Advanced Aircraft Design Egbert Torenbeek, 2013-07-29 Although the overall appearance of modern airliners has not changed a lot since the introduction of jetliners in the 1950s their safety efficiency and environmental friendliness have improved considerably Main contributors to this have been gas turbine engine technology advanced materials computational aerodynamics advanced structural analysis and on board systems Since aircraft design became a highly multidisciplinary activity the development of multidisciplinary optimization MDO has become a popular new discipline Despite this the application of MDO during the conceptual design phase is not yet widespread Advanced Aircraft Design Conceptual Design Analysis and Optimization of Subsonic Civil Airplanes presents a quasi analytical optimization approach based on a concise set of sizing equations Objectives are aerodynamic efficiency mission fuel empty weight and maximum takeoff weight Independent design variables studied include design cruise altitude wing area and span and thrust or power loading Principal features of integrated concepts such as the blended wing and body and highly non planar wings are also covered The quasi analytical approach enables designers to compare the results of high fidelity MDO optimization with lower fidelity methods which need far less computational effort Another advantage to this approach is that it can provide answers to what if questions rapidly and with little computational cost Key features Presents a new fundamental vision on conceptual airplane design optimization Provides an overview of advanced technologies for propulsion and reducing aerodynamic drag Offers insight into the derivation of design sensitivity information Emphasizes design based on first principles Considers pros and cons of innovative configurations Reconsiders optimum cruise performance at transonic Mach numbers Advanced Aircraft Design Conceptual Design Analysis and Optimization of Subsonic Civil Airplanes advances understanding of the initial optimization of civil airplanes and is a must have reference for aerospace engineering students applied researchers aircraft design engineers and analysts

Handbook of Research on Mobility and Computing: Evolving Technologies and Ubiquitous Impacts Cruz-Cunha, Maria Manuela, Moreira, Fernando, 2011-04-30 Discusses the main issues challenges opportunities and trends related to this explosive range of new developments and applications in constant evolution and impacting every organization and society as a whole This two volume handbook supports post graduate students teachers and researchers as well as IT professionals and managers

Handbook of Research on Innovations in Systems and Software Engineering Díaz, Vicente García,Lovelle, Juan Manuel Cueva,García-Bustelo, B. Cristina Pelayo,2014-08-31 Professionals in the interdisciplinary field of computer science focus on the design operation and maintenance of computational systems and software Methodologies and tools of engineering are utilized alongside the technological advancements of computer applications to develop efficient and precise databases of information The Handbook of Research on Innovations in Systems and Software Engineering combines relevant research from all facets of computer programming to provide a comprehensive look at the challenges and changes in the field With information spanning topics such as design models cloud computing and security this handbook is an essential reference source for academicians researchers practitioners and students interested in the development and design of improved and effective technologies Readings in Hardware/Software Co-Design Giovanni De Micheli,Rolf Ernst,Wayne Wolf,2002 This title serves as an introduction and reference for the field with the papers that have shaped the hardware software co design since its inception in the early 90s

Safety of Computer Architectures Jean-Louis Boulanger,2013-01-09 It is currently quite easy for students or designers engineers to find very general books on the various aspects of safety reliability and dependability of computer system architectures and partial treatments of the elements that comprise an effective system architecture It is not so easy to find a single source reference for all these aspects of system design However the purpose of this book is to present in a single volume a full description of all the constraints including legal contexts around performance reliability norms etc and examples of architectures from various fields of application including railways aeronautics space automobile and industrial automation The content of the book is drawn from the experience of numerous people who are deeply immersed in the design and delivery from conception to test and validation safety analysis of safety FMEA HA etc and evaluation of critical systems The involvement of real world industrial applications is handled in such a way as to avoid problems of confidentiality and thus allows for the inclusion of new useful information photos architecture plans schematics real examples Web Services Security Development and Architecture: Theoretical and Practical Issues Gutierrez, Carlos A.,Fernandez-Medina, Eduardo,Piattini, Mario,2010-01-31 This book's main objective is to present some of the key approaches research lines and challenges that exist in the field of security in SOA systems Provided by publisher Connect,2000

Developing Successful ICT Strategies: Competitive Advantages in a Global Knowledge-Driven Society Rahman, Hakikur,2007-08-31 Presents research investigating the notion that information communication technologies ICTs have the potential to improve the lives of people and contribute to enhancing social conditions in developing countries through such concepts as the Knowledge Society open education and e governance Automation and Human Performance Raja Parasuraman,Mustapha Mouloua,2018-01-29 There is perhaps no facet of modern society where the influence of computer automation has not been felt Flight management systems for pilots diagnostic and surgical aids for physicians navigational displays for drivers and decision aiding systems for air traffic controllers represent only a few of the numerous domains in which powerful new automation technologies have been introduced The benefits that have been reaped from this technological revolution have been many At the same time automation has not always worked as planned by designers and many problems have arisen from minor inefficiencies of operation to large scale catastrophic accidents Understanding how humans interact with automation is vital for the successful design of new automated systems that are both safe and efficient The influence of automation technology on human performance has often been investigated in a fragmentary isolated manner with investigators conducting disconnected studies in different domains There has been little contact between these endeavors although principles gleaned from one domain may have implications for another Also with a few exceptions the research has tended to be empirical and only theory driven In recent years however various groups of investigators have begun to examine human performance in automated systems in general and to develop theories of human interaction with automation technology This book presents the current theories and assesses the impact of automation on different aspects of human performance Both basic and applied research is presented to highlight the general principles of human computer interaction in several domains where automation technologies are widely implemented The major premise is that a broad based theory driven approach will have significant implications for the effective design of both current and future automation technologies This volume will be of considerable value to researchers in human

