myth and history including his own Shuttling between stunning homes in Italy and the United States where he perfected his room size canvases he managed his public image carefully and rarely gave interviews Upon first seeing Twombly's remarkable paintings writer Joshua Rivkin became obsessed himself with the mysterious artist and began chasing every lead big or small anything that might illuminate those works or who Twombly really was Now after unprecedented archival research and years of interviews Rivkin has reconstructed Twombly's life from his time at the legendary Black Mountain College to his canonization in a 1994 MoMA retrospective from his heady explorations of Rome in the 1950s with Robert Rauschenberg to the ongoing efforts to shape his legacy after his death Including previously unpublished photographs Chalk presents a more personal and searching type of biography than we've ever encountered and brings to life a more complex Twombly than we've ever known

Naming the Gods Gary D. Astrachan, 2019-11-29 Naming the Gods Cy Twombly's Passionate Poiesis concerns itself with the contemporary art work of Cy Twombly as seen against the deep background of classical Greek mythology In particular the two entwined figures and images of Orpheus lyre player lover and journeyer to the underworld and Dionysos Bacchus god of wine ecstasy and madness are taken up as the two principal thematic leitmotifs which animate and overarchingly inform Twombly's entire artistic oeuvre across all the mediums in which he worked both literally and symbolically from the early 1950s until the last series of brilliantly colored paintings he made just before his death in 2011 His preoccupations with the rhythms of language poetry and writing on the one hand and his tendencies towards wildly expressive gestural abstraction on the other ultimately combine in his creation of a genuinely new and original performative aesthetic which unites and connects the powerful impulses of mark making painting and assembling with the basic human needs for individuation realization and redemption In a long and rich tradition of sublime poiesis spanning ancient Greek tragedy through Romanticism the poets Friedrich Hölderlin and Rainer Maria Rilke and into our own fragmented and imperiled postmodernist times Twombly's artistic corpus is viewed as providing a radically renovative relationship and practice for honoring working with and valorizing both psyche and matter the inner and outer worlds as well as with delimiting a uniquely generative and seminal space for the further enactment of creative human doing making producing and being in reciprocal and intimate relationship with the otherness of things nature and the environment Gary D Astrachan Ph.D is a clinical psychologist and Jungian psychoanalyst in private practice in Portland Maine He is a faculty member and supervising and training analyst at the C G Jung Institutes in Boston and in Switzerland and lectures and teaches widely throughout North America Latin America and Europe He is a founding member of the C G Jung Center of Brunswick Maine and is also an independent curator of contemporary art installations and exhibitions He is the author of numerous scholarly articles in professional journals and

Face to Face Hans-Michael Herzog, Daros Collection (Art), 2008

Since its emergence in the 1980s and 90s the Daros Collection in Zurich has accumulated about 280 works by 30 outstanding North American and European artists. It possesses one of the finest collections of early Warhol and major works by Sigmar Polke, Barbara Kruger, Alfredo Jaar, and Louise Bourgeois among many others. In 2000 when the strength and integrity of this collection had been established the museum boldly struck off in a new direction and the Daros Latin America Collection was founded. Already comprising roughly 1 000 works by around 100 artists including Carlos Amorales, Jos Bedia, Alfredo Jaar, Gego, Guillermo Kuitca, Vik Muniz among others it is now the largest collection of Latin American art in Europe, an exciting new resource that will doubtless have interesting long term ramifications for contemporary European art. Face to Face is the first volume to bring the two Daros Collections together thereby engaging these works created in different media and of various cultural origin in a dynamic dialogue that disrupts ordinary canon oriented perspectives. Face to Face thus not only deepens our knowledge of the respective qualities of the two collections but also explores the common characteristics of their cultural backgrounds.

What Images Do Jan Backlund, Henrik Oxvig, Michael Renner, Martin Soberg, 2019-09-13

When images look like something they do so because they are different from what they resemble. This difference is not sufficiently captured by the traditional theories of representation and mimesis and yet it is the condition for any such theory. Various contemporary image theorists have pointed out that Plato already understood that images are not what they look like. Images have their own existence which cannot be identified with a concept but should be examined in terms of actions. This book comprises fifteen articles that investigate what images do particularly in relation to the disciplines of architecture, design and visual arts. It claims that it is the differentiating power of images, their actions, which constitutes their capacity to look like something they are not as well as create something that does not yet exist. What Images Do addresses the crucial role that images might play in producing and investigating what we have not yet seen or understood in and of reality.
