Location Awareness in the Age of Google Maps Rebecca Noone,2024-07-12 Location Awareness in the Age of Google Maps explores the mundane act of navigating cities in the age of digital mapping infrastructures Noone follows the frictions routing through Google Maps categorising and classifying of spatial information Complicating the assumption that digital maps distort a sense of direction Noone argues that Google Maps location awareness does more than just organise and orient a representation of space it also organises and orients imaginaries of publicness selfsufficiency legibility and error At the same time Location Awareness in the Age of Google Maps helps to animate the ordinary ways people are challenging and refusing Google Maps vision of the world Drawing on an arts based field study spanning the streets of London New York London Toronto and Amsterdam Noone's encounters of asking for directions open up lines of inquiry and spatial scores that cut through Google's universal mapping project Location Awareness in the Age of Google Maps will be essential reading for information studies and media studies scholars and students with an interest in embodied information practices critical information studies and critical data studies The book will also appeal to an urban studies audience engaged in work on the digital city and the datafication of urban environments

Digital in Underwater Cultural Heritage Guzden Varinlioglu,2016-04-26 One can argue that academia has always existed in an information age however as the general public gains access to ever more advanced systems it can be claimed that areas of academia require updating to maintain vitality in today's world When nautical archaeology produces inspiring reports they are often at the hand of large budgets rather than general day to day dissemination This book proposes using state of the art low budget digital technology from the outset of surveys so that data may be recorded analysed and disseminated with seamless efficiency and great flair while employing progressively less decontextualized means Further it conveys a simple methodology that allows for data collection by teams of volunteer divers Big data rapid analysis and cross reference requirements have created a shift towards the need for advanced digital means particularly relating to underwater archaeology where survey time is limited This book logs several years of studies which respect in situ preservation where the limits of technology were stretched to the cutting edge using novel collection methods to populate custom built numerical and visual databases generating 2D and 3D digital models and further creating a Virtual Reality museum These advances not only propel the function of academia but also promote the image of archaeology in an age where visualisation matters

Brazil Hattie Hartman,2017-03-01 Brazil is a country of city dwellers undergoing radical transformation over 85 per cent of the country's citizens live in cities and over 40 per cent of the population live in metropolises of more than a million people Whereas previously urban growth had been ad hoc preparation for the FIFA World Cup in 12 cities across the country in 2014 and for the upcoming Olympic and Paralympic Games in Rio changed all that Several Brazilian cities have proactively invested in infrastructure and the public realm And a number of projects by international architects have heightened interest in Brazil from architects and urban practitioners abroad The failure of public authorities to meet their ambitious aspirations for the sporting mega events sparked a series of street protests across the country under the banner of the right to the city beginning in 2013 For Brazil this was an entirely new phenomenon one which has unveiled the potential for bottom up influences to effect urban change The focus of this issue though is on design projects that contribute a strong sense of place to their respective cities highlighting also the integration of landscape design in urban planning and community interventions that seek to address the enormous disparity between the lives of the country's rich and poor Contributors Ricky Burdett Thomas Deckker Gabriel Duarte Sergio Ekerman Nanda Eskes and Andr Vieira Alexandre Hepner and Silvio Soares Macedo Circe Monteiro and Luiz Carvalho Joana Carla Soares Gon alves Jaime Lerner Ana Luiza Nobre Justin McGuirk Francesco Perrotta Bosch Maria do Rocio Ros rio Fernando Serapi o Guilherme Wisnik Featured architects AECOM Biselli Katchborian Brasil Arquitetura Santiago Calatrava Studio Arthur Casas Diller Scofidio Renfro Herzog de Meuron Vigliecca Associados
