CAT Preparation

Dear learner,

- ☺ This document you are holding in your hands is a guide to help you in preparation for your Life Orientation CAT examination.
- ☺ It contains study material, extra notes, supporting images as well as exam practice questions from 2014 to 2018.
- ☺ Ideally, this guide will be a supplement to what your educator does in class, and it can be used effectively as a self-study guide.
- ☺ From Examination Guidelines for Life Orientation DBE/2014

FORMAT OF THE EXTERNAL COMMON ASSESSMENT TASK (CAT)

This question paper is divided into three sections:

- SECTIONS A and B are COMPULSORY.
- SECTION A consists of multiple-choice questions and questions requiring short responses.
- SECTION B consists of two 15-mark questions to which learners must provide direct responses.
- SECTION C consists of three 15-mark questions of which learners must answer TWO questions.

The outline below will be followed when setting Life Orientation question papers (CAPS).

SECTION A: 20 MARKS	SECTION B: 30 MARKS	SECTION C: 30 MARKS
• All questions are compulsory. • A source or case study may be used to contextualise some of the questions. • The questions have to be a combination of two or more types of questions ranging from what, why, list, describe, explain, multiple choice and true or false with a justification. • Test understanding and factual knowledge. • Responses should be short and direct and range from one word to a phrase or a full sentence(s) (in point form).	• All questions are compulsory. • Short open-ended, scenario-based, source-based and case study questions. • Questions should be knowledge-based, from information learners have acquired from the Life Orientation content. • Learners should display, present and apply knowledge and skills gained and display an understanding of real-life issues affecting the youth and society at large and give advice or possible solutions; demonstrate goal-setting and decision-making skills. • Learners should provide direct responses, full sentence in point form and extended writing in short paragraphs.	• Three 15-mark or four 10-mark questions will be set, of which learners will be expected to answer two or three respectively. • Questions will predominantly focus on the application of knowledge and skills. • Learners will solve problems, make decisions and give advice, ranging from a few direct responses to extended writing of descriptive paragraphs or short essays that state, evaluate or examine an issue. • Each question will focus on the specific topic or the integration of content. • A short text/diagram/data/ graphs/cartoons can be provided as a stimulus.
NOTE: Information provided in the texts has to be current, up to date, age appropriate and learner-friendly. Each section will include questions at lower, middle and higher cognitive levels.

The Partisan Next Door Ethan C. Busby, Adam J. Howat, Jacob E. Rothschild, Richard M. Shafranek, 2021-09-29 In the United States politics has become tribal and personalized The influence of partisan divisions has extended beyond the political realm into everyday life affecting relationships and workplaces as well as the ballot box To help explain this trend we examine the stereotypes Americans have of ordinary Democrats and Republicans Using data from surveys experiments and Americans own words we explore the content of partisan stereotypes and find that they come in three main flavors parties as their own tribes coalitions of other tribes or vehicles for political issues These different stereotypes influence partisan conflict people who hold trait based stereotypes tend to display the highest levels of polarization while holding issue based stereotypes decreases polarization This finding suggests that reducing partisan conflict does not require downplaying partisan divisions but shifting the focus to political priorities rather than identity a turn to what we call responsible partisanship

The Social Life of Prayer Andreas Bandak, 2021-03-09 This book brings the theme of prayer into anthropological discussion Across diverse significant ethnographic case studies five anthropologists attend to prayers and how they are performed and seen to intervene in the social world The studies include Pentecostals in Zambia Charismatic Christians in Ghana Protestants in Scotland Eastern Orthodox Christians in Romania and Catholics in Syria Across these ethnographic cases the book argues that focusing on the social life of prayer offers a significant way to engage with matters close to people Prayers are a way to map affect and the affective relationships people hold in what they are oriented towards and care about Taking its cue from Marcel Mauss the book invites us to go beyond the individual and see how prayers always point to a broader social landscape of obligation and affective investment Focusing on the social life of prayers the book posits accordingly entices a particular form of situated comparison of diverse Christian traditions that pushes the scholarly conversation on Christianity to consider central questions of agency responsibility and subjectivity Taking up prayer as the object of study this book offers novel anthropological perspectives on Christian life and practice The chapters in this book were originally published a special issue of Religion
