Islamic Movements of Europe Frank Peter, Rafael Ortega, 2014-09-08 Islam in Europe and Islamophobia are subjects of vital global importance which currently preoccupy policy makers and academics alike Through the examination of various European Muslim groups and institutions that have branched off from Islamic movements including the Muslim Brotherhood Hizb ut Tahrir and Jama at i Islami this book outlines the configuration of social political and religious processes that have given rise to new kinds of European Muslim organisations The authors offer a new perspective on these Muslim groups and seek to reclaim them from the often highly charged public debates by placing them within the context of their origins as politicised religious movements on the one hand and their ongoing incorporation into European societal structures on the other They also consider the relationship of these organisations to their parent movements and examine the presence of Islam in European education and higher education institutions Taking into account the connection between Islamic movements and the perceived surge of Islamophobia in Europe this book does not debate the question of whether these groups fit into normative or cultural structures of European nation states but rather examines how these structures have changed through their interaction with these groups and the growing Muslim population within Europe It does not consider political Islam as the antithesis to a refined notion of secularism but as a form of public religion which contributes to the ever changing structure of Europe s secular regimes Featuring the work of more than 40 scholars from around the world this is the comprehensive guide to Islamic movements in Europe offering original definitive perspectives on Muslims and Islam in Europe today It will be essential reading for policy makers political commentators and scholars alike

Rediscovering Objects from Islamic Lands in Enlightenment Europe Isabelle Dolezalek, Mattia Guidetti, 2021-12-30 This book argues that the provenance of early modern and medieval objects from Islamic lands was largely forgotten until the long eighteenth century when the first efforts were made to reconnect them with the historical contexts in which they were produced For the first time these Islamicate objects were read studied and classified and given a new place in history Freed by scientific interest they were used in new ways and found new homes including in museums More generally the process of rediscovery opened up the prehistory of the discipline of Islamic art history and had a significant impact on conceptions of cultural boundaries differences and identity The book will be of interest to scholars working in the history of art the art of the Islamic world early modern history and art historiography Western European Studies Eva Martin Sartori, 1990

Benchmarking Muslim Well-Being in Europe Irving Jackson, Pamela Doerschler, Peter, 2012-07-11 This highly topical book aims to undermine unsubstantiated myths by examining Muslim integration in Germany France the Netherlands and the United Kingdom states which dominate the debate on minority integration and the practice of Muslim religious traditions These nations have a range of alternative relationships between religion and the state as well as strategies for coordinating individuals ethnic and state identities Using the European Parliament s benchmarking guidelines surveys and other non official data the authors find that in some areas Muslims are in fact more integrated than popularly assumed and suggest that instead of failing to integrate Muslims find their access to integration blocked in ways that reduce their life chances in the societies in which they are now permanent residents The book will have an impact on research and policy especially with the commencement of the EU wide integration benchmarking effort and will be an excellent resource for researchers academics and policy makers Jihad's New Heartlands Gabriel G. Tabarani, 2011-05-16 Jihad s New Heartlands How The West Has Failed To Contain Islamic Fundamentalism is a ground breaking book offering an insightful and thorough analysis of the most important territories where Islamic fundamentalism has taken a foothold The author Gabriel G Tabarani thanks to his combination of thorough research wide ranging travel and extensive experience in the field provides a thorough historical political and social analysis of the key variables historical events and most importantly their potential consequences This extensive study across many of the world s foremost and pertinent Islamic fundamentalist breeding grounds such as Afghanistan Pakistan Egypt Saudi Arabia Yemen Somalia The Levant and The Maghreb offers the reader an in depth look at the context of Islamic Fundamentalism s rise in prominence profile and destabilising potential This analysis is extended to Muslim populations living in Europe and America helping to explain the causes for the Wests failure to contain Islamic extremism both at home and abroad Jihad s New Heartlands in addition to being written by one of the regions foremost experts is a must read for any person wanting to understand the causes of Islamic Fundamentalisms rise and the consequences of its ascent in an increasingly globalised yet unstable world Dutch Reformed Orthodoxy and Islam Felipe Boechat Asseruy Silva,2025-03-10 However turbulent and virulent Christian Muslim Relations may have been throughout the centuries it does not mean that each side did not take the time to evaluate and appreciate each other s theological dogmas Felipe Boechat Asseruy Silva shows that although Christians were subjected to constant attacks and invasions by the Turks for multiple centuries they eventually Early Modern Period sought to refine their thinking about Islam and evaluate its theological tenets in a semi dispassionate form and to provide a large scale reply In the Medieval period in depth analysis of Islam from a purely theological philosophical point of view were rare Most publications frequently resorted to the use of offensive and inaccurate language which at times fomented a disagreement between the parties based not on real theological differences besides the obvious political differences but on imagined ones This volume shows that Post Reformation Reformed Orthodox theologians especially those from the Dutch Republic after having access to a long legacy of Christian Muslim written publications collected by Dutch Universities were able to build much more refined arguments and indeed present well informed apologetical theological and historical arguments against Islam The author also shows that the intense commerce between Christian and Islamic nations and the contemporary flourishing of orientalist studies in the Dutch Universities contributed to the formation of an intellectual arena that was willing to overlook past animosities and focus on the theological differences addressing them as such Arabic Christianity between the Ottoman Levant and Eastern Europe ,2021-08-24 This volume sheds light on the historical background and political circumstances that encouraged the dialogue between Eastern European Christians and Arabic speaking Christians of the Middle East in Ottoman times as well as the means employed in pursuing this dialogue for several centuries The ties that connected Eastern European Christianity with Arabic speaking Christians in the 16th 19th centuries are the focus of this book Contributors address the Arabic speaking hierarchs and scholars connections with patriarchs and rulers of Constantinople the Romanian Principalities Kyiv and the Tsardom of Moscow the circulation of literature models iconography and knowhow between the Middle East and Eastern Europe and research dedicated to them by Eastern European scholars Contributors are Stefano Di Pietrantonio Ioana Feodorov Serge Frantsouzoff Bernard Heyberger Elena Korovtchenko Sofia Melikyan Charbel Nassif Constantin A Panchenko Yulia Petrova Vera Tchentsova Mihai ip u and Carsten Walbiner Women and Shari'a Law Elham

Elizabeth Pearson,2023-12-11 Misogyny and toxic masculinity are increasingly implicated in radicalisation From the men s incel involuntary celibate movement online to jihadist groups like Islamic State to radical right Free Speech protests radicalisation spans ideologies Though an often used term the process of radicalisation is not well understood and the role of gender and masculinities has often been ignored This book uses primary research among two of Britain s key extremist movements the banned Islamist group al Muhajiroun and those networked to it and the anti Islam radical right including the English Defence League and Britain First to reveal radicalisation as a masculinity project Through interviews with leaders including Anjem Choudary Jayda Fransen and Tommy Robinson as well as their followers Extreme Britain explores the emergence of extreme misogyny and masculinities Pearson situates extreme identities in wider social norms showing how masculinities are mobilised into action The book cautions against oversimplifying extreme masculinity as toxic It demonstrates how both men and women do extreme masculinities and the costs and benefits to them both of activism Understanding the men and women involved in extreme movements will better equip us to counter them This fascinating study offers invaluable insight into some of their lives and motivations
