Life Science Grade 12 March Test 2014:

Life by Algorithms Catherine Besteman, Hugh Gusterson, 2019-05-23 Essays on the downsides dysfunctions and dangers of automated decision making An excellent survey of the algorithmically managed life Choice The phone systems that businesses use to screen calls The link between student standardized test scores and public schools access to resources The algorithms that regulate patient diagnoses and reimbursements to doctors The impenetrable corporate bureaucracy that can drive customers in need of help up the wall or drive them to suicide The storage sorting and analysis of massive amounts of information have enabled the automation of decision making at an unprecedented level Meanwhile computers have offered a model of cognition that increasingly shapes our approach to the world The proliferation of robo-processes is the result as editors Catherine Besteman and Hugh Gusterson observe in this rich and wide ranging volume which features contributions from a distinguished cast of scholars in anthropology communications international studies and political science Though automatic processes are designed to be engines of rational systems the stories in Life by Algorithms reveal how they can in fact produce absurd inflexible or even dangerous outcomes Joining the call for algorithmic transparency the contributors bring exceptional sensitivity to everyday sociality into their critique to better understand how the perils of modern technology affect finance medicine education housing the workplace food production public space and emotions not as separate problems but as linked manifestations of a deeper defect in the fundamental ordering of our society The Machine Stops E M Forster's 1909 science fiction story tells the tale of a human society collapsing when the technology upon which it has become dependent fails Think of this volume as The Machine Starts a collection of unsettling ethnographic accounts of the rise of algorithmic governance A necessary and sobering call to arms Stefan Helmreich Massachusetts Institute of Technology Contributors include Catherine Besteman Alex Blanchette Robert W Gehl Hugh Gusterson Catherine Lutz Ann Lutz Fernandez Joseph Masco Sally Engle Merry Keesha M Middlemass Noelle Stout Susan J Terrio ECGBL2014-8th European Conference on Games Based Learning Carsten Busch, 2014-11-11 ECRM2014-Proceedings of the 13th European Conference on Research Methodology for Business and Management Studies Dr Martin Rich, Dr Anne Brown, 2014-06-16 Grading Justice Kristen C. Blinne, 2021-01-11 In Grading Justice Teacher Activist Approaches to Assessment new and seasoned teachers are invited to engage with socially just approaches of assessment including practices aimed at resisting and undoing grading and assessment altogether to create more democratic grading practices and policies foregrounding the transformative potential of communication within their courses The contributions in this collection encourage readers to consider not only how educators might assess social justice work in and beyond the classroom but also to imagine what a social justice approach to grading and assessment would mean for intervening into unjust modes of teaching and learning Educators wishing to explore critical modes of grading and assessment grounded in social justice will find this book a timely and relevant pedagogical guide for their teaching and scholarship The Death and Life of the Great

American School System Diane Ravitch, 2016-06-28 An urgent case for protecting public education from one of America's best known education experts In this landmark book Diane Ravitch former assistant secretary of education and a leader in the drive to create a national curriculum examines her career in education reform and repudiates positions that she once staunchly advocated Drawing on over forty years of research and experience Ravitch critiques today's most popular ideas for restructuring schools including privatization the Common Core standardized testing the replacement of teachers by technology charter schools and vouchers She shows conclusively why the business model is not an appropriate way to improve schools Using examples from major cities like New York Philadelphia Chicago Denver and San Diego Ravitch makes the case that public education today is in peril and includes clear prescriptions for improving America's schools The Death and Life of the Great American School System is more than just an analysis of the state of play of the American education system It is a must read for any stakeholder in the future of American schooling Science Blogging Christie
