The Perfect Prey Jeroen Smit, 2010-01-07 On 9 October 2007 the Royal Bank of Scotland RBS celebrated its leading role in the biggest deal in banking history a record 71 billion euros for Dutch bank ABN Amro Searching for an immediate profit the victors dismantled ABN Amro and Holland's number one bank ceased to exist Shareholders and management enjoyed the spoils and the Netherlands lost the bank that had been at the heart of their economy for 183 years But the profits were an illusion they simply weren't there One year later RBS had been forced into the largest rights issue in British corporate history underwritten by the Government So why was ABN Amro so toxic On the basis of more than 120 conversations with the most important individuals involved Jeroen Smit reconstructs the downfall of a Dutch institution a bank whose rotten core was so disguised by paper profits of billions every year In little more than a decade one of Europe's largest longest established banks went from powerful predator to the perfect prey

Ventriloquism, Performance, and Contemporary Art Jennie Hirsh, Isabelle Loring Wallace, 2023-05-31 Ventriloquism Performance and Contemporary Art volume calls attention to the unexpected prevalence of ventriloquial motifs and strategies within contemporary art Engaging with issues of voice embodiment power and projection the case studies assembled in this volume span a range of media from painting sculpture and photography to installation performance architecture and video Importantly they both examine and enact ventriloquial practices and do so as a means of interrogating and performatively bearing out contemporary conceptions of authorship subjectivity and performance Put otherwise the chapters in this book oscillate seamlessly between art history theory and criticism through both analytical and performative means Across twelve essays on ventriloquism in contemporary art the authors who are curators historians and artists shine light on this outdated practice repositioning it as a conspicuous and meaningful trend within a range of artistic practices today This book will be of interest to scholars working in art history contemporary art media studies performance museum curatorial studies and theater

Doing Democracy Nancy S. Love, Mark Mattern, 2013-12-01 Demonstrates how activists and others use art and popular culture to strive for a more democratic future Doing Democracy examines the potential of the arts and popular culture to extend and deepen the experience of democracy Its contributors address the use of photography cartooning memorials monuments poetry literature music theater festivals and parades to open political spaces awaken critical consciousness engage marginalized groups in political activism and create new more democratic societies This volume demonstrates how ordinary people use the creative and visionary capacity of the arts and popular culture to shape alternative futures It is unique in its insistence that democratic theorists and activists should acknowledge and employ affective as well as rational faculties in the ongoing struggle for democracy Nancy S. Love and Mark Mattern have collected a first rate set of studies that illuminate the intersection between art and politics in the contemporary era The text demonstrates how activist art and cultural politics can promote democratic politics and how democracy is enriched and enlivened by activist art projects This book should interest everyone concerned with the fate of art and democracy in the contemporary era and how they can help nourish each other Douglas Kellner author of Media Spectacle and Insurrection 2011 From the Arab Uprisings to Occupy Everywhere Art in Mind Ernst van Alphen,2005-03-10 Art has the power to affect our thinking changing not only the way we view and interact with the world but also how we create it Art can be considered as a commanding force with the capacity to shape our intellect and intervene in our lives Art is a historical agent or a cultural creator that propels thought and experience forward The author demonstrates that art serves a socially constructive function by actually experimenting with the parameters of thought employing work from artists as Picasso Watteau Bacon Dumas and Matthew Barney Art confronts viewers with the pain points of cultural experience and thereby transforms the ways in which human existence is conceived After Modern Art David Hopkins,2018 A beautifully illustrated new edition of this pioneering study of art since 1945 Focussing mainly on the relationship between American and European Art this book offers an up to date introduction to the major artists and movements of recent years Critical Theory and the Critique of Antisemitism Marcel Stoetzler,2023-11-16 This volume provides a systematic re examination of the Frankfurt School s theory of antisemitism and employing this critical theory investigates the presence of antisemitism in 20th and 21st century politics and society Critical Theory and the Critique of Antisemitism uncovers how critical theory differs from mainstream socialist or liberal critiques of antisemitism as it frames its rejection of antisemitism in the critique of other aspects of modern capitalist society which traditional theories leave unchallenged or critique only in passing Amongst others these include issues of identity nation race and sexuality In exploring the Frankfurt School s writings on antisemitism therefore the chapters in this book reveal connections to other pressing societal issues such