Good Quarterly Report 2007

Victor M. Corman

Good Quarterly Report 2007:

Minerals Yearbook ,2010 The Iraqi Refugees Joseph Sassoon,2008-11-30 In the years since the US led invasion of Iraq over 4 million Iraqis have been forced to flee their homes in what amounts to one of the largest people movements in modern times far exceeding the Palestinian outflow after 1948 Despite media reports of an improved security situation in Iraq the majority of refugees are still not prepared to return The social economic political and security consequences of the Iraq refugee crisis are huge In this rigorous and timely book Joseph Sassoon explores the underlying trends of Iraq s refugee flow which class ethnic and sectarian groups have gone and are continuing to go where and how Based on extensive original research he examines the economic impact of this exodus on Iraq itself and on the host countries of the region Jordan Syria and Lebanon He analyses international policy on the refugee issue and assesses the options for return and resettlement The Iraqi Refugees is both the first and the definitive guide to what will come to be seen as one of the most significant issues affecting the entire Middle East Ministry of Defence annual report and accounts 2008-09 Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Defence Committee,2010-02-24 This report examines the administration expenditure activities and achievements of the MoD during the 2008 09 financial year as detailed in the Ministry of Defence annual report and accounts 2008 09 ISBN 9780102962239 It continues a series of inquiries and indeed the Committee sees it as cause for concern that the NAO found the need to qualify the MoD s resource accounts for the third consecutive year Whilst it is acknowledged that capability in theatre must be the Department s first concern failing to maintain accurate and full information on personnel and to keep track of assets has the potential to threaten the long term capability of the Department including operational capability SEC Docket United States. Securities and Exchange Commission,2008 DFID's performance in 2008-09 and the 2009 White Paper Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: International Development Committee,2010-03-11 DFID is right to focus more resources on fragile states if global poverty reduction goals are to be met However this report highlights a number of concerns about DFID s capacity to meet this and other new policy directions set out in the 2009 White Paper Cm 7656 ISBN 9780101765626 based on analysis of the Department s performance in 2008 09 the Department s annual report 2008 09 published as HC 867 I II ISBN 9780102962154 Climate change another key White Paper focus area threatens progress on poverty reduction and will hit the poorest people first and hardest The outcome of the Copenhagen Conference in December 2009 was disappointing and real progress needs to be made before the next conference at the end of this year The White Paper also indicates that DFID will channel more funding through multilateral organisations including the EU the UN and the World Bank This offers the prospect of more coordinated delivery of aid but only if these bodies increase their effectiveness and their poverty focus The report also argues for speedier reform of the governance of the international financial institutions The recession has had a significant impact on developing countries It is estimated that an additional 90 million people will be affected by poverty as a combined result of the global food financial and fuel crises over the last few years Donors including the UK have responded and have sought to identify specific needs in developing countries though many donors are failing to meet the aid commitments they have already made The Work of the Committee in Session 2008-09 Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: International Development Committee,2009 work of the Committee in Session 2008 09 Second report of session 2009 10 report together with formal Minutes DFID's programme in Bangladesh Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: International Development Committee,2010-03-04 This report finds that Bangladesh has reduced poverty levels from 57 per cent at the beginning of the 1990s to 40 per cent in 2005 but much more needs to be done to help the country s poorest people Despite a steadily growing economy Bangladesh s potential to achieve more widespread poverty reduction is held back by its poor record on governance and high levels of corruption Successive governments have failed to respond to the needs of poor and marginalised communities and instead state power has too often been used for personal and partisan ends Bangladesh is the fourth highest recipient of UK bilateral assistance DFID s programme there in the current financial year is worth 125 million and will rise to 150 million in 2010 11 The report praises the innovative non governmental organisations NGO community in Bangladesh which plays an important role in delivering basic services in areas where state provision is limited Gender inequality continues to be a significant problem in Bangladesh an increase in the number of girls attending primary school contrasts with insufficient progress in tackling maternal mortality and women remain marginalised and excluded from key decision making processes Bangladesh is likely to be adversely affected by climate change and the poorest people will be hardest hit The report adds large parts of the country are low lying and susceptible to more frequent and intense floods and cyclones Bangladesh will need assistance to cope with the effects of rises in sea levels and increased salinisation

