Secondary Liability of Internet Service Providers Graeme B. Dinwoodie, 2017-06-28 This book analyses the doctrinal structure and content of secondary liability rules that hold internet service providers liable for the conduct of others including the safe harbours or immunities of which they may take advantage and the range of remedies that can be secured against such providers Many such claims involve intellectual property infringement but the treatment extends beyond that field of law Because there are few formal international standards which govern the question of secondary liability comprehension of the international landscape requires treatment of a broad range of national approaches This book thus canvasses numerous jurisdictions across several continents but presents these comparative studies thematically to highlight evolving commonalities and trans border commercial practices that exist despite the lack of hard international law The analysis presented in this book allows exploration not only of contemporary debates about the appropriate policy levers through which to regulate intermediaries but also about the conceptual character of secondary liability rules

Race Rights Reparations Fernne Brennan, 2017-07-14 This book considers institutional racism as a problem that exists within modern societies Its roots lie with the transatlantic slave trade and slavery and the solution involves ridding society of the problem It is argued here that first there needs to be an acceptance of its existence then developing the tools needed to deal with it and finally to implement those tools so that institutional racism can be permanently removed from society The book has four themes the first considers the nature of institutional racism the second theme looks at instances of institutional racism through matters such as deaths in custody and skin lightening the third considers the concept of reparations and the final area looks at the development of social movements as a way of pushing institutional racism up the political agenda The development of a social movement is part of a social discourse which would for example push mentoring as a form of reparations There is a need for more research on the manifestations of institutional racism and this book is part of that discourse It is argued that the legacy of the slave trade and slavery is continuing and contemporary through the presence of institutional racism in society This problem has not been addressed through legislation and policies devised to combat racial discrimination Institutional racism needs to be understood as being located in the processes and procedures of societal institutions
