Edlmann, Laurinda Brown, 2019-05-15 This book is a collection of papers from an international inter disciplinary conference focusing on storytelling and human life The chapters in this volume provide unique accounts of how stories shape the narratives and discourses of people s lives and work and those of their families and broader social networks From making sense of history to documenting biographies and current pedagogical approaches to exploring current and emerging spatial and media trends this book explores the possibilities of narrative approaches as a theoretical scaffold across numerous disciplines and in diverse contexts Central to all the chapters is the idea of stories being a creative and reflexive means to make sense of people s past current realities and future possibilities Contributors are Prue Bramwell Davis Brendon Briggs Laurinda Brown Rachel Chung Elizabeth Cummings Szymon Czerkawski Denise Dantas Joanna Davidson Nina Dvorko Sarah Eagle Theresa Edlmann Gavin Fairbairn Keven Fletcher Sarah Garvey Phyllis Hastings Tracy Ann Hayes Welby Ings Stephanie Jacobs Dean Jobb Caroline M Kisiel Maria Dolores Lozano M d lina Moraru Michael R Ogden Nancy Peled Valerie Perry Melissa Lee Price Rasa Ra i nait Pau uolien Irena Ragai ien Remko Smid Paulette Stevens Cheryl Svensson Mary O Brien Tyrrell Shunichi Ueno Leona Ungerer Sarah White Wai ling Wong and Bridget Anthonia Makwemoisa Yakubu

Lights, Camera, History Richard V. Francaviglia, 2007-01-23

This important volume addresses a number of central topics concerning how history is depicted in film In the preface the volume editors emphasize the importance of using film in teaching history students will see historical films and if they are not taught critical viewing they will be inclined simply to accept what they see as fact Authors of the individual chapters then explore the portrayal of history and the uses of history in specific films and film genres Robert Rosenstone s In Praise of the Biopic considers such films as Reds They Died with Their Boots On Little Big Man Seabiscuit Cinderella Man and The Grapes of Wrath In his chapter Geoff Pingree focuses on the big questions posed in Jay Rosenblatt s 1998 film Human Remains Richard Francaviglia s chapter on films about the Middle East is especially timely in the post 9 11 world One chapter by Daniel A Nathan Peter Berg and Erin Klemyk is devoted to a single film Martin Scorsese s urban history The Gangs of New York which the authors see as a way of exploring complex themes of the immigrant experience Finally Robert Brent Toplin addresses the paradox of using an art form film to present history Among other themes he considers the impact of Patton and Platoon on military decisions and interpretations and of Birth of a Nation and Glory on race relations The cumulative effect is to increase the reader s understanding of the medium of film in portraying history and to stimulate the imagination as to how it can and how it should not be used Students and teachers of history and cinema will benefit deeply from this informative and thoughtful discussion Style in Narrative Patrick Colm

Hogan,2020-11-26 Drawing on recent psychological research this book proposes a new and clear definition of style and provides a systematic theoretical account of style in relation to cognitive and affective science Patrick Hogan uses rich examples from literature film and graphic fiction to explain the narrative thematic and emotional functions of style in narrative Understanding Audiences and the Film Industry Roy Stafford,2019-07-25 Brings together an introduction to academic study of audiences as readers of films and an investigation into how the film industry perceives audiences as part of its industrial practices The approach draws on ideas from film media and cultural studies to present an insight to what makes the biggest box office films attractive to audiences Creating Reality in Factual Television Manfred W.

Becker,2020-10-07 Creating Reality in Factual Television analyzes the uneasy interaction between economics culture and professional ethics in reality and documentary television storytelling Through the frankenbite an editorial tool that extracts and re orders the salient elements or single words of a statement interview or exchange into a revealing confession or argument the book explores how and why editors manipulate truth in factual television The author considers how the editing of documentary television is increasingly following reality television s dictate to entertain instead of inform how the real and the truth fall victim to the demand to tell entertaining stories and how editors must compromise their professional ethics as a result Drawing on interviews with 75 North American and European editors that explore their experiences and opinions of reality and documentary television practices and their views on their responsibilities and loyalties in the field Creating Reality in Factual Television illuminates the real and potential ethical dilemmas of editorial decision making the context in which decisions are made and how editors themselves validate the editing choices to themselves and others Addressing a dramatic development in contemporary media ecology the age of alternative facts this book is a useful research tool for scholars and students of documentary film media literacy genre studies media ethics affect theory and audience perception

