

Through the Years by Emily

You helped me laugh
You dried my tears
Because of you, I have no fears
Together we live
Together we grow
Teaching each other what we must know
You came in my life and I was blessed
I love you, friend
You are the best
Release my hand and say good-bye
Please, my friend, don't you cry
I promise you this, it's not the end.
'Cause like I said, you're my friend.

Goodbye Poems For Camp Director:

The Braided Dream Randolph Paul Runyon, 2021-12-14 Robert Penn Warren's reputation as a poet though always considerable has soared in the last decade as indicated by his recent selection as America's first poet laureate. The Braided Dream is one of the first book-length studies of the poetry that has led to Warren's recent rise to eminence and the first to consider his final collection Altitudes and Extensions. In a communicable jargon-free style that will appeal to the nonacademic reader as well as the serious scholar, Randolph Paul Runyon provides a detailed and illuminating guide to a body of poetry that despite its greatness has until now seemed resistant to full understanding. Every poem of Warren's last four sequences Now and Then, Being Here, Rumor Verified, and Altitudes and Extensions is given a close reading with a precise laying out of words, phrases, and recurring images that not only enrich the texture of the poetry but are themselves the texture. Runyon demonstrates the relevance of Freud's concept of the dream-work of the unconscious to a reading of this tightly interwoven poetry. He shows how Warren's poems assume additional meanings by the poet's very arrangement of them, deepening his thesis by arguing that poems eat poems as each reuses and reconceptualizes the imagery of its predecessor frequently with ironic or parodic effect.

A delight for anyone interested in poetry. The Pocket Guide to Poets & Poetry is also useful for those who want to discover new favorites. Unsettling America Maria Mazziotti Gillan, Jennifer Gillan, 1994-11-01 A multicultural array of poets explore what it is means to be American. This powerful and moving collection of poems stretches across the boundaries of skin color, language, ethnicity, and religion to give voice to the lives and experiences of ethnic Americans. With extraordinary honesty, dignity, and insight, these poems address common themes of assimilation, communication, and self-perception. In recording everyday life in our many American cultures, they displace the myths and stereotypes that pervade our culture. Unsettling America includes work by Amiri Baraka, Chitra Banerjee Divakaruni, Rita Dove, Louise Erdrich, Jessica Hagedorn, Joy Harjo, Garrett Hongo, Li Young Lee, Pat Mora, Naomi Shihab Nye, Marye Percy, Ishmael Reed, Alberto Rios, Ntozake Shange, Gary Soto, Lawrence

Duncan,2009-05 Tell This Silence by Patti Duncan explores multiple meanings of speech and silence in Asian American women s writings in order to explore relationships among race gender sexuality and national identity Duncan argues that contemporary definitions of U S feminism must be expanded to recognize the ways in which Asian American women have resisted and continue to challenge the various forms of oppression in their lives There has not yet been adequate discussion of the multiple meanings of silence and speech especially in relation to activism and social justice movements in the U S In particular the very notion of silence continues to invoke assumptions of passivity submissiveness and avoidance while speech is equated with action and empowerment However as the writers discussed in Tell This Silence suggest silence too has multiple meanings especially in contexts like the U S where speech has never been a guaranteed right for all citizens Duncan argues that writers such as Maxine Hong Kingston Mitsuye Yamada Joy Kogawa Theresa Hak Kyung Cha Nora Okja Keller and Anchee Min deploy silence as a means of resistance Juxtaposing their unofficial narratives against other histories official U S histories that have excluded them and American feminist narratives that have stereotyped them or distorted their participation they argue for recognition of their cultural participation and offer analyses of the intersections among gender race nation and sexuality Tell This Silence offers innovative ways to consider Asian American gender politics feminism and issues of immigration and language This exciting new study will be of interest to literary theorists and scholars in women s American and Asian American studies Poetry Index Annual, 1991 Inc Staff Roth Publishing,Roth Publishing, Inc.

DADAFest Liverpool Life, Times and Poetry of Mir S R Sharma, 2014-01-16 Mir Taqi Miror Mir as he is better known was one of the greatest poets of Urdu. The book is a fascinating story of his life of rare courage and grit. Orphaned at the age of eleven with the death of an ascetic father with nothing to fall back on, young Mir was thrown into difficult times to face life and support his family. The Indian subcontinent faced internecine wars and the great Mughal empire was crumbling in front of the child Mir who was left to fend for himself and provide for his family. Mir witnessed the destruction and savagery of Nadir Shah and Ahmed Shah Abdali brought upon Delhi. These historical times left a deep impression on Mir as is seen in his poetic sensibilities. The book captures the personal travails of Mir, the drama of his time and his soul stirring poetry. Arguably the greatest of Urdu poets, Ghalib made a rare unqualified exception when it came to Mir as he wrote Rekhta ke tum hee ustaad nahin ho. Ghalib Kehte hain agle Zamane mein koi Mir bhi tha. Ghalib, you are not the only master of Urdu poetry. Heard people say there was one Mir in the bygone era.

Reading the Middle Generation Anew Eric Haralson, 2006-04 Ten original essays by advanced scholars and well published poets address the middle generation of American poets including the familiar Robert Lowell, Elizabeth Bishop, Randall Jarrell and John Berryman and various important contemporaries Delmore Schwartz, Theodore Roethke, Robert Hayden and Lorine Niedecker. This was a famously troubled cohort of writers for reasons both personal and cultural and collectively their poems give us powerful moving insights into American social life in the transforming decades of the 1940s through the 1960s. In addition to having worked during the broad middle of the last century, these poets constitute the center of twentieth century American poetry in the larger sense, refuting invidious connotations of middle as coming after the great moderns and being superseded by a proliferating postmodern experimentation. This middle generation mediates the so called American century and its prodigious body of poetry even as it complicates historical and aesthetic categorizations. Taking diverse formal and thematic angles on these poets, biographical, historical, deconstructionist and more formalist accounts, this book re-examines their betweenness and ambivalence, their various positionings and repositionings in aesthetic, political and personal matters. The essays study the interplay between these writers and such shifting formations as religious discourse, consumerism, militarism and war, the ideology of America as nature's nation and U.S. race relations and ethnic conflicts. Reading the Middle Generation Anew also shows the legacy of the middle generation, the ways in which their lives and writings continue to be a shaping force in American poetry. This fresh and invigorating collection will be of great interest to literary scholars and poets.
