The Complete Idiot's Guide to Cool Jobs for Teens Susan Ireland,2000-03-01 From beaches and amusement parks to fast food restaurants babysitting and clerking more teens are looking for jobs than ever before With the help of this guide to cool jobs they will know what to expect and what employers will expect of them    Masters of Craft Richard E.

Ocejo,2017-04-24 How educated and culturally savvy young people are transforming traditionally low status manual labor jobs into elite taste making occupations In today s new economy in which good jobs are typically knowledge or technology based many well educated and culturally savvy young men are instead choosing to pursue traditionally low status manual labor occupations as careers Masters of Craft looks at the renaissance of four such trades bartending distilling barbering and butchering In this in depth and engaging book Richard Ocejo takes you into the lives and workplaces of these people to examine how they are transforming these once undesirable jobs into cool and highly specialized upscale occupational niches and in the process complicating our notions about upward and downward mobility through work He shows how they find meaning in these jobs by enacting a set of cultural repertoires which include technical skills based on a renewed sense of craft and craftsmanship and an ability to understand and communicate that knowledge to others resulting in a new form of elite taste making Ocejo describes the paths people take to these jobs how they learn their chosen trades how they imbue their work practices with craftsmanship and how they teach a sense of taste to their consumers Focusing on cocktail bartenders craft distillers upscale men s barbers and whole animal butcher shop workers in Manhattan Brooklyn and upstate New York Masters of Craft provides new insights into the stratification of taste gentrification and the evolving labor market in today s postindustrial city    The Right Job Katherine Melvina Huntsinger Blackford,Arthur Newcomb,1924    Right Job Katherine Melvina Huntsinger Blackford,1924    Bulletin of the United States Bureau of Labor Statistics ,1913

Ethnographic Worldviews Robert E. Rinehart,Karen N. Barbour,Clive C. Pope,2013-09-24 This book discusses ethnography from the three points of view of Emerging Methodologies Practice and Advocacy and Social Justice and Transformation with an over arching emphasis on researchers and participants worldviews While these three thematic threads cut across each other the actual chapters will be located so that the reader understand many of the current issues and concerns with specific exemplars from around the globe for ethnographers Ethnographic Worldviews Transformations and Social Justice will have its finger on the pulse of contemporary ethnography Chapters demonstrate up to the moment awareness of ethnographic methods concerns and subject matters within contemporary ethnographic writing Authors are deeply engaged in both their subject matter and their method For example discussion of ethical issues surrounding visual methods of collecting for photo ethnographies is anticipated as a potential hot topic for this book Unlike other ethnographic books which often suggest giving voice to others this book will actually give voice to a wide variety of perspectives from the points of view of researchers    Green Careers Jim Cassio,Alice Rush,2009-05-01 Provides an overview of green jobs presents profiles of ninety different occupations offers case studies and interviews and includes career planning information and job search resources   Migration, Diaspora and Identity Georgina Tsolidis,2013-10-07 Framed in relation to diaspora this collection engages with the subject of how cultural difference is lived and how complex and shifting identities shape and respond to spatial politics of belonging Diaspora is understood in a variety of ways which makes this an eclectic collection of papers Authors use various theoretical frameworks to explore diverse groups of people with a variety of experiences in a wide range of settings They are making sense of the experiences of women and men from a range of ethnic backgrounds negotiating identities through family work and education The micro dynamics of the everyday offer an evocative bottom up means of understanding the tensions implicit in living multiple belongings The common thread for the collection comes from the glimpses these authors provide into the remaking of our globalized world The aim is to shed light on racism dislocation and alienation on the one hand and on the other hand to consider how the complex power relations within the everyday mediate a sense of resistance and hope The papers are arranged around four themes 1 Multiple Belongings 2 Representing a Way of Being 3 Sexualised Identifications and 4 Marriage and Family

The Equality Trap Mary Ann Mason,2018-04-17 Despite the feminist revolution of the past twenty years most women in America are worse off today than at any time in the recent past Magazines and television programs profile women bank executives surgeons and corporate lawyers but the vast majority of women still work in relatively low paying jobs Women work more hours per week in the house and outside than ever before and a paying job has become a necessity for women in most households What went wrong In this provocative book Mary Ann Mason argues that the women s movement shares some of the blame for this situation In an original analysis that draws on both social and legal history she explains how the move away from women s rights toward equal rights has worsened the situation of American working women especially working mothers Because women are still the primary care providers for their children they must take flexible and relatively low paying jobs to be available in case of a child care problem With nearly 50 percent of all marriages now ending in divorce and with a growing trend inspired by the equal rights movement toward no fault divorce and low or no alimony settlements divorced mothers frequently find themselves economically devastated Mary Ann Mason argues that the solution to this predicament is to draw up a new women s rights agenda that will benefit all working women especially those with children The equal rights strategy was important in opening the door for the highly publicized super achievers but it is now time she says to improve the lives of the majority of America's working women This book will be of interest to readers interested in gender studies and particularly issues of equality and feminism Mary Ann Mason is a professor of law and social welfare at the University of California Berkeley In addition to her law degree Mason holds a Ph D in American social history
