Islam And The European Empires The Past Present Series:

Islam and the European Empires David Motadel, 2014 The first comparative account of the engagement of all major European empires with Islam in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries exploring an array of themes ranging from the accommodation of Islam under imperial rule to Islamic anti colonial resistance and contributing to our understanding of religion and power in the modern world

The Hajj and Europe in the Age of Empire, 2016-10-05 The present volume focuses on the political perceptions of the Hajj its global religious appeal to Muslims and the European struggle for influence and supremacy in the Muslim world in the age of pre colonial and colonial empires In the late fifteenth century and early sixteenth century a pivotal change in seafaring occurred through which western Europeans played important roles in politics trade and culture Viewing this age of empires through the lens of the Hajj puts it into a different perspective by focusing on how increasing European dominance of the globe in pre colonial and colonial times was entangled with Muslim religious action mobility and agency The study of Europe s connections with the Hajj therefore tests the hypothesis that the concept of agency is not limited to isolated parts of the globe By adopting the tools of empires the Hajj in itself a global activity would become part of global and trans cultural history With contributions by Aldo D Agostini Josep Llu s Mateo Dieste Ulrike Freitag Mahmood Kooria Michael Christopher Low Adam Mestyan Umar Ryad John Slight and Bogusław R Zagórski

Calculating Political Risk Catherine Althaus, 2013-11-26 Calculating Political Risk is rich and illuminating and much more than a political science treatise Althaus draws on diverse literature extensive interviews and intriguing case studies to offer interdisciplinary practical and nuanced insight This book provides new perspectives and more precise language for making sense of a critical dimension of politics policy making and public management Evert Lindquist Director and Professor School of Public Administration University of Victoria Canada This powerful new book is the first ever examination of the hard edge of how political risk something faced by all political actors innumerable times every day is calculated and used in decision making It opens with an outline of the historical and linguistic origins of risk the various disciplinary understandings of risk the risk society concept and how risk has come to be so prominent in the context of environmental disaster and terrorism The book then defines political risk and looks at its manifestations in the public sector from project to high level political risk It also looks at risk identification versus risk management and compares the concept of political risk with the private sector practice of risk management Unique research findings from interviews with over 100 risk practitioners and politicians provide a detailed look at how political actors calculate political risk Case study based chapters look in depth at neat and discrete examples risk calculation in state development plans in Australia political risk identification and management in the UK during the mad cow crisis and US government risk calculation in the post September 11 context The final chapters draw together the experiences and lessons learned from the case studies and practitioner insights to formulate a better understanding of what political risk is and what its calculation means in political practice The author shows how political risk calculation provides a fresh perspective on policy analysis and identifies how political risk is relevant to a broader understanding of politics and political science as well as policy formulation and implementation on the ground

Europe, Empire, and Spectacle in Nineteenth-Century British Music Julian Rushton, 2017-07-05 This volume illuminates musical connections between Britain and the continent of Europe and Britain and its Empire The seldom recognized vitality of musical theatre and other kinds of spectacle in Britain itself and also the flourishing concert life of the period indicates a means of defining tradition and identity within nineteenth century British musical culture The objective of the volume has been to add significantly to the growing literature on these topics It benefits not only from new archival research but also from fresh musicological approaches and interdisciplinary methods that recognize the integral role of music within a wider culture including religious political and social life The essays are by scholars from the USA Britain and Europe covering a wide range of experience Topics range from the reception of Bach Mozart and Liszt in England a musical response to Shakespeare Italian opera in Dublin exoticism gender black musical identities British musicians in Canada and uses of music in various theatrical genres and state ceremony and in articulating the politics of the Union and Empire East West Mimesis Kader Konuk,2010-09-21 East West Mimesis follows the plight of German Jewish humanists who escaped Nazi persecution by seeking exile in a Muslim dominated society Kader Konuk asks why philologists like Erich Auerbach found humanism at home in Istanbul at the very moment it was banished from Europe She challenges the notion of exile as synonymous with intellectual isolation and shows the reciprocal effects of German migr s on Turkey s humanist reform movement By making literary critical concepts productive for our understanding of Turkish cultural history the book provides a new approach to the study of East West relations Central to the book is Erich Auerbach s Mimesis The Representation of Reality in Western Literature written in Istanbul after he fled Germany in 1936 Konuk draws on some of Auerbach s key concepts figura as a way of conceptualizing history and mimesis as a means of representing reality to show how Istanbul shaped Mimesis and to understand Turkey s humanist reform movement as a type of cultural mimesis *Catalogue Number.
