Hunger Games: Dialectical Journals

As you read the story you will write a short entry for each chapter. You will write down a line, quote, or scene that you liked, disliked or found thought provoking from the novel The Hunger Games by Suzanne Collins. Also include the page number.

Then write a brief paragraph about why you chose it (e.g., I liked it..., I didn't like it..., it made me think of..., etc.). You will meet with members of your district groups every three chapters throughout the novel to share these passages and ideas with your group members.

Example:

Passage Entry	Why did you choose it?
"I think he still remembers how I tried to drown him in a bucket when Prim brought him home. Scrawny, kitten, belly as often with sores, crawling with fleas. The last thing I needed was another mouth to feed." Page # 2	This passage makes me sad, and truly reveals the level of hunger that exists in The Seam. The fact that when Prim first brought home a kitten, Katniss's first reaction was to try and kill it. Even the small amount of food a cat would normally eat couldn't be spared. They were so close to starvation that she tried to kill their pet in order to guarantee a slightly higher chance of survival. This passage shows the importance of food in The Hunger Games, and how it is a powerful motivator.

aesthetics and emotion in The Hunger Games trilogy Tarja Laine illuminates the power of film to embody ethical conflict Deftly interweaving film philosophy and close analysis Laine traces how these films mobilise complex emotions nuancing our thinking about cinema and the spectator Laine's book takes The Hunger Games films seriously demonstrating with verve why they matter Catherine Wheatley Senior Lecturer in Film Studies King's College London UK In this fresh engaging and insightful study of The Hunger Games film trilogy Tarja Laine explores the crucial role that emotions play in appreciation of the ethical qualities of the movies She forges productive dialogues between a range of film theory scholarship on moral philosophy and debates on ethics as she performs a multi-layered investigation of the aesthetic qualities of the trilogy the multiple emotions embodied in these qualities and the philosophical ethical insights that are in turn embedded in these emotions The cinematic connection between emotions and ethics that emerges through Laine's detailed textual analyses confronts us with complex moral dilemmas while enriching our aesthetic experience Sarah Cooper Professor Film Studies Department King's College London UK

Space and Place in The Hunger Games Deidre Anne Evans Garriott, Whitney Elaine Jones, Julie Elizabeth Tyler, 2014-03-13 An international bestseller and the inspiration for a blockbuster film series Suzanne Collins's dystopian young adult trilogy The Hunger Games has also attracted attention from literary scholars While much of the criticism has focused on traditional literary readings this innovative collection explores the phenomena of place and space in the novels how places define people how they wield power to create social hierarchies and how they can be conceptualized carved out imagined and used The essays consider wide-ranging topics the problem of the trilogy's Epilogue the purpose of the love triangle between Katniss Gale and Peeta Katniss's role as mother and the trilogy as a textual safe space to explore dangerous topics Presenting the trilogy as a place and space for multiple discourses political social and literary this work assertively places The Hunger Games in conversation with the world in which it was written read and adapted

You Are What You Read Robert DiYanni, 2022-10-25 How you can enrich your life by becoming a more skillful and engaged reader of literature We are what we read according to Robert DiYanni Reading may delight us or move us we may read for instruction or inspiration But more than this in reading we discover ourselves We gain access to the lives of others explore the limitless possibilities of human existence develop our understanding of the world around us and find respite from the hectic demands of everyday life In You Are What You Read DiYanni provides a practical guide that shows how we can increase the benefits and pleasures of literature by becoming more skillful and engaged readers DiYanni suggests that we attend first to what authors say and the way in which they say it rather than rushing to decide what they mean He considers the various forms of literature from the essay to the novel the short story to the poem demonstrating rewarding approaches to each in sample readings of classic works Through a series of illuminating oppositions he explores the paradoxical pleasures of reading solitary versus social reading submitting to or resisting the author reading inwardly or outwardly and more DiYanni closes with nine recommended reading practices thoughts on the different experiences of print and digital reading and advice on what to read and why Written in a clear inviting and natural style You Are What You Read is an essential guide for all who want to enrich their reading and their life An Intense Calling Jesse Bazzul,2023-02-27

Positing that education is a movement from one way of being to another more desirable one An Intense Calling argues that ethics should be the prime focus for the field of education The book locates ethics education and justice in human subjectivity and describes education as a necessary practice for ethical reflexivity change and becoming ethically different It also situates ethics as something that exceeds subjectivity thereby engaging ethics as a material phenomenon through topics such as aesthetics and solidarity with non humans Jesse Bazzul explores various concepts in the book including power biopolitics the commons subjectivity and materiality and draws from over twenty years of experience teaching in different countries including Canada Ireland the United States China and Ukraine Taking a wide ranging philosophical approach the book entangles ethics urgent political issues and pressing educational contexts of the twenty first century In doing so An Intense Calling maintains that ethics is the core of education because education involves finding better ways of living and being in the world Bookseller and the Stationery Trades' Journal ,1982 Official Journal of the European Communities ,1980