Informatics in Control, Automation and Robotics Juan Andrade Cetto, Jean-Louis Ferrier, Joaquim Filipe, 2009-04-01 The present book includes a set of selected papers from the Fifth International Conference on Informatics in Control Automation and Robotics ICINCO 2008 held in Funchal Madeira Portugal from 11 to 15 May 2008 The conference was organized in three simultaneous tracks Intelligent Control Systems and Optimization Robotics and Automation and Systems Modeling Signal Processing and Control The book is based on the same structure ICINCO 2008 received 392 paper submissions from more than 50 different countries in all continents From these after a blind review process only 33 were accepted as full papers of which 18 were selected for inclusion in this book based on the classifications provided by the Program Committee The selected papers reflect the interdisciplinary nature of the conference The diversity of topics is an important feature of this conference enabling an overall perception of several important scientific and technological trends These high quality standards will be maintained and reinforced at ICINCO 2009 to be held in Milan Italy and in future editions of this conference

Software Engineering for Self-Adaptive Systems III. Assurances Rogério de Lemos, David Garlan, Carlo Ghezzi, Holger Giese, 2018-01-16 A major challenge for modern software systems is to become more cost effective while being versatile flexible resilient energy efficient customizable and configurable when reacting to run time changes that may occur within the system itself its environment or requirements One of the most promising approaches to achieving such properties is to equip the software system with self adaptation capabilities Despite recent advances in this area one key aspect that remains to be tackled in depth is the provision of assurances Originating from a Dagstuhl seminar held in December 2013 this book constitutes the third volume in the series Software Engineering for Self Adaptive Systems and looks specifically into the provision of assurances Opening with an overview chapter on Research Challenges the book presents 13 further chapters written and carefully reviewed by internationally leading researchers in the field The book is divided into topical sections on research challenges evaluation integration and coordination and reference architectures and platforms

Indoor Air Quality Dikaia E. Saraga, 2020-12-07 The monitoring of indoor air pollutants in a spatio temporal basis is challenging A key element is the access to local i e indoor residential workplace or public building exposure measurements Unfortunately the high cost and complexity of most current air pollutant monitors result in a lack of detailed spatial and temporal resolution As a result individuals in vulnerable groups children pregnant elderly and sick people have little insight into their personal exposure levels This becomes significant in cases of hyper local variations and short term pollution events such as instant indoor activity e g cooking smoking and dust resuspension Advances in sensor miniaturization have encouraged the development of small inexpensive devices capable of estimating pollutant concentrations This new class of sensors presents new possibilities for indoor exposure monitoring This Special Issue invites research in the areas of the triptych indoor air pollution monitoring indoor air modeling and exposure to indoor air pollution Topics of interest for the Special Issue include but are not limited to the following low cost sensors for indoor air monitoring indoor particulate matter and volatile organic compounds ozone terpene chemistry biological agents indoors source apportionment exposure assessment health effects of indoor air pollutants occupant perception climate change impacts on indoor air quality

Computational Fluid Dynamics 2002 Steve Armfield, P. Morgan, Karkenahalli Srinivas, 2012-12-06 We are pleased to present the Proceedings of the Second International Conference on Computational Fluid Dynamics held at the University of Sydney Australia from July 15 to 19 2002 The conference was a productive meeting of scientists mathematicians and engineers involved in the computation of fluid flow Keynote lectures were presented in the areas of optimisation algorithms turbulence and bio fluid mechanics Two hundred and fifty abstracts from many countries were received for consideration The executive committee consisting of A Lerat M Napolitano J J Chattot N Satofuka and myself were responsible for the selection of papers Each of the members had a separate subcommittee to carry out the evaluation One hundred and seventy papers were selected of which one hundred and fifty two were presented at the conference All papers that appear in the proceedings have been peer reviewed by a panel of experts with a minimum of two for every paper before publication The conference was attended by 160 delegates with a minimum of late with drawals The informal and friendly atmosphere provided by the university surroundings was highly appreciated and the technical aspects of the conference were stimulating It is appropriate here to thank Alain Lerat the retiring secretary of the international scientific committee of the conference We also wish to welcome J J Chattot who is the
