

JANUARY ... DOES IT BRING YOU JOY?

- 1 January is the time for renewal on many fronts. It's the time of the year to re-evaluate everything. If something or someone doesn't bring you joy, it's pretty pointless carrying on with it. If we want the best, we must do our best. We must keep our family space safe and secure so that we are thriving as a people and as a nation. 5
- 2 In order to live their best lives, people are spreading themselves thinner and thinner with multiple streams of income. In the process we earn more but live less, we lose our focus of what is important.
- 3 With social media, keeping up with other Instagrammers are having a devastating effect on self-perception. Everything appears to be real perfect, but the fabric of our society is frazzled. Use January to take stock and start navigating new ways of doing things. Instead of multiple streams of sole sessions, travel more, and connect with people and places that bring you joy. 10

Ethnology and Empire Robert Lawrence Gunn, 2015-10-16 Winner The Early American Literature Book Prize Ethnology and Empire tells stories about words and ideas and ideas about words that developed in concert with shifting conceptions about Native peoples and western spaces in the nineteenth century United States Contextualizing the emergence of Native American linguistics as both a professionalized research discipline and as popular literary concern of American culture prior to the U S Mexico War Robert Lawrence Gunn reveals the manner in which relays between the developing research practices of ethnology works of fiction autobiography travel narratives Native oratory and sign languages gave imaginative shape to imperial activity in the western borderlands In literary and performative settings that range from the U S Mexico borderlands to the Great Lakes region of Tecumseh s Pan Indian Confederacy and the hallowed halls of learned societies in New York and Philadelphia Ethnology and Empire models an interdisciplinary approach to networks of peoples spaces and communication practices that transformed the boundaries of U S empire through a transnational and scientific archive Emphasizing the culturally transformative impacts western expansionism and Indian Removal Ethnology and Empire reimagines U S literary and cultural production for future conceptions of hemispheric American literatures Routledge Handbook of Heritage in Asia Patrick Daly, Tim Winter, 2012-03-29 This Handbook is the first major volume to examine the conservation of Asia s culture and nature in relation to the wider social political and economic forces shaping the region today Throughout Asia rapid economic and social change means the region s heritage is at once under threat and undergoing a revival as never before As societies look forward competing forces ensure they re visit the past and the inherited with the conservation of nature and culture now driven by the broader agendas of identity politics tradition revival rapid development environmentalism and sustainability In response to these new and important trends the twenty three accessible chapters here go beyond sector specific analyses to examine heritage in inter disciplinary and critically engaged terms encompassing the natural and the cultural the tangible and intangible Emerging environmentalisms urban planning identity politics conflict memorialization tourism and biodiversity are among the topics covered here This path breaking volume will be of particular interest to students and scholars working in the fields of heritage tourism archaeology Asian studies geography anthropology development sociology and cultural and postcolonial studies Race, Class, and Politics in the Cappuccino City Derek S. Hyra, 2017-04-17 For long time residents of Washington DC s Shaw U Street the neighborhood has become almost unrecognizable in recent years Where the city s most infamous open air drug market once stood a farmers market now sells grass fed beef and homemade duck egg ravioli On the corner where AM PM carryout used to dish out soul food a new establishment markets its 28 foie gras burger Shaw is experiencing a dramatic transformation from ghetto to gilded ghetto where white newcomers are rehabbing homes developing dog parks and paving the way for a third wave coffee shop on nearly every block Race Class and Politics in the Cappuccino City is an in depth ethnography of this gilded ghetto Derek S

Hyra captures here a quickly gentrifying space in which long time black residents are joined and variously displaced by an influx of young white relatively wealthy and or gay professionals who in part as a result of global economic forces and the recent development of central business districts have returned to the cities earlier generations fled decades ago As a result America is witnessing the emergence of what Hyra calls cappuccino cities A cappuccino has essentially the same ingredients as a cup of coffee with milk but is considered upscale and is double the price In Hyra s cappuccino city the black inner city neighborhood undergoes enormous transformations and becomes racially lighter and more expensive by the year

Multilingualism in the Chinese Diaspora Worldwide Li Wei, 2015-10-16 In this volume Li Wei brings together contributions from well known and emerging scholars in socio and anthropological linguistics working on different linguistic and communicative aspects of the Chinese diaspora The project examines the Chinese diasporic experience from a global comparative perspective with a particular focus on transnational links and local social and multilingual realities Contributors address the emergence of new forms of Chinese in multilingual contexts family language policy and practice language socialization and identity development multilingual creativity linguistic attitudes and ideologies and heritage language maintenance loss learning and re learning The studies are based on empirical observations and investigations in Chinese communities across the globe including well researched from a sociolinguistic perspective areas such as North America Western Europe and Australia as well as under explored and under represented areas such as Africa Latin America Central Asia and the Middle East the volume also includes detailed ethnographic accounts representing regions with a high concentration of Chinese migration such as Southeast Asia This volume not only will allow sociolinguists to investigate the link between linguistic phenomena in specific communities and wider socio cultural processes but also invites an open dialogue with researchers from other disciplines who are working on migration diaspora and identity and those studying other language based diasporic communities such as the Russian diaspora the Spanish diaspora the Portuguese diaspora and the Arabic diaspora Education, Privatisation and Social Justice Ian Macpherson, Susan Robertson, Geoffrey

