My Life My Unisa Previous Question Papers:

Life and Soul Margie Orford, 2006 This exquisite book by award winning photographer Karina Turok presents a series of portraits of inspirational and iconic South African women

Year of Fire, Year of Ash Baruch Hirson, 2016-06-15 We can say without fear of being contradicted by history that June 16 1976 heralded the beginning of the end of the centuries old white rule in this country Nelson Mandela Originally banned on publication by the apartheid government Year of Fire Year of Ash is an eye opening account of how in June 1976 20 000 school students faced down the tanks and guns of a vicious racist regime in a revolt that galvanized the black working class and became a pivotal turning point for the anti apartheid movement More than this the book overturns much of the conventional logic that served to explain the event at the time showing it was not simply a student protest but part of a wider uprising Released in this new edition to mark the fortieth anniversary Year of Fire Year of Ash provides an unparalleled insight into the origins and events of the uprising from its antecedents in the 1920s to its role in inspiring global solidarity against apartheid As South Africa experiences a new wave of popular discontent and as new forms of black consciousness come to the fore in movements around the world Baruch Hirson's book provides a timely reminder of the Soweto revolt's continued significance to struggles against oppression today

Bush Wives and Girl Soldiers Chris Coulter, 2011-03-15 During the war in Sierra Leone 1991 2002 members of various rebel movements kidnapped thousands of girls and women some of whom came to take an active part in the armed conflict alongside the rebels In a stunning look at the life of women in wartime Chris Coulter draws on interviews with more than a hundred women to bring us inside the rebel camps in Sierra Leone When these girls and women returned to their home villages after the cessation of hostilities their families and peers viewed them with skepticism and fear while humanitarian organizations saw them primarily as victims Neither view was particularly helpful in helping them resume normal lives after the war Offering lessons for policymakers practitioners and activists Coulter shows how prevailing notions of gender both in home communities and among NGO workers led for instance to women who had taken part in armed conflict being bypassed in the demilitarization and demobilization processes carried out by the international community in the wake of the war Many of these women found it extremely difficult to return to their families and without institutional support some were forced to turn to prostitution to eke out a living Coulter weaves several themes through the work including the nature of gender roles in war livelihood options in war and peace and how war and postwar experiences affect social and kinship relations

In Pursuit of Meaning to Riddles Robert Mazibuko, 2019-12-02 In Pursuit of Meaning to Riddles By Robert Mazibuko The writing of a story of one's life may be regarded as being halfway between being objective and being subjective But if the inner principle of one's life is in contradiction to their outer behavior one has to face difficult life patterns Such patterns have a tendency of engendering dire consequences for the individual However if one takes life in hand and sincerely pursues a path of adhering to inner principle and belief they can then easily answer This is what I attempted to do with all talents I had been granted to work with in my life This book pursues a path of accounting for behavior by relating that to the associated principle of life and tracing such patterns in so far as they explain the inner principle or how far they deviate there from It is brief but the idea is there Critique, Vision, Strategy Johan Muller,1986 The Road to Democracy in South Africa: 1970-1980 South African Democracy Education Trust,2004 v 3 The third volume in the series examines the role of anti apartheid movements around the world The global anti apartheid movement was very successful in creating awareness of the liberation struggle in South Africa and in contributing to the downfall of the apartheid government This volume in 2 parts brings together analyses which in the main are written by activist scholars with deep roots in the movements and organizations they are writing about ECCWS 2022 21st European Conference on Cyber Warfare and Security Thaddeus Eze,2022-06-16 Financial Mail ,1987 Essays on Being Reformed Dirkie Smit,2009-12-01 What does it mean to be Reformed Christians in the world today and in Africa and South Africa What does it mean to commemorate the legacy of John Calvin 1509 1564 after 500 years in a modern world characterised by democracy by popular notions of human dignity and human rights by worldwide struggles for individual freedoms and for social justice by a global economy in crisis when social historians argue about the lasting contribution of Calvin and his followers precisely with respect to all these modern phenomena The 28 essays by Dirkie Smit selected for this volume deal with such questions Bank Robber Allan Heyl,2018-10-01 Five bank robberies Fifteen years in jail That was the sentence handed down to Allan Heyl in 1977 He was twenty six years old and couldn t face that many years behind bars By the time Andr Stander ex police captain and convicted bank robber arrived at the prison Heyl was well advanced with his plan to escape The two of them teamed up made their escape and proceeded to rob banks at an unprecedented rate In this fast paced no holds barred no punches pulled memoir Heyl exposes the hell of prison life revels in the sheer gung ho audacity of robbing banks and hiding in plain sight and reveals an inept and incompetent police force As a member of the notorious Stander Gang which both appalled and enthralled South Africans in the late 70s and early 80s Allan became a career criminal But this choice of lifestyle had its consequences With humour fresh insight and self revelation the last surviving member of the so called Stander Gang turns a critical eye on himself and the times in which he operated This book takes you into the heart of a bank robber South African Journal of Higher Education ,2008 Discounted Life Sharmila Rudrappa,2015-12-04 Sharmila Rudrappa interrogates the creation and maintenance of reproductive labor markets the function of agencies and surrogacy brokers and how women become surrogate mothers Is surrogacy solely a labor contract for which the surrogate mother receives wages or do its meanings and import exceed the confines of the market Rudrappa argues that this reproductive industry is organized to control and disempower women workers and yet her interviews reveal that by and large the surrogate mothers in Bangalore found the experience life affirming Rudrappa explores this tension and the lived realities of many surrogate mothers whose deepening bodily commodification is paradoxically experienced as a revitalizing life development Corrupted Jonathan D

