part of contemporary Europe In this book Stefan Paas offers thoughtful analysis of reasons and motives for missionary church planting in Europe and he explores successful and unsuccessful strategies in that post Christian secularized context Drawing in part on his own involvement with planting two churches in the Netherlands Paas explores confessional motives growth motives and innovation motives for church planting in Europe tracing them back to different traditions and reflecting on them from theological and empirical perspectives He presents examples from the European context and offers sound advice for improving existing missional practices Paas also draws out lessons for North America in a chapter coauthored with
