The Animal Experimentation Debate David E. Newton, 2013-05-09 Reviewing the topic from antiquity to the present day this book examines the debate over the use of animals in research in a fair and balanced way The debate over the use of nonhuman animals in experimental research has gone on for centuries and it continues as vigorously today as it ever has In fact in the last decade the controversy has intensified making animal testing a topic at the highest level of debate of any socioscientific issue in the United States This book presents all sides of the issue so that readers can come to their own conclusions as to the morality and validity of animal experimentation and provides biographies of individuals and descriptions of organizations that have been involved in the debate over the centuries Additionally it documents the historical shift in thinking that made animal experimentation commonplace between the time of the ancient Greeks and the 19th century to the mindset of some who argue for an end to the practice and alternative ways of conducting medical experimentation to benefit human health

The AV Magazine, 1996 A comparative study of elite English-medium schools, public schools, and Islamic madaris in contemporary Pakistan Akhtar Hassan

Malik, 2015-04-12 This ethnographic study examines the role of differing school knowledge in reproducing various social classes in the society. It was observed that an unequal availability of capital resources, agents' class habitus, and the type of their cultural currency act as selection mechanisms that clearly favour some social groups over others. The ruling classes ensure the transfer of their power and privilege to their children by providing them with quality education in elite schools. The disadvantaged classes are excluded from these unique institutions by both social and economic sanctions. They have no other option than to educate their children either in public schools or Islamic madaris. As a result, inequitable educational opportunities consolidate the existing social class hierarchy.
