Wismüller,2003-06-26 Euro Par the European Conference on Parallel Computing is an international conference series dedicated to the promotion and advancement of all aspects of parallel computing The major themes can be divided into the broad categories of hardware software algorithms and applications for parallel computing The objective of Euro Par is to provide a forum within which to promote the development of parallel computing both as an industrial technique and an academic discipline extending the frontier of both the state of the art and the state of the practice This is particularly important at a time when parallel computing is undergoing strong and sustained development and experiencing real industrial take up The main audience for and participants of Euro Par are seen as researchers in academic departments government laboratories and industrial organisations Euro Par s objective is to become the primary choice of such professionals for the presentation of new results in their specific areas Euro Par is also interested in applications that demonstrate the effectiveness of the main Euro Par themes Euro Par now has its own Internet domain with a permanent Web site where the history of the conference series is described <http://www.euro-par.org> The Euro Par conference series is sponsored by the Association of Computer Machinery and the International Federation of Information Processing

Western Electrician, 1904 Guidelines for Fire Protection in Chemical, Petrochemical, and Hydrocarbon Processing Facilities CCPS (Center for Chemical Process Safety), 2010-08-13 While there are many resources available on fire protection and prevention in chemical petrochemical and petroleum plants this is the first book that pulls them all together in one comprehensive resource This book provides the tools to develop implement and integrate a fire protection program into a company or facility s Risk Management System This definitive volume is a must read for loss prevention managers site managers project managers engineers and EHS professionals Note CD ROM DVD and other supplementary materials are not included as part of eBook file Proceedings, 1994 Nuclear Safety, 1970 Blindsight Matt Johnson, Prince Ghuman, 2020-05-19 Ever notice that all watch ads show 10 10 as the time Or that all fast food restaurants use red or yellow in their logos Or that certain stores are always having a sale You may not be aware of these details yet they ve been influencing you all along Every time you purchase swipe or click marketers are able to more accurately predict your behavior These days brands know more about you than you know about yourself Blindsight is here to change that With eye opening science engaging stories and fascinating real world examples neuroscientist Matt Johnson and marketer Prince Ghuman dive deep into the surprising relationship between brains and brands In Blindsight they showcase how marketing taps every aspect of our mental lives covering the neuroscience of pain and pleasure emotion and logic fear and safety attention and addiction and much more We like to think of ourselves as independent actors in control of our decisions but the truth is far more complicated Blindsight will give you the ability to see the unseeable when it comes to marketing so that you can consume on your own terms On the surface you will learn how the brain works and how brands design for it But peel back a layer and you ll find a sharper image of your psychology reflected in your consumer behavior This book will change the way you view not just branding but yourself too Causes And Consequences Of Map Generalization Elsa Joao, 1998-05-27 This text describes late 1990s understanding of map generalisation in the context of paper maps and GIS Its particular value should be in helping to further automate and measure the process of map generalisation The research has concentrated on quantifying generalisation effects and on analysing how these effects of generalisation locked into the maps were measured Elsa Joao s book covers the background to the problems of map generalisation the methodology developed by the author to investigate the consequences of the map generalisation a detailed description of results and a conclusion that draws together consequences for the broader applications to GIS GECCo - German-English Contrasts in Cohesion Kerstin Kunz, Ekaterina

Lapshinova-Koltunski, José Manuel Martínez Martínez, Katrin Menzel, Erich Steiner, 2021-10-25 In contrastive linguistics of English and German there is a tradition of accounting for contrasts with respect to grammar and to a lesser extent for lexis and phonetics Moving on to discourse and text there is a sizeable body of literature on cohesive patterns in English and German respectively but very little in terms of a comparison The latter though is of particular interest for language learners translators and of course linguists and researchers in language technology This book attempts to close this gap based on a number of years of corpus based study into variation and cohesion in the two languages While there is an overall focus on language contrasts it also investigates variation between different registers language internally and between written and spoken mode in particular For each of the five major types of cohesion co reference substitution ellipsis conjunctive relations and lexical cohesion overviews are given of contrasts in the system and of contrastive frequencies in texts Results and methods presented in this book are thus relevant for language teaching translation language technology and corpus based work on English and German generally
