Urban Bridges, Global Capital(s) Claire Launchbury, Megan C. MacDonald, 2021-01-31 Claire Launchbury and Megan C MacDonald's edited collection of essays offers a series of comparative analyses of the literary and filmic texts contexts and crossings of the Mediterranean region The book immediately illustrates the breadth depth and interdependence of what has become known as Mediterranean Studies The collection expands the borders of the Mediterranean space and posits it as a place of constant identitarian and linguistic interrogation for both those who occupy it and those who document it This collection will be a valuable resource for scholars who are looking for a contemporary and comprehensive entry point into Mediterranean Studies With its focus on transnationalisms genre and border crossings and complicated identities in the constantly reinvented and reinventing space of the Mediterranean Launchbury and MacDonald's collection offers a wealth of literary and cultural routes to follow Maria Vendetti Studies in 20th 21st Century Literature Le livre politique au prisme des médias Adrien de Calan, 2017-02-01 Pourquoi les responsables politiques se chinent-ils à écrire des livres quand de rares exceptions près ils sont si peu lus Mais les journalistes politiques reconnaissent qu'ils ont baissé les bras face à la floraison de ces ouvrages trop vite crits souvent médiocres en un mot périssables Cet essai se propose toutefois de prendre au sérieux cet objet paradoxal qui est le livre politique en passant au crible une cinquantaine d'entre eux signés Sgol ne Royal Bruno Le Maire ou Roselyne Bachelot Transnational French Studies Charles Forsdick, Claire Launchbury, 2023-10-01 The contributors to Transnational French Studies situate this disciplinary subfield of Modern Languages in actively transnational frameworks The key objective of the volume is to define the core set of skills and methodologies that constitute the study of French culture as a transnational transcultural and translingual phenomenon Written by leading scholars within the field chapters demonstrate the type of inquiry that can be pursued into the transnational realities both material and non material that are integral to what is referred to as French culture The book considers the transnational dimensions of being human in the world by focussing on four key practices which constitute the object of study for students of French language and multilingualism the construction of transcultural places and the corresponding sense of space the experience of time and transnational subjectivities The underlying premise of the volume is that the transnational is present and has long been present throughout what we define as French history and culture Chapters address instances and phenomena associated with the transnational from prehistory to the present opening up the geopolitical map of French studies beyond France and including sites where communities identified as French have formed Le Corbusier - L'Unité d'habitation de Marseille / The Unité d'Habitation in Marseilles Jacques Sbriglio, 2015-04-24 the Unit in Marseille 1945 1952 was a pioneering achievement at a time when social housing in the post WWII years posed an immense problem Freed from restrictive regulations for the first time Le Corbusier was able to put into practice his concept of modern social housing A milestone of modern architecture and subject of controversial debate the Unit in Marseille continues to attract numerous visitors and

Prague, Capital of the Twentieth Century Derek Sayer, 2021-11-09 The story of modernity told through a cultural history of twentieth century Prague Setting out to recover the roots of modernity in the boulevards interiors and arcades of the city of light Walter Benjamin dubbed Paris the capital of the nineteenth century In this eagerly anticipated sequel to his acclaimed Coasts of Bohemia A Czech History Derek Sayer argues that Prague could well be seen as the capital of the much darker twentieth century Ranging across twentieth century Prague's astonishingly vibrant and always surprising human landscape this richly illustrated cultural history describes how the city has experienced and suffered more ways of being modern than perhaps any other metropolis Located at the crossroads of struggles between democratic communist and fascist visions of the modern world twentieth century Prague witnessed revolutions and invasions national liberation and ethnic cleansing the Holocaust show trials and snuffed out dreams of socialism with a human face Yet between the wars when Prague was the capital of Europe's most easterly parliamentary democracy it was also a hotbed of artistic and architectural modernism and a center of surrealism second only to Paris Focusing on these years Sayer explores Prague's spectacular modern buildings monuments paintings books films operas exhibitions and much more A place where the utopian fantasies of the century repeatedly unraveled Prague was tailor made for surrealist André Breton's black humor and Sayer discusses the way the city produced unrivaled connoisseurs of grim comedy from Franz Kafka and Jaroslav Hasek to Milan Kundera and Václav Havel A masterful and unforgettable account of a city where an idling flaneur could just as easily be a secret policeman this book vividly shows why Prague can teach us so much about the twentieth century and what made us who we are

