

Autobiographical Essay

My name is Jeremy Maggi. I am a teacher at Orange Glen High School in Escondido, California. I am writing an autobiographical essay, a story about an event in my life and how it changed me. I am writing about a scary meeting I had with a rattlesnake when I was younger to show what I learned and to tell how this event was important to me.

It all happened one summer day in 1995 when I was ten years old. At that time, I was living in Valley Center, California with my parents and my brother. Our house was out in the country and there were many wild plants and animals, and I loved to go on walks with my father through the wilderness. On that day, my father, my younger brother, and I were taking a walk in the bushes outside my house. I wanted to lead, so I walked in front, my brother followed me, and my father was in the back. It was a beautiful day when we started walking; the deep blue sky was above us, the sun shined on us from over our heads, and all around you could hear the buzz of insects and the rustle of the wind on the leaves of the beautiful green bushes. I could smell the lovely smell of the summer flowers all around me.

Suddenly, and without warning, my father rushed to the front and pushed me aside. "Hey! What the heck!" I thought. But, just then, I heard a terrible buzz from where I had just been about to step. I looked and I saw a giant, red diamond-back rattlesnake in the path where I had been walking! His rattle was shaking and he was very angry. I could see his tongue flick in and out of his mouth. His narrow eyes looked at me. I felt my heart pounding in my chest. The cold wind blew on my sweating skin. Now I knew why my dad had pushed me.

We sat there for a while because we didn't want the snake to strike and attack us, and the snake stayed there, too, because he was afraid of us also. We called to our neighbor, Ken, who happened to be out, and he came with a shovel to kill the snake. Clang! With one hit he cut off the snake's head. Ken grabbed the snake by the tail and carried it back home, its blood still dripping on the ground.

Examples Of An Autobiographical Narrative:

American Authorship and Autobiographical Narrative Jonathan D'Amore, 2012-06-08 This book explores the conflicted relationship writers have with their public image particularly when they have written about their personal lives D'Amore analyzes the autobiographical works of Norman Mailer John Edgar Wideman and Dave Eggers in light of theories of authorship autobiography and celebrity Mercer Dictionary of the Bible Watson E. Mills, Roger Aubrey Bullard, 1990 Jesus Christ in History and Scripture highlights two related bases for the current revolution in Jesus studies 1 a critically chastened world view that is satisfied with provisional results and 2 a creative or poetic use of the sources of study of Jesus

Australian Autobiographical Narratives: 1850-1900 Kay Walsh, Joy W. Hooton, 1993 Australian Autobiographical Narratives Volume 2 and its partner Volume 1 provide researchers with detailed annotations of published Australian autobiographical writing Both volumes are a rich resource of the European settlement of Australia Theis selection concentrates on the post gold rush period providing portraits of 533 individuals from amateur explorers to politicians from pioneer settlers to sportsmen Like Volume 1 it offers an intimate and absorbing insight into nineteenth century Australia