Jansen,2023-02-01 In South African higher education the images of dysfunction are everywhere Student protests Violence Police presence Rubber or real bullets Class disruptions Burning tyres Damaged buildings Injury and sometimes death Reports of wholesale corruption Year after year often in the same set of universities the problem of routine instability seems insoluble The financial academic and reputational costs of ongoing dysfunction are high especially for those universities caught up in the never ending struggle to overcome apartheid legacies Any number of explanations have been ventured including a lack of resources shortage of capacity rural location corrupt officials and endemic conflict Corrupted takes a deeper look at dysfunction in an attempt to unravel the root causes in a sample of South African universities At the heart of the problem lies the vexed issue of resources or more pertinently the relationship between resources and power who gets what and why Whatever else it aspires to be commonly a place of teaching learning research and public duty a university in an impoverished community is also a rich concentration of resources around which corrupt staff students and those outside of campus all vie for access Taking a political economic approach Jonathan Jansen describes the daily struggle for institutional resources and offers accessible sensible insights He argues that the problem won't be solved through investments in capacity building alone because the combination of institutional capacity and institutional integrity contributes to serial instability in universities Rather durable solutions would include the depoliticisation of university councils and appointments of academics with integrity and capacity to manage and lead these fragile institutions This groundbreaking and long overdue study will offer a promising way forward for universities to better serve their communities and the country more broadly

Brümmer on Meaning and the Christian Faith Vincent Brümmer,2019-10-01 This volume presents a wide ranging selection from the writings of a leading contemporary philosophical theologian Vincent Brümmer In his many books and articles Brümmer has demonstrated how the tools of philosophical analysis are not only fruitful but also essential for dealing with the central issues of systematic theology The title of this volume Meaning and the Christian Faith highlights two characteristic themes that recur throughout the many writings of Vincent Brümmer Much of his work has been devoted to exploring the meaning of the Christian faith and especially of its central claim that God is a personal being whose fellowship believers may enjoy On the other hand Brümmer has also shown that religious belief should not be understood as an explanatory theory but rather as a way in which believers understand the meaning of their lives and their experience of the world and direct their lives accordingly Thus in the Christian tradition believers claim that their lives are meaningful because they seek to attain ultimate happiness in the love of God In the introductory sections throughout this volume Vincent Brümmer describes how he came to pay attention to the various themes dealt with in his writings and explains why he came to deal with them in the ways he did

Chance and Commitment Basil S. Hetzel,2005 The work of Dr Basil Hetzel and his team of researchers has prevented and will continue to prevent millions of people worldwide from being born intellectually disabled In this memoir Hetzel recalls his discovery that a single dose of iodized oil added to the diet of pregnant women could eradicate the serious birth defects that had plagued many developing countries One Hundred Years of the ANC Arianna Lissoni, Jon Soske, 2012-11-01 An examination of the ANC in its centennial year On 8 January 2012 the African National Congress ANC of South Africa the oldest African nationalist organisation on the continent celebrated its one hundredth anniversary This historic event has generated significant public debate within both the ANC and South African society at large There is no better time to critically reflect on the ANC's historical trajectory and struggle against colonialism and apartheid than in its centennial year One Hundred Years of the ANC is a collection of new work by renowned South African and international scholars Covering a broad chronological and geographical spectrum and using a diverse range of sources the contributors build upon but also extend the historiography of the ANC by tapping into marginal spaces in ANC history By moving away from the celebratory mode that has characterised much of the contemporary discussions on the centenary the contributors suggest that the relationship between the histories of earlier struggles and the present needs to be rethought in more complex terms Collectively the book chapters challenge hegemonic narratives that have become an established part of South Africa's national discourse since 1994 By opening up debate around controversial or obscured aspects of the ANC's century long history One hundred years of the ANC sets out an agenda for future research The book is directed at a wide readership with an interest in understanding the historical roots of South Africa's current politics will find this volume informative This book is based on a selection of papers presented at the One Hundred Years of the ANC Debating Liberation Histories and Democracy Today Conference held at the University of Witwatersrand Johannesburg from 20-23 September 2011 Unisa English Studies University of South Africa. Department of English, 1989 Being Missionary, Being Human Willem A. Saayman, 2007 Willem Saayman presents a brief overview of 350 years of Dutch Reformed Church Mission history He attempts to write DRC mission history into Afrikaner history and finds four distinct waves of mission corresponding to four important events and turning points in Afrikaner history This is an original and innovative attempt to gain a better understanding of mission history African Theology as Liberating Wisdom Mari-Anna Pöntinen, 2013-02-14 In African Theology as Liberating Wisdom Celebrating Life and Harmony in the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Botswana Mari Anna Pöntinen analyses contextual interpretations of the Christian faith in this church These interpretations draw from the Tswana tradition and liberation in Christ Drum, 2007