source for the latest news on the ever changing populations governments and economies throughout the world It is an accurate and comprehensive reference that you will reach for again and again EU Conditionality in the Western Balkans Florian Bieber,2018-12-07 This volume examines how European institutions the European Union in particular through its policy of conditionality have shaped the post conflict reconstruction of the Western Balkans From state building to democratization and environmental policies this book explores whether and in what ways the EU has been successful in consolidating states and democracy in the Balkans In addition to requiring countries to be ready to join the European Union the EU has also set new conditions in an effort to become the prime international organization involved in stabilizing the Western Balkans after the wars of the 1990s Its record has been mixed the conditions of the EU have often been haphazard and were frequently not followed through In addition enlargement towards the Western Balkans has been slow and marred by open questions over the stability of some countries in the region This volume assesses the EU s struggle to transform the societies through conditionality and whether the offer of EU membership is enough to build stable democracies This book was published as a special issue of Europe Asia Studies The work of the British Council 2008-09 Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Foreign Affairs Committee,2010-02-04 The British Council is the UK s international organisation for educational opportunities and cultural relations Its purpose is to build engagement and trust for the UK through the exchange of knowledge and ideas between people worldwide As well as education it runs programmes in the arts science sport governance and English language in 110 countries and territories worldwide 2009 marked the 75th anniversary of the establishment of the Council It receives Grant in Aid from the FCO for its public diplomacy activity 209 million 2008 09 a 6% increase from 2007 08 The Committee concludes that the change in extent of data provided and the presentation of that data in the British Council s 2008 09 annual report makes it more difficult to track and evaluate the Council s performance over a period of years In future the annual report should include fuller performance data including corporate performance scores and reach to facilitate year on year analysis The recent decline in some of the scores achieved in relation to quality of service particularly in that relating to engagement with decision makers and senior influencers gives cause for concern The Committee welcomes the Council s efforts to re establish itself in Iran and Zimbabwe its increased focus on China and its progress in implementing NAO suggested administrative reforms HC 625 session 2007 08 ISBN 9780102954173 2009 10 will be a difficult year for the British Council and further cuts in staff and services may be unavoidable In these circumstances it is important that the Council concentrates its activities on its core business and key objectives Draft International Development \(Official Development Assistance Target\) Bill Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: International Development Committee,2010-03-23 In 1970 the UN General Assembly called on the economically advanced countries to provide 0.7% of their income as Official Development Assistance ODA by the middle of the decade In 2004 the UK committed to meet the target by 2013 The Government proposes to enshrine in law its commitment to meet the target in 2010 and each subsequent year Whilst the legislation is widely welcomed the Committee remains uncertain that it will have the wider impact claimed The accountability measures contained in the draft Bill weaken the commitment and provide the Government with an easy excuse for not meeting the target The 2002 International Development Act stipulates that DFID's expenditure on ODA should have poverty reduction as its primary objective With increasing pressure to find additional finance for responding to climate change or to new types of security threats there is a danger that increased amounts of UK ODA will be used for purposes only marginally related to poverty reduction The Government must take appropriate steps to guard against this whether or not the Bill becomes law Ultimately the Committee supports the 0.7% goal and feels the UK should maintain and build on its reputation as a donor

DFID's assistance to Zimbabwe Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: International Development Committee, 2010-03-26 This report finds that UK aid has helped deliver progress in Zimbabwe since the Government of National Unity was established a year ago but governance human rights and provision of basic services are still falling well below the needs of the people The Department for International Development DFID allocated 60 million for humanitarian and development assistance in the country in 2009/10 This support has been effective in reaching poor and vulnerable people UK aid should continue given the scale of ongoing need two million people are estimated to require food aid this year and should be increased in the sectors where it is making the greatest impact Aid should continue to be channelled through non governmental organisations and multilateral agencies Emergency aid is making a difference but it cannot be turned into sustained development support without a long term political settlement The report condemns the electoral manipulation abuse of state power land seizures and violence against political opponents and civil society which President Mugabe's ZANU PF have inflicted on the country for many years Many skilled workers left the country leaving the health and education systems in particular near collapse The report concludes that the international community's longer term focus should be on strengthening the capacity of the Government of National Unity so that it is better placed to determine its own development priorities and to deliver them

DFID's programme in Nepal Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: International Development Committee, 2010-03-28 DFID's programme in Nepal Sixth report of session 2009/10 Vol 1 Report together with formal Minutes

Readiness and recuperation of the Armed Forces Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Defence Committee, 2010-02-10 The Defence Committee states that the forthcoming Strategic Defence Review should take account of the current low readiness levels of the Armed Forces and the need for their effective recuperation The Armed Forces have been involved in operations in Iraq and Afghanistan for many years while maintaining key standing tasks such as the strategic nuclear deterrent and UK air defence They have been deployed above the Defence Planning Assumptions the level at which they are structured and funded for seven years Nevertheless the Committee considers it unsatisfactory that readiness levels have been allowed to fall to the extent that they have and recommends that the Strategic Defence Review reviews the utility and content of the Defence Planning Assumptions and readiness targets Recuperation is the process by which force elements are returned to target levels of readiness It involves all the underlying components manpower equipment training and logistics support The drawdown of troops from Iraq should provide the MoD with an opportunity to recuperate the Armed Forces and to reverse the fall in readiness But there have also been pressures on personnel with significant numbers of the Army and the Marines and those in key pinch point trades such as medical personnel being deployed more frequently than the MoD would wish breaking harmony guidelines If readiness is to be improved then the Army must return to being deployed within harmony guidelines as soon as practicable National Security and Resilience Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Defence Committee,2009 This report is in response to the Government s reply to the Committee s May 2009 Report on the Defence contribution to national security and resilience The Committee is disappointed with the content of the Government s response to its earlier Report and challenges the Ministry of Defence to be more open in setting out its role in contributing to the nation s security In this Report the Committee calls upon the Government to provide regular updates on national security to appropriate select committees deplores the Government s failure so far to establish a Joint Committee on the National Security Strategy following the announcement of July 2008 and stresses the importance of the forthcoming defence Green Paper and Strategic Defence Review in making the necessary and important connections between national security and strategic defence capabilities The next Government must spell out more clearly the role of the UK s defence assets in our national security Foreign and Commonwealth Office annual report 2006-07 Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Foreign Affairs Committee,2007-11-19 This report is the Committee s annual review of how the FCO is managing its resources This year a key area off interest has been the 2007 Comprehensive Spending Review because the Committee think it is one of the tightest in Whitehall and it risks jeopardising some of the FCO s important work Apart from this the other subjects covered are measuring performance operational efficiency management and leadership FCO services diplomatic representation overseas transparency and openness public diplomacy British council BBC World Service Britannica Book of the Year 2012 Encyclopaedia Britannica, Inc.,2012-03-01 The Britannica Book of the Year 2012 provides a valuable viewpoint of the people and events that shaped the year and serves as a great reference source for the latest news on the ever changing populations governments and economies throughout the world It is an accurate and comprehensive reference that you will reach for again and again
