

A LEVEL FRENCH REVOLUTION AND NAPOLEON 1774-1815

1. Causes of the French Revolution and the Events of 1789

a) Long Term Causes of the Revolution

i) Monarchy and the Ancien Regime

- Absolutism in France had been perfected by Louis XIV in the seventeenth century. Government was entirely in the hands of the king and was centred at Versailles.
- Government ministers and senior local officials were selected from the bourgeoisie. The nobility was allowed to hold military posts, but was largely excluded from government.
- The nobility was kept occupied at Versailles in largely pointless, but showily prestigious, daily routine. In return, it was allowed to keep its feudal privileges and freedom from taxation.
- Successful government and administrations tended to depend on three conditions. - The king had to be intelligent and capable of taking decisions. - Ministers had to be competent and efficient. - The state had to live within its means.
- However, the French King was not quite an absolute Monarch because the passage of laws was made difficult because the Parlements (regional assemblies) which had to approve legislation, were generally hostile and wanted to retain privileges.
- Louis XIV had been successful during the first half of his reign, but less so from the late 1680s.
- Louis XV had continued his policies and, being served by some capable ministers, had kept France afloat until the 1750s.
- French participation in the Seven Years War, however, had been disastrous. Most colonies were lost and the armed forces were heavily defeated on many occasions.
- Although the French population was larger than that of most other countries in Europe and the country was potentially very wealthy, economy and society were stifled to a considerable extent by out-dated practices.
- Louis XVI was unsuited to absolute rule. He changed financial ministers regularly and was easily influenced by nobles and his wife Marie Antoinette whom he married in 1770, and then came to the throne in 1774.