Women Taking Risks in Contemporary Autobiographical Narratives Kenneth Reeds, Anna Rocca, 2013-10-03 Women Taking Risks in Contemporary Autobiographical Narratives explores the nature and effects of risk in self narrative representations of life events and is an early step towards confronting the dearth of analysis on this subject The collection focuses on risk taking as one of women's articulations of authorial agency displayed in literary testimonial photographic travel and film documentary forms of autobiographical expression in French Among many themes the book fosters discussion on matters of courage strength resilience freedom self fulfillment political engagement compassion faith and the envisioning of unconventional alliances that follow a woman's stepping out of her comfort zone The fourteen essays included in this collection discuss works of women authors from North Africa Sub Saharan Africa France and the Caribbean They exemplify a variety of self narratives that blur unified conceptualizations of both identity and national belonging They address questions about women writers attitudes towards risk and their willingness to change the status quo They also explore the many personal and public forms in which agency manifests through risk taking engagements the ways in which women challenge the conventional wisdom about feminine reserve and aversion to danger the multiplicity of seen and unforeseen consequences of risk taking the all too frequent lack of recognition of female courage the overcoming of obstacles by taking risks and frequently the amelioration of women's lives Addressing both the broader context of the study of risk and the more specific areas of female expression and autobiography in Francophone cultures this collection is attractive to a diverse audience with the potential to cross disciplines and inform a wide body of research A number of the essays deal with issues born in postcolonial circumstances This examination of the elucidation of marginalized voices should prove enlightening to an array of scholars researching specific ethnic sexual gender and general subjects related to identity In making inroads towards expanding the well developed area of risk studies into the humanities this collection makes an important contribution that has the potential to promote a variety of cross disciplinary research including examinations of the psychology and sociology behind chauvinism personal expression and formative experiences Art, Mind, and Narrative Julian Dodd, 2016-11-17 This volume presents new essays on art mind and narrative inspired by the work of the late Peter Goldie who was Samuel Hall Professor of Philosophy at the University of Manchester until 2011 Its three sections cover Narrative Thinking Emotion Mind and Art and Art Value and Ontology Within these sections leading authorities in the philosophy of mind aesthetics and the emotions offer the reader entry points into many of the most exciting contemporary debates in these areas of philosophy Topics covered include the role that narrative thinking plays in our lives our imaginative engagement with fiction the emotions and their role in the motivation of action the connection between artistic activity and human well being and the appreciation and ontological status of conceptual artworks Cracking Old Testament Codes D. Brent Sandy, Ronald L. Giese, 1995-06-06 A guide to the various kinds of literature in the Old Testament narrative history law oracles and more and how to interpret them Contributors include Eugene Merrill Walt Kaiser and Tremper Longman III Reading Autobiography Sidonie Smith, Julia Watson, 2010 projects and an extensive bibliography Book Jacket Research Methods in Intercultural Communication Zhu Hua, 2015-11-04 Research Methods in Intercultural Communication introduces and contextualizes the most important methodological issues in the field for upper level undergraduate and graduate students Examples of these issues are which paradigms and how to research multilingually interculturally and ethnically Provides the first dedicated and most comprehensive volume on research methods in intercultural communication research in the last 30 years Explains new and emerging methods as well as more established ones These include Matched Guise Technique Discourse Completion Task Critical Incident Technique Critical Discourse Analysis Ethnography Virtual Ethnography Corpus Analysis Multimodality Conversation Analysis Narrative Analysis Questionnaire and Interview Assists readers in determining the most suitable method for various research questions conceptualizing the research process interpreting results and drawing conclusions Supports students from start to finish with key terms suggestions for further reading research summaries and sound guidance from experienced scholars and researchers Life History and Narrative J. Amos Hatch, Richard Wisniewski, 2002-11 Narrative inquiry refers to a subset of qualitative research design in which stories are used to describe human action This book contains current ideas in this field of research and will be of interest to qualitative researchers Depicting the Late Ottoman Empire in Turkish Autobiographies Philipp Wirtz, 2017-03-16 The period between the 1880s and the 1920s was a time of momentous changes in the Ottoman Empire It was also an age of literary experiments of which autobiography forms a part This book analyses Turkish autobiographical narratives describing the part of their authors lives that was spent while the Ottoman Empire still existed The texts studied in this book were written in the cultural context of the Turkish Republic which went to great lengths to disassociate itself from the empire and its legacy This process has only been criticised and partially reversed in very recent times the resurging interest in autobiographical texts dealing with the old days by the Turkish reading public being part of a wider renewed regard for Ottoman legacies Among the analysed texts are autobiographies by writers journalists soldiers and politicians including classics like Halide Edip Ad var and evket S reyya Aydemir but also texts by authors virtually unknown to Western readers such as Ahmed Emin Yalman While the official Turkish republican discourse went towards a dismissal of the imperial past autobiographical narratives offer a more balanced picture From the earliest memories and personal origins of the authors to the conflict and violence that overshadowed private lives in the last years of the Ottoman Empire this book aims at showing examples of how the authors painted what one of them called images of a past world