Rhizomes Nathalie Ramière,Rachel Varshney,2021-02-19 This volume Rhizomes is a challenging path into a very multidisciplinary set of papers Papers range across cultural studies and film to applied linguistics to sociolinguistics and as gathered in this one volume the result of postgraduate student research of a very high order they force readers to think critically of disciplines their assumed boundaries and most importantly the usefulness of assuming the enduring value of such boundaries This is not to say that anything goes but the diversity of areas under scrutiny means that sharper re thinking of one's own comfort zones is necessarily one key outcome when confronted with a volume like this This is one advantage of the selected papers besides the obvious one of having at your finger tips a simple way of delving into a challenging diversity Brian Ridge Campion College Sydney This is a wonderful collection of papers which demonstrates the power and vitality of contemporary literary and cultural research The scope of the papers the diversity of the subject matter and the willingness of their authors to work across disciplinary boundaries work together to create an exemplary collection of research for the twenty first century multidisciplinary multigeneric and multimodal like 21st century texts and media Greg Hainge's opening paper sets the stage for the diverse and engaging papers that follow With his own examples of rhizomatics drawn from music Greg immediately has the reader acknowledging the multidisciplinary and multimodality of contemporary texts and so the need for research that can address the richness and complexity of these texts In Part 1 we have two papers that address the issue of the limitations of conventional research methodology in their own fields language acquisition film studies and propose alternative and more productive methodologies The exciting thing about this section is that these are fields normally considered very different and without much to say to one another and yet the combination works to create a dialogue that extends across these and many other fields of research Most importantly both challenge the dichotomising of research and analytical methods that has worked to impoverish their fields and the research on which it is based Part 2 presents papers on a range of marginalised social positionings and experiences and in the process demonstrates both the power of research to uncover what has been ignored or elided in contemporary histories how many westerners know of the long history of Chinese women in film Or of an Aboriginal Taiwanese literature as well as the power of new perspectives new ways of thinking the research subject to open up areas of study such as dating manuals and country music both conventionally dismissed as inherently trivial and or sexist In Part 3 the papers all play brilliantly with the notion of connectivity demonstrating for readers the inextricability of texts and meaning systems verbal visual and other with the cultural contexts in which they operate and so the diverse ways they may be deployed These papers banish forever any reliance on a formalist reading or methodology for the analysis of text and meaning And again the range of subject matter is breath taking and argues the need for cross disciplinary transdisciplinary and multidisciplinary research practice Part 4 takes the reader into the realm of transformations challenging the ways in which textual and systemic changes articulate profound cultural changes in the societies that produce them So we learn about grammatical interventions in the Chinese language as feminine and neuter pronouns are added to the gender free Chinese language and consider the major cultural change that both caused this change and is subsequently produced by it We consider the ways in which cinema has evolved as an art form under the influence of its material and verbal technologies And we consider the ways in which Chinese poetry has entered a range of cultural practices in the west and the east and again consider how its traditional meanings and significance are maintained and communicate to these new contexts and the nature of the transcultural experience this generates For the academic student or interested reader this collection offers a breath taking scope of subject matter and a vital and engaged approach to the material that makes this collection a research page turner Professor Anne Cranny Francis Department of Critical and Cultural Studies Macquarie University Sydney Handbook of Research on Consumption, Media, and Popular Culture in the Global Age Ozgen, Ozlen, 2019-05-15 The mass production and diversification of media have accelerated the development of popular culture This has started a new trend in consumerism of desiring new consumption objects and devaluing those consumption objects once acquired thus creating a constant demand for new items Pop culture now canalizes consumerism both with advertising and the marketing of consumerist lifestyles which are disseminated in the mass media The Handbook of Research on Consumption Media and Popular Culture in the Global Age discusses interdisciplinary perspectives on media influence and consumer impacts in a globalizing world due to modern communication technology Featuring research on topics such as consumer culture communication ethics and social media this book is ideally designed for managers marketers researchers academicians and students
