I appreciate the offering of unique tools on an array of specific critical topics that fill gaps in our pedagogical content knowledge. This volume will sit right alongside my dog eared 1996 edition and fortify many methods courses theses and dissertations to come. Sincere thanks to the editor and authors for what I am certain will be an enduring catalyzing contribution.

Nancy C. Patterson, Professor of Education, Social Studies Content Area Coordinator, Bowling Green State University

The Handbook on Teaching Social Issues is a tool that every informed social studies educator should have in their instructional repertoire. Helping students understand how to investigate and take action against problems is essential to developing a better world. The articles in this handbook provide explanations and reasonings behind issues centered education as well as strategies to employ at every age level of learning. I look forward to using this edition with the K-12 social studies teachers in my district in order to better prepare our students for future learning and living.

Kelli Hutt, Social Studies Curriculum Facilitator, Dallas Center Grimes CSD, Grimes, Iowa

Ron Evans has chosen an appropriate time to create a companion publication to the first Handbook on Teaching Social Issues published in 1996. During the last few years, social studies teachers have been confronted by student inquiries on a plethora of historical and contemporary issues that implores for the implementation of an interdisciplinary approach to the teaching of anthropology, economics, geography, government, history, sociology, and psychology in order for students to make sense of the world around them and develop their own voices. This demands a student centered focus in the classroom where problematic questions must be addressed and investigated in depth in order to increase social understanding and active participation toward social progress. This volume provides crucial upgrades to the original handbook including a greater emphasis on teaching issues in the elementary grades, the inclusion of issues pertaining to human rights, genocide, and sustainability to be addressed in the secondary grades, and addressing issues related to disabilities.