Mainstream Growth Economists and Capital Theorists Marin Muzhani, 2014-06-01 Mainstream Growth Economists and Capital Theorists provides a historical survey and ideal introduction to modern economics arguing that due to significant changes in recent years a re evaluation is in order Marin Muzhani presents an informed study of the debates regarding economic growth and development that began in the 1930s in response to the Great Depression He argues that in the wake of that crisis the challenge for economists was to understand how to generate stable economic growth in order to prevent future crises The theories of John Maynard Keynes in particular sought to explain the reasons for unemployment and recessions paving the way for the field of macroeconomics and challenging the basic premises of neoclassical economics In the late 1930s and 1940s economists began to extend Keynes ideas synthesizing them with neoclassical ideas in order to explain economic growth This neoclassical synthesis would dominate mainstream macroeconomic thought for the next forty years until the mid 1980s with the introduction of endogenous growth theories

Taking into account the historical background the multitude of interpretations of modern growth models and the geography of mainstream economists Mainstream Growth Economists and Capital Theorists will simplify the structure of growth theory for the next generation of economists The Rise of a Capital: Al-Fustāt and Its Hinterland, 18/639-132/750 Jelle Bruning, 2018-05-01 In The Rise of a Capital Al Fus and Its Hinterland 18 639 132 750 Jelle Bruning maps al Fus s development from a garrison town founded by Muslim conquerors near modern Cairo Egypt in c 640 C E into a bustling provincial capital a century later Synthesising contemporary papyri archaeology and narrative sources this book argues that al Fus s position in Egypt changed with the different policies of the Rightly Guided and Umayyad caliphs and their provincial representatives Because these policies affected the town s centrality in the administration as well as in commercial and legal networks throughout Egypt from Alexandria in the north to Aswan in the south The Rise of a Capital offers valuable new insights into Egypt s society during the first century of Muslim rule Marseille ma capitale Marie-Arlette Carlotti, 2013-03-21 Je suis dans le taxi avec l un de mes collaborateurs venu de Paris et je me rends compte quel point il est difficile d expliquer Marseille quelqu un qui n y vit pas Comment expliquer dans notre Etat jacobin et particulièrement un Parisien que Marseille ne se soucie guère de Paris Il y voit un repli alors que Marseille ouvre ses bras la Méditerranée La géographie est ainsi faite un Marseillais qui regarde la mer tourne le dos la capitale Comment expliquer ce sentiment d être part Il y voit de l orgueil alors qu il s agit de fierté Comment expliquer l attachement viscéral des Marseillais Marseille leur répugnance imaginer vivre ailleurs Il y voit du chauvinisme alors que l on parle d amour Je me tourne vers le chauffeur pour trouver un soutien On l aime notre ville hein Ah oui on l aime Mais enfin moins qu avant Marie Arlette Carlotti Neither Capital, Nor Class Jacek Tittenbrun, 2018-04-10 This book offers an in depth examination of Pierre Bourdieu s theoretical framework The book is not just a collection of more or less critical remarks but constitutes a coherent whole underpinned by an original analytical framework This conceptual apparatus makes it possible to present some alternative solutions to the theoretical problems under consideration The book goes largely against the grain of views that are dominant in the literature on Bourdieu Therefore its conclusions may be surprising to many a reader The book demonstrates that Bourdieu s well known theory of capital forms is untenable resembling more an illegitimate metaphor rather than a scientific concept In a similar vein the Bourdesian class theory should be largely regarded as a variant of social stratification rather than class There are many theoretical and empirical problems with Bourdieu s theory of social and cultural reproduction as well There is more to the above criticisms than meets the eye The point is that many weaknesses of Bourdieu s style of theorising seem to stem from his intellectual dependence upon structuralism especially in Claude Lévi Strauss version It is this affinity that accounts for such features of Bourdieu s approach as its essentialism formalism and epistemic idealism The book will be of interest primarily to students of Bourdieu s many and varied contributions to social theory In view of Bourdieu s immense influence it will also hold interest to critical scholars in political science economic sociology and political philosophy The Power of the Emotional Capital in Education Bénédicte Gendron, 2018 The emotional capital EK this powerful functioning capital which was missing in economics measurement is the capital driving heart mind soul and behaviours which could changes the world by changing ourselves It s a three levels economics concept micro meso and macro Developed by Gendron in the early 2000s the Emotional Capital is the stock of the personal and social competencies that is inherent in the person useful for personal professional and organizational developments and participates to social cohesion and has global and personal economic and social returns Activating executive functions the emotional capital is developed by active positive and collaborative pedagogy heutagogy and by practising mindfulness and meditation bringing back the joy of learning by collaborative and creative learning re enchanting teaching As a means of production society contribution and personal developments each additional investment in EK yields additional outputs at the three levels helping at performing better socially economically and personally In eudaimonic economics the EK participates not only to the socio economic growth but also to the society cohesion and happiness as environmental concerns underlying the relevance of education for the social and economic welfare and the environmental protection Thus there is an emergency to invest in Emotional Capital to follow Mandela mottoes to fulfill Sen s lifetime achievement and development as freedom and feed Gandhi s empowerment and emancipation to allow a Better World
