Film A World History:

World War II on Film David Lührssen, 2020-11-09 World War II on Film examines the war through the lens of 12 films. The movies selected include productions made during World War II and in each succeeding decade providing a sense of how different generations perceive the war. World War II on Film provides a succinct yet well grounded appraisal of that war as seen through 12 representative films. The book separates fact from fiction showing where the movies were accurate and where they departed from reality and places them in the larger context of historical and social events. Each movie chosen represents a particular aspect of the conflict including the air war over Europe, the condition of prisoners of war, Nazi atrocities and the British evacuation at Dunkirk. Unlike most histories of Hollywood during World War II or the genre of war movies, World War II on Film examines in depth the relation between the depictions of events, beliefs, attitudes and ways of life as seen on film with reality as documented by historians or recorded by journalists or eyewitnesses to the war. The volume will appeal to high school and college readers as well as general interest readers and film buffs. Approaching Recent World History Through Film Scott C. M. Bailey, 2021 Approaching Recent World History Through Film: Context Analysis and Research explores the relationships between 20th century world history and film by providing analysis of a diverse range of films organized by global history topics including war and conflict, decolonization, political economy and long distance travel. This insightful text describes how to analyze films as original historical sources and how to carry out research projects using films. The text provides guidance on the types of world history films, their conventions and how to analyze the historical arguments in movies. Scott C. M. Bailey incorporates in depth discussions of the historical content and context of a wide range of international films connected with important 20th century global history topics. The book also offers many prompts for discussion, historical timelines and suggestions for further reading and viewing as well as instructions on how to construct research papers and projects which employ the use of films as historical sources. This book will be of interest to students in world history and film history courses. Film Daniel Borden, Florian Duysens, Thomas Gilbert, Adele Smith, Heather Thompson, 2008-10-01 Condensed and overflowing with more than 500 color photographs, Film features significant cinematic movements, timelines that explore the evolution of the industry, capsule biographies of great directors and actors and examinations of their oeuvre. VFX Artistry Spencer Drate, Judith Salavetz, 2013-01-25 Be inspired by the masters. This visually stunning book showcases the work and creative process of several of today's leading VFX studios. Over 1000 vibrant four color images provide great visual insight as to how the studios start with a concept then arrive at their finished VFX shot. Also included are case studies that delve further into the techniques applied, insight into the production process and listings of the tools used to create each effect. Among the studios featured are ILM, Pixar, Weta Digital, Sony Pictures and more. A Dictionary of Film Studies Annette Kuhn, Guy Westwell, 2020-04-28 A Dictionary of Film Studies covers all aspects of its discipline as it is currently taught at undergraduate level.
