Johansen, 2017-09-15 This three volume set presents entries and primary sources that will impress on readers that what we do or don t do today regarding climate change will dramatically influence what life on this planet will be like for untold numbers of generations How are the behaviors of birds butterflies and other migratory animals connected to climate change What does the term thermal inertia mean and what does this geophysical effect have on predicting what the planet s future will be like What is the context for the effects we are seeing on various forms of animal life from migrating birds to polar bears to mosquitoes that transmit Zika and other diseases Climate Change An Encyclopedia of Science Society and Solutions combines entries describing Earth's variable climatic history, references to scientific literature, weather record data and selected primary documents to present readers with a comprehensive account of global warming's effects worldwide. By examining verifiable quantitative information such as the frequency and intensity of hurricanes and changes in the hydrological cycle as well as clear patterns and trends of alternating droughts and deluges and wildfires melting ice and rising seas, readers will be able to understand why scientists are so concerned about the future of our climate. Researchers will benefit from detailed explanations of scientific topics such as thermal inertia, feedbacks and tipping points, and receive invaluable context on the role of energy use in climate change, including automobiles and air travel. Readers will learn about the role of China in the current global climate and in the future, the widespread effects of climate change on agriculture and how indigenous peoples' lives are being impacted, from drought and the Navajos to hunters' lives in the Arctic. The work concludes with thought-provoking debates regarding potential solutions, from wind power and solar power to geo-engineering.

Tourism and the Creative Industries Philip Long, Nigel D. Morpeth, 2016-05-20 This book focuses on the theoretical policy and practice linkages and disjunctures between tourism and the creative industries. There are clear and strong intersections between the sectors, for example in the development and application of new and emerging media in tourism festivals and cultural events showcasing the creative identity of place, tours and place identities associated with film, TV, music and arts tourism, as well as particular destinations being promoted on the basis of their creative endowments such as theatre, breaks, art exhibitions and fashion shows. Tourism and the Creative Industries explores a variety of relationships in one volume and offers innovative and critical insights into how creative industries and tourism together contribute to place identity, tourist experience, destination marketing and management. The book is aligned with the sectors that have been demarcated by the UK Government Department of Culture, Media and Sport as comprising the creative industries: advertising and marketing, architecture, design and designer fashion, film, TV, video, radio and photography, IT software and computer services, publishing and music performing and visual arts. The title of this volume demonstrates how the exclusion of tourism from the creative industries is arguably perverse, given that much of the work by destination managers and of private sector tourism is characterised by creativity and innovation. Interdisciplinary research and international context bring a broader perspective on how the creative industries operate in varying cultural and policy contexts in relation to tourism. This book brings together the parallel and disparate interdisciplinary fields of tourism and the creative industries and will be of interest to students, academics and researchers interested in tourism, creative industries, marketing and management. The Legitimization Strategy of the Taliban's Code of Conduct Yoshinobu Nagamine, 2016-04-29 What norms and principles guide the Afghan Taliban in their conduct of hostilities? The author focuses on the Layeha, a Code of Conduct issued by the highest Taliban authority. Interviews with Taliban members were conducted to understand their perception of the Layeha, which is modeled as a one-way mirror. Child Rights in Humanitarian Crisis Rigmor Argren, Jessica Jonsson, 2023-04-28

This book demonstrates how a focus on children's rights can help practitioners to safeguard children during humanitarian crisis. Child Rights in Humanitarian Crisis focuses on understanding and advancing child rights through practical applications of a child rights perspective in crisis response. The book establishes that with accessible child-friendly participatory means, crisis response can improve from a child rights perspective and even advance children's rights whilst also supporting and furthering the development of a child's agency. The volume presents the reader with a clear focus on children from a range of backgrounds including those most marginalised such as children with disabilities. Drawing on expertise from the field as well as academia and providing practical examples which link case studies to legal policies in recent and protracted humanitarian responses such as in Turkey and at the Lithuania-Belarus border, this book is a treasure trove of advice from some of the humanitarian and development sector's most experienced professionals. Combining insights from both research and practice, this book will be an essential read for humanitarian students and practitioners. Punch Mark Lemon, Henry Mayhew, Tom Taylor, Shirley Brooks, Francis Cowley Burnand, Owen Seaman, 1863

The Routledge Handbook of Museums, Heritage, and Death Trish Biers, Katie Stringer Clary, 2023-07-26 This book provides a comprehensive examination of death, dying and human remains in museums and heritage sites around the world. Presenting a diverse range of contributions from scholars, practitioners and artists, the book reminds us that death and the dead body are omnipresent in museum and heritage spaces. Chapters appraise collection practices and their historical context, present global perspectives and potential resolutions and suggest how death and dying should be presented to the public. Acknowledging that professionals in the galleries, libraries, archives and museums (GLAM) fields are engaging in vital discussions about repatriation and anti-colonialist narratives, the book includes reflections on a variety of deathscapes that are at the forefront of the debate. Taking a multivocal approach, the handbook provides a foundation for debate as well as a reference for how the dead are treated within the public arena. Most important perhaps, the book highlights best practices and calls for more ethical frameworks and strategies for collaboration, particularly with descendant communities. The Routledge Handbook of Museums, Heritage and Death will be useful to all individuals working with, studying and interested in curation and exhibition at museums and heritage sites around the world. It will be of particular interest to those working in the fields of heritage, museum studies, death studies, archaeology, anthropology, sociology and history.