as racism more broadly patriarchy statism and the societal dynamics of the ever evolving capitalist mode of production Putting the theory to practice this volume brings together interdisciplinary scholars and activists who employ critical theory to scrutinise right and left wing manifestations of antisemitism They develop in their critique of antisemitism a critique of capitalism as the authors ask why does modern capitalist society seem bound to produce antisemitism And how do we challenge it At a time when the rise of populism internationally has brought with it new strains of antisemitism this is an essential resource that demonstrates the continuing relevance of the critical theory of the Frankfurt School for the struggle against antisemitism today Truth Moon Kay Freeman,2023-04-05 It may be Vegas but the odds of being attacked by your boss and outlaw bikers on the same night slim My boss I should have seen coming Thanks to the life I left behind I know an abuser when I see one and it was just a matter of time until he found out I ve been lying As for The Knights of Steel MC the only way to keep them quiet was to go with them except the club president s obsession with me goes beyond their escort service and BDMS clients I bet my life on it I can t trust anyone especially not my handler He s running from his past too and his infatuation scares me for a different reason All I know is that if I want my freedom I ll need to double down and guard my heart as closely as my body Slow Painting Helen Westgeest, 2020-10-29 The abundance of images in our everyday lives and the speed at which they are consumed seems to have left us unable to critique them To rectify this situation artists such as Daniel Richter Jaume Plensa and Artur Zmijewski have demonstrated that painting is brilliantly equipped to produce slow images that enable encourage and reward reflection In this book Helen Westgeest attempts to understand how various forms of slow painting can be used as tools to interrogate the visual mediations we encounter daily Painting was expected to disappear in the digital age but through interactive painting performances and painting like manipulated photographs and videos Westgeest shows how photography video and new media art have themselves developed the visual strategies that painting had already mastered Moreover the fleeting nature of digital mass media appears to have unlocked a desire for more physically stable and enduring pictures like paintings Slow Painting charts how in a world where the constant quest for speed can leave us exhausted the appeal of this slower medium has only grown Richard Shiff: Writing After Art Richard Shiff, 2023-05-16 A broad and deep anthology of critic and art historian Richard Shiff's most influential writings which have shaped our understanding of twentieth and twenty first century art Elegantly designed as intended for broad readership including art historians art critics artists among other lovers of art this volume is a must read experience with pleasure and discovery Phong Bui The Brooklyn Rail In his engaging and often strikingly deep observations of major modern and contemporary visual art Shiff has written about an impressive range of artists including Willem de Kooning Marlene Dumas Jasper Johns Donald Judd Barnett Newman Pablo Picasso and Bridget Riley A leading scholar and powerful voice Shiff's insight into some of the most prominent artistic practices spans generation place and approach as seen in this considered selection of essays on twenty six artists These writings first appeared in exhibition catalogues for retrospectives at galleries and institutions including the Centre Georges Pompidou the Solomon R Guggenheim Museum The Museum of Modern Art and Tate Modern Shiff supplements his unquestionable fluency in art history with insights cultivated from his readings in philosophy phenomenology literary theory and psychoanalysis among other fields Shiff's writing conceptually rich meditative and enjoyable to read is attuned to the nuances of artistic style and technique drawing out art's social implications not merely from broad histories but also directly from artists' mark making and technical gestures Actively engaged as a viewer and a writer Shiff has transformed the act of looking at art into contemplative and captivating writing Includes essays on Georg Baselitz Mark Bradford Georges Braque Jim Campbell Chuck Close Willem de Kooning Peter Doig Marlene Dumas Dan Flavin Suzan Frecon Lucian Freud Ellen Gallagher Jasper Johns Donald Judd Ellsworth Kelly Brice Marden Julie Mehretu Barnett Newman Pablo Picasso Bridget Riley Richard Serra Joel Shapiro Richard Tuttle Cy Twombly Jack Whitten and Zeng Fanzhi Visual Imagery and Human Rights Practice Sandra Ristovska, Monroe Price, 2018-11-19 Visual Imagery and Human Rights Practice examines the interplay between images and human rights addressing how when and to what ends visuals are becoming a more central means through which human rights claims receive recognition and restitution The collection argues that accounting for how images work on their own terms is an ever more important epistemological project for fostering the imaginative scope of human rights and its purchase on reality Interdisciplinary in nature this timely volume brings together voices of scholars and practitioners from around the world making a valuable contribution to the study of media and human rights while tackling the growing role of visuals across cultural social political and legal structures
