

Daydreaming

John loved to daydream. His parents and his teachers sometimes thought John was idle or lazy, but that was not the case. John had a very rich inner world, and he really enjoyed spending quality time there.

For example, one day, John lay stretched out on a towel on a hot, sandy beach. He listened to the waves crashing against the shore. He watched the white sails of boats far out along the horizon. A seagull squawked, and dived, and tried to make off with his sandwich. John began to daydream that he was a seagull. He imagined the swooping sensation in his stomach as he swooped and dove and rode the air currents. A plane flew overhead, filling the air, for a few moments, with its dull roar. John became a passenger in that plane, looking out of his window and down over the town where he lived that ran along in a thin strip next to the ocean.

Someone next to John cleared his throat. John turned to look at his fellow passenger and found his teacher looking down at him.

"Daydreaming again, John?" his teacher asked.

The other kids laughed, but John just sighed and tried to concentrate on the math problem in front of him. He would go back to visit his beach very soon.

1. What do John's parents and teacher think of John and why?
2. Where is John at the beginning of the story?
3. Where is he at the end of the story?