Walford, 2014-05-12 The involvement of private actors in education is not new yet in the last decade critical issues have arisen that demand close scrutiny This volume explores emerging forms of the private through case studies from Africa South Asia and South East Asia and makes three related observations First what is new about these manifestations is their scale scope and penetration into almost all aspects of the education endeavour from the administrative apparatus to policymaking and from formal provision in education settings to out of school activities such as private tutoring Second what is particularly controversial about these developments is how education itself is being recast as a sector it is increasingly being opened up to profit making and trade and to agenda setting by private commercial interests Third the learner is increasingly conceptualised as a consumer and education a consumer good The case studies therefore enable us to see more clearly how different forms of the private in education alter what is at stake for whom and with what outcomes and the consequences for individuals and societies In turn these raise the very important question about what they mean for our conceptualisations of education learning and teaching on the one hand and for education as a site and means for emancipation on the other These are profound social justice concerns and ones that make this volume distinctive This book sets out to address these hard but urgent questions and will be of interest to academics and students of education education researchers government personnel and policymakers

Histories of Anthropology Gabriella D'Agostino,Vincenzo Matera,2023-03-22 This edited volume presents for the first time a history of anthropology regarding not only the well known European and American traditions but also lesser known traditions extending its scope beyond the Western world It focuses on the results of these traditions in the present Taking into account the distinction between empire building and nation building anthropology introduced by G Stocking and taken up by U Hannerz the book investigates different histories of anthropology especially in ex colonial and marginal contexts It highlights how the hegemonic anthropologies have been accepted and assimilated in local contexts which approaches have been privileged by institutions and academies in different locations how the anthropological approach has been modelled and adapted according to specific knowledge requirements related to the cultural features of different areas and which schools emerge as the most consolidated today Each chapter presents a cultural history of one of the historical cultural and geo political contexts that influenced and produced the specific disciplinary traditions The chapters highlight the local contributions to the discipline the influences that the world centres have on the peripheries but also the ways in which the peripheries have learned from the centres in order to re elaborate meaningful or otherwise recognisable disciplinary lines

Mixing and Unmixing Languages Amelia Abercrombie,2020-07-16 Mixing and Unmixing Languages uses the politics and practices of language to understand social hierarchies and social change in a post conflict and post socialist context The book focuses on Roma in Prizren Kosovo where the author conducted long term ethnographic fieldwork using language learning as a central method Shifts in language practices among this highly multilingual group have reflected the demise of Yugoslav socialism the rise of ethno nationalist politics and conflict and the post war reversal of power relations in Kosovo Roma in Prizren nostalgically narrate a past of cosmopolitanism and employment in contrast to the present Their position today is complex while they stress their relative integration this position is fragile in the face of nationalist politics and imported neoliberal economic policies Within this context Roma NGO workers have found an economic niche working on projects to protect multiculturalism and minorities funded by international aid agencies centred on Romani language This book discusses the historical trajectory and current configurations of a Romani organisation in the town the standardisation of Romani and the hierarchical organisation of linguistic forms and language learning the self representation of Roma and the gypsy image through Romani language drama and attitudes to purism mixing and cosmopolitanism Mixing and Unmixing Languages is suitable for academics and students in the areas of linguistic anthropology and linguistic ethnography Romani studies South East European studies and sociolinguistics

Reworking

Japan Nana Okura Gagné, 2021-01-15 Reworking Japan examines how the past several decades of neoliberal economic restructuring and reforms have challenged Japan's corporate ideologies, gendered relations, and subjectivities of individual employees. With Japan's remarkable economic growth since the 1950s, the lifestyles and life courses of salarymen came to embody the New Middle Class family ideal. However, the nearly three decades of economic stagnation and reforms since the bursting of the economic bubble in the early 1990s have intensified corporate retrenchment under the banner of neoliberal restructuring and brought new challenges to employees and their previously protected livelihoods. In a sweeping appraisal of recent history, Gagné demonstrates how economic restructuring has reshaped Japanese corporations, workers, and ideals, as well as how Japanese companies and employees have resisted and actively responded to such changes. Gagné explores Japan's fraught and problematic transition from the postwar ideology of companyism to the emergent ideology of neoliberalism and the subsequent large-scale economic restructuring. By juxtaposing Japan's economic transformation with an ethnography of work and play and individual life histories, Gagné goes beyond the abstract to explore the human dimension of the neoliberal reforms that have impacted the nation's corporate governance, socioeconomic class, workers' subjectivities, and family relations. Reworking Japan with its firsthand analysis of how the supposedly hegemonic neoliberal regime does not completely transform existing cultural frames and social relations will shake up preconceived ideas about Japanese men and the social effects of neoliberalism.

Liminal Spaces of Writing in Adolescent and Adult Education Jin Kyeong Jung, Mellinee Lesley, Rene Saldana, Julie Smit, 2022-03-03 Liminal Spaces of Writing in Adolescent and Adult Education addresses the persistent gap in writing reform at the middle secondary and post secondary level. Through an examination of useful and liminal writing, the book explores the intellectual and creative space where structured expectations verge with individual imagination in writing. The premise of the book is built around a multiplicity of ways to invite adolescent and adult students to enter into states of liminality where they are encouraged to experiment with style, form, genre, and voice. Through research featuring the perspectives of adolescents, classroom teachers, teacher educators, graduate students, and literacy researchers, the book offers numerous insights into fostering a liminal and useful approach to writing instruction. Each author takes the reader through a journey of finding the liminal as teachers, writers, and researchers. Taken together, this tapestry of perspectives puts forth the argument that liminal moments are necessary caveats to explore in order to cultivate fully actualized writing where students are in control of structures and traditional writing expectations but also free to imagine new ways of breaking with conventions and being as writers. Thus, the book argues liminal writing is critical in bringing about sustained writing reform.
