Performance Trends in Postliberation Zimbabwe Nkululeko Sibanda, 2023-06-28 This collection of essays documents conceptualises and theorises the ways in which Zimbabwean in particular and African practitioners in general creatively work and perform in contemporary Africa It serves to consolidate the ways in which Zimbabwean and African performance is made and understood by Zimbabwean practitioners and theorists The book examines this emergent dynamic performance movement which transforms performances into acts of reflection engagement and or discussion between the performer and spectator through various creative performative avenues such as interjections call and response singing clapping and use of communally identifiable everyday objects in design which affirm and fuse the actors and spectators together Finally this book exposes the dominant exclusivity and Anglocentrism in critical pedagogies of performance in Zimbabwe through problematizing the taken for grantedness of the accepted ways in which performance and theory have been conceptualised

Handbook of Research on Resource Management and the Struggle for Water Sustainability in Africa Nojiyeza, Innocent Simphiwe, Mtapuri, Oliver, Bazaanah, Prosper, Netshiozwi, Edzisani Ellen, 2022-01-28 Access to water and sanitation remains a critical challenge in various countries in Africa. The crisis remains the crisis of governance rather than the physical and economic scarcity. In most countries, water is realized as a human right and subsidies are provided for the indigent households. The tricky issue in rural areas remains an issue of access that is often linked to willingness and ability to pay for the installation and daily consumption. The Handbook of Research on Resource Management and the Struggle for Water Sustainability in Africa presents practical examples of integrated water resources management IWRM implementation in African countries. It further addresses the contemporary issues of alternative energy as part of climate change mitigation and utilizes case studies to examine how communities adapt to climate change. Covering topics such as climate justice, ecological governance, and political ecology, this major reference work is a dynamic resource for government officials, sociologists, climate scientists, activists, students, and educators of higher education, academicians, and researchers in the fields of social sciences, government, developmental studies, international relations, and political science.

Innovation and Resource Management Strategies for Startups Development Baporikar, Neeta, 2024-02-26 In business, success hinges not only on individual performance but on the vitality of the broader ecosystem in which a company operates. However, crafting a thriving ecosystem alone is not enough to ensure success. Equally vital is the ability to manage relationships within this ecosystem effectively, harnessing its potential to enhance overall performance. Moreover, startups face the daunting challenge of scalability, a pivotal factor in long-term sustainability. Yet, achieving scalability often proves elusive due to complexities in resource management and ecosystem development.
