interviews actors who worked with Lean and directors who knew him and their comments reveal new details about the director's life and career Phillips also explores Lean's lesser studied films such as The Passionate Friends 1949 Hobson's Choice 1954 and Summertime 1955 The result is an in depth examination of the director in cultural historical and cinematic contexts Lean's approach to filmmaking was far different than that of many of his contemporaries He chose his films carefully and as a result directed only sixteen films in a period of more than forty years Those films however have become some of the landmarks of motion picture history Lean is best known for his epics but Phillips also focuses on Lean's successful adaptations of famous works of literature including retellings of plays such as Brief Encounter 1945 and novels such as Great Expectations 1946 Oliver Twist 1948 and A Passage to India 1984 From expansive studies of war and strife to some of literature's greatest high comedies and domestic dramas Lean imbued all of his films with his unique creative vision Few directors can match Lean's ability to combine narrative sweep and psychological detail and Phillips goes beyond Lean's epics to reveal this unifying characteristic in the director's body of work Beyond the Epic is a vital assessment of a great director's artistic process and his place in the film industry

Global Awakening Mark R. Shaw, 2010-05-07 The last century has seen the revolutionary remaking of Christianity into a truly world religion How did it happen What triggered the emergence of this new global faith no longer dominated by the West full of new and vital forms of devotion Mark Shaw's provocative thesis is that far flung revivals are at the heart of the global resurgence of Christianity These were not the quirky folk rituals associated with rural America and nineteenth century camp meetings that belong more to an age of plows and prairies than of postmodernity and globalization Rather they were like forces of nature protean constantly adjusting their features and ferocity to new times and to new places speaking Spanish Portuguese Yoruba Korean Mandarin and Gujarati They crossed the equator As they traveled abroad they grabbed hold of missionaries Bible translations national evangelists globalization and glossolalia and turned them into a religious revolution In this engaging book we read the stories of Joseph Babalola and the Aladura Revival in Africa of Kil Sun Ju and the great Korean revival of 1907 of Paulo Borges Jr and explosion of neo Pentecostalism in Brazil and of V S Azariah and the mass conversions of the Dalit people in India As Shaw paints portraits of these and many more his gallery fills and we begin to see beyond isolated pictures to the sweeping landscape that we didn t realize was before our eyes all the time
