, 2016-02-19. Physicist John Tyndall and his contemporaries were at the forefront of developing the cosmology of scientific naturalism during the Victorian period. They rejected all but physical laws as having any impact on the operations of human life and the universe. Contributors focus on the way Tyndall and his correspondents developed their ideas through letters, periodicals, and scientific journals, and challenge previously held assumptions about who gained authority and how they attained and defended their position within the scientific community.

A History of Irish Working-Class Writing Michael Pierse, 2018. Michael Pierse is Lecturer in Irish literature at Queen's University Belfast. His research mainly explores the writing and cultural production of Irish working class life. Over recent years, this work has expanded into new multidisciplinary themes and international contexts, including the study of festivals, digital methodologies in public humanities, and theatre as research practices. Michael has contributed to a range of national and international publications; is the author of Writing Ireland's Working Class (Dublin: after O'Casey, 2011) and has been awarded several Arts and Humanities Research Council awards and the Vice-Chancellor's Award at Queen's. China and Africa in Global Context LI Anshan, 2022-02-23. This book studies the relationship between China and Africa by reviewing this history and current state of interactions, offering a valuable addition to the often heated and contentious debate surrounding China's engagement in Africa from a Chinese angle. Comprising four parts, the book covers a kaleidoscopic range of topics on China-Africa relations based on materials from different languages. Part I looks into early historical contact between China and Africa and the historiography of African Studies in China in recent decades. Part II probes the origins, dynamics, challenges, and cultural heritage of China's policies towards Africa. Part III explores the issue of development cooperation from both a theoretical and a practical point of view, with a focus on the case of Chinese medical teams in Africa and China's technology transfer to the continent. Part IV illustrates bilateral migration, discussing the history and life of Chinese immigrants in Africa and the African diaspora in China. The insights in this book, as well as real-life case studies, will make this work an indispensable reference for academics students policy makers and general readers who are interested in international issues and area studies especially China Africa relations China's rise and African development A Sociology of the World Rally Championship H. Naess, 2014-09-23 Drawing upon interviews with key people in the World Rally Championship as well as trans local ethnographic research this book explores questions of commerciality and sporting identity tackling the sport's controversial handling of the shift into the commercial age It is essential reading on combining sporting heritage and commercial progress Historia Ludens Alexander von Lünen, Katherine J. Lewis, Benjamin Litherland, Pat Cullum, 2019-08-30 This book aims to further a debate about aspects of playing and gaming in connection with history Reaching out to academics professionals and students alike it pursues a dedicated interdisciplinary approach Rather than only focusing on how professionals could learn from academics in history the book also ponders the question of what academics can learn from gaming and playing for their own practice such as gamification for teaching or using play as a paradigm for novel approaches into historical scholarship Playing and gaming are thus understood as a broad cultural phenomenon that cross pollinates the theory and practice of history and gaming alike Thomas Keneally's Career and the Literary Machine Paul Sharra, 2019-08-30 Booker Prize winner and Living National Treasure Thomas Keneally still divides critical opinion he is both a morally challenging stylist and a commercial hack a wise commentator on society and a garrulous leprechaun Such judgements are located in the cultural politics of Australia but also linked to ideas about what a literary career should look like Thomas Keneally's Career and the Literary Machine charts Keneally's production and reception across his three major markets noting clashes between national interests and international reach continuity of themes and variety of topics settings and genres the writer's interests and the publishers push to create a brand celebrity fame and literary reputation and the tussle around fiction history allegory and the middlebrow Keneally is seen as playing a long game across several events rather than honing one specialist skill a strategy that has sustained for more than 50 years his ambition to earn a living from writing Reforming Memory Robert Vosloo, 2017-10-02 Although we should acknowledge the fragility of memory we should nevertheless affirm the remarkable ability of memory to reform and transform our identity Our memories and ways of remembering are however often marked by trauma and violence Memory therefore not merely reforms it too is in need of reformation redemption and transformation With this emphasis in mind Reforming Memory grapples with the question what a responsible engagement with the past entails also for Christians and churches associated with the Reformed tradition The history of Reformed churches in South Africa is one can argue a deeply divided and ambivalent one The same figures are heroes to some and villains to others historic events are deeply ambiguous and conflicting views surround different discourses Yet the histories and perhaps futures of these churches and traditions are inextricably interwoven Reforming Memory fundamentally combines an interest in the notion of memory with an interest in South African Reformed theology and history Central is the question how should we remember and represent the past responsibly The essays collected in this book engage in different ways with this question attending in the process to some episodes in the history of the Dutch Reformed Church some influential Reformed theologians and some important Reformed practices and confessional documents Development with Global Value Chains Dev Nathan, Meenu Tewari, Sandip Sarkar, 2019-01-24 Can firms and economies utilize global value chains for development How can they move from low income to middle income and even high income status This book addresses these questions through a series of case studies examining upgradation and innovation by firms operating in GVCs in Asia The countries examined are China India South Korea the Philippines and Sri Lanka with studies of firms operating in varied sectors aerospace components apparel automotive consumer electronics including mobile phones telecom equipment IT software and services and pharmaceuticals

Doing Justice to History Barrie Sander, 2021-03-09 As communities struggle to make sense of mass atrocities expectations have increasingly been placed on international criminal courts to render authoritative historical accounts of episodes of mass violence Taking these expectations as its point of departure this book seeks to understand international criminal courts through the prism of their historical function The book critically examines how such courts confront the past by constructing historical narratives concerning both the culpability of the accused on trial and the broader mass atrocity contexts in which they are alleged to have participated The book argues that international criminal courts are host to struggles for historical justice discursive contests between different actors vying for judicial acknowledgement of their interpretations of the past By examining these struggles within different institutional settings the book uncovers the legitimating qualities of international criminal judgments In particular it illuminates what tends to be foregrounded and included within as well as marginalised and excluded from the narratives of international criminal courts in practice What emerges from this account is a sense of the significance of thinking about the emancipatory limits and possibilities of international criminal courts in terms of the historical narratives that are constructed and contested within and beyond the courtroom Curating Oral Histories Nancy MacKay, 2016-06-16 The greatly expanded second edition of Curating Oral Histories offers the same practical guidance as the first edition in the same engaging style but with enhanced content and context Updates on technology legal and ethical issues oral history on the Internet cataloging copyright and backlogs reflect current thinking in the field
