What to Miss When Leigh Stein, 2021-08-10 Poems about pop culture mortality and the internet written during the Coronavirus pandemic for readers who are more likely to double tap Instapoems than put their phone down long enough to read The Decameron Catalyzed by sheltering in place and by a personal challenge to give up alcohol for thirty days Leigh Stein the poet laureate of The Bachelor has written a twenty-first century Decameron to frame modern fables What to Miss When makes mischief of reality TV and wellness influencers juicy thoughtcrimes and love languages and the mixed messages of contemporary feminism Think Starlight the first poem in this collection written before any self-quarantine orders imagined the likelihood that the United States would follow in Italy's footsteps in terms of caseload and hospital overwhelm By March 17, 2020 the imagined was the real New York City had closed schools bars and restaurants with the rest of the country close behind With nihilist humor and controlled despair What to Miss When explores fears of death and grocery shopping stress

On Leatherwood Creek T/Sgt. James Lee Hutchinson EdS,2016-10-14 Life in the poverty of the Great Depression prior to World War II was a serious time which today s generation can only imagine and could not endure However I have used the short story format humor and a sixth grade vocabulary in many stories to encourage reading for ages twelve to ninety The names of my boyhood pals represent many of my childhood pals and stories are based on real events My sketches and photos help set the scene for each short story which stands alone but is more or less in order of events and seasons The sketches also signify that I qualify as a starving artist The twenty five percent unemployment in our community led to many people living on the edge of starvation Families lived in houses without electricity water or central heating and their lives were not complicated by bathrooms air conditioning television computer games or cell phones The outhouse was on the alley and house water came from well pumps or a neighbor s faucet Schools and parents demanded strict discipline and education was important Most families were striving to survive and rear their children to be law abiding citizens Children spent time in the fresh air organized their own games and roamed the streets fields or woodlands However they were assigned home chores and expected to contribute to the family The Greatest Generation saved our country and the freedom we have enjoyed for three quarters of a century The Selection and Acquisition of Books for Libraries Francis Keese Wynkoop Drury, American Library Association, 1928
