The Fires Beneath Seán Morrow, 2016-06-01 The life of Monica Wilson is a story of groundbreaking scholarship passionate creativity and personal tragedy during South Africa's bitter and divided twentieth century As a young anthropologist in the 1930s Monica immersed herself in the lives work and beliefs of African communities in southern and East Africa while carefully observing the effects of historical change At the core of her existence was her intellectual collaboration and intense personal relationship with her husband the brilliant but clinically depressive Godfrey Wilson who took his own life in 1944 After Godfrey's death Monica raised their two children and built a career as a leading academic at Fort Hare Rhodes University College and the University of Cape Town In a political environment where black academics were under constant threat and ideas were censored she outspokenly advocated racial equality and freedom of speech her publications emphasising a common South African identity and implicitly challenging apartheid separate development This fascinating biography moves between the Eastern Cape Cambridge Tanganyika Nyasaland Northern Rhodesia and Cape Town It explores the relationship between anthropology and history and the tensions between liberalism Christianity Marxism and apartheid ideology Drawing on the letters and diaries left by Monica and Godfrey Wilson this is a powerful story about politics race war faith love and loss The Education Gazette of the Province of the Cape of Good Hope Cape of Good Hope (South Africa). Education Department, 1916 The Athenæum, 1919 Inside African Anthropology Andrew Bank, Leslie J. Bank, 2013-04-08 Inside African Anthropology offers an incisive biography of the life and work of South Africa's foremost social anthropologist Monica Hunter Wilson By exploring her main fieldwork and intellectual projects in southern Africa between the 1920s and 1960s the book offers insights into her personal and intellectual life Beginning with her origins in the remote Eastern Cape the authors follow Wilson to the University of Cambridge and back into the field among the Mpondo of South Africa where her studies resulted in her 1936 book Reaction to Conquest Her fieldwork focus then shifted to Tanzania where she teamed up with her husband Godfrey Wilson In the 1960s Wilson embarked on a new urban ethnography with a young South African anthropologist Archie Mafeje one of the many black scholars she trained This study also provides a meticulously researched exploration of the indispensable contributions of African research assistants to the production of this famous woman scholar's cultural knowledge about mid twentieth century Africa The Forgotten People Saleem Badat, 2013-01-29 The apartheid state employed many weapons against its opponents imprisonment banning detention assassination and banishment In a practice reminiscent of Tsarist and Soviet Russia a large number of enemies of the state were banished to remote areas far from their homes communities and followers Here their existence became a slow torture of the soul a kind of social death This is the first study of an important but hitherto neglected group of opponents of apartheid set in a global historical and comparative perspective It looks at the reasons why people were banished their lives in banishment and the efforts of a remarkable group of activists led by Helen Joseph to assist them Bantoe-onderwysblad

,1978 The Spectator ,1917 A weekly review of politics literature theology and art The Athenaeum ,1901

Livelihoods and Landscapes Paul Hebinck, Peter Lent, 2007-07-30 Drawing on original data secondary literature aerial photographs and archives this book analyzes changes in the use of the landscape and the nature of rural livelihoods in two South African villages Taking an interdisciplinary approach on how livelihoods and landscapes in the Eastern Cape link the text provides a comprehensive study of the patterns of land use over time Three separate chapters focus on cropping and cultivation practices livestock and foraging as well as the gathering of wild plants The book gives a vivid picture of the social dynamics and the interaction between urban and rural It depicts the steady deterioration in agricultural production and the corresponding increase in dependence on social grants and wages Despite this trend remnants of a peasantry do exist

Digital Transformation in Public Sector Human Resource Management Shava, Elvin, Ndebele, Nduduzo, 2024-07-10 The advent of the Fourth Industrial Revolution 4IR has created a pressing need for digital transformation in human resources management HRM in public institutions Traditional practices must be updated preventing institutions from effectively managing their workforce and meeting stakeholder demands The lack of digitalization leads to inefficiencies ineffective performance evaluation and an inability to adapt to the rapidly evolving technological landscape This gap between existing HR practices and the demands of the digital age poses a significant challenge for public sector organizations Digital Transformation in Public Sector Human Resource Management offers a comprehensive solution to the challenges faced by public institutions The book provides practical insights and strategies for aligning HR practices with the modern technological landscape by exploring how digital transformation can revolutionize HRM processes It demonstrates the benefits of adopting digital technologies and innovative strategies in public sector HRM through real world examples and case studies The book guides public sector professionals policymakers and academics helping them navigate the complexities of digital transformation in HRM
