Read the passage to answer question 8-10

Young people must be educated in modern science, its methods and its mental attitudes. Without this education they will find the modern world utterly incomprehensible. But they cannot be good citizens of the world, or of their own nation, unless they are intellectually and imaginatively aware of the values which underlie human beliefs, motives and conduct. In this troubled period of human history, religion and the humanities are as vital as science to the education of good members of a good society.

- "Incomprehensible" can best be replaced by
 - understandable
 - explicable
 - reasonable
 - beyond your understanding
- "Troubled period of human history" refers to
 - primitive times
 - modern times
 - good times
 - bad times
- The discussion of "values" in the passage serves primarily to illustrate the importance of education of
 - modern sciences
 - religion or humanities
 - religion and humanities
 - modern sciences along with religion and humanities
