Language And Prejudice Tamara M Valentine:

An Interdisciplinary Bibliography on Language, Gender and Sexuality (2000–2011) Heiko

Motschenbacher, 2012-09-11 This comprehensive state of the art bibliography documents the most recent research activity in the vibrant field of language gender and sexuality It provides experts in the field and students in tertiary education with access to language centred resources on gender and sexuality and is therefore an ideal research companion The main part of the bibliography lists 3 454 relevant publications monographs edited volumes journal articles and contributions to edited volumes that have been published within the period from 2000 to 2011 It unites work done in linguistics with that of neighbouring disciplines covering studies dealing with a broad range of languages and cultures around the globe Alphabetical listing and a keyword index facilitate finding relevant work by author and subject matter The e book version additionally enables users to search the entire document for specific terms Sections on earlier bibliographies and general reference works on language gender and sexuality complete the compilation Language, Gender and Sexual Identity

Heiko Motschenbacher, 2010 This book makes an innovative contribution to the relatively young field of Queer Linguistics Subscribing to a poststructuralist framework it presents a critical deconstructionist perspective on the discursive construction of heteronormativity and gender binarism from a linguistic point of view On the one hand the book provides an outline of Queer approaches to issues of language gender and sexual identity that is of interest to students and scholars new to the field On the other hand the empirical analyses of language data represent material that also appeals to experts in the field The book deals with repercussions of the discursive materialisation of heteronormativity and gender binarism in various kinds of linguistic data These include stereotypical genderlects structural linguistic gender categories especially from a contrastive linguistic point of view the discursive sedimentation of female and feminine generics linguistic constructions of the gendered body in advertising and the usage of personal reference forms to create characters in Queer Cinema Throughout the book readers become aware of the wounding potential that gendered linguistic forms may possess in certain contexts Turf Wars Gabriella Gahlia Modan, 2008-04-15 Turf Wars Discourse Diversity and the Politics of Place is the fascinating story of an urban neighborhood undergoing rapid gentrification Explores how members of a multi ethnic multi class Washington DC community deploy language to legitimize themselves as community members while discrediting others Discusses such issues as public toilets and public urination the morality of co ops and condos and characterizations of good girls and bad boys Draws on linguistic anthropology and discourse analysis to provide insight into the ways that local activity shapes larger urban social processes Draws also on cultural geography and urban anthropology Building Communities and Making Connections Susana Rivera-Mills, Juan Antonio Trujillo, 2010-02-19 Building Communities and Making

Connections explores areas of academic and community engagement through various studies that include community service learning and the development and implementation of university programs that contain a community dimension Academic endeavors have long been seen as separate from the realities of local and regional communities This book closes the gap by looking at ways in which both academia and the communities it serves can collaborate to create authentic and applied learning environments Chican@s in the Conversations Elizabeth Rodriguez Kessler, Anne Perrin, 2008 This brief affordable reader takes a provocative look at critical issues facing the Chican communities today and provides thought provoking questions and writing topics for each reading Chican@s in the Conversation presents contemporary essays about some of the most important challenges facing Mexican Americans today including health education identity and cultural concerns The wide range of authors includes both contemporary and classic nonfiction and serves not only to introduce these often unfamiliar writers but also to encourage the recognition of Chican writers as model essayists Success for All Melisa N. Choroszy, Theodor M. Meek, 2020-04-15 While the most important measure of success for many degree seeking students is the timely attainment of a Bachelor's degree there remains a host of other indicators of student success that vary by student population and students personal goals Many of these smaller successes lead to the ultimate goal of graduation and are significant triumphs throughout the journey through higher education Success for All is a strategic guide for administrators and educators that offers methods for advising students through the myriad of challenges they face Every bit of success contributes to the accomplishment of a larger goal and this book highlights success at every level It provides a specific roadmap to the research services and programs at the University of Nevada Reno and Truckee Meadows Community College that support student success in undergraduate and graduate programs regardless of a student's social emotional or prior academic experiences Contributors discuss how to make students feel welcome in their social and educational environments and how to directly assist them with the timely completion of their degree Administrators and educators demonstrate how these programs help make a positive contribution to the students and the institutions they serve while implementing practical solutions to increase graduation rates The Changing World of Work, 2006 The Changing World of Work is a collection of stimulating and diverse readings that ask students to think about the meaning of work in today's world and how it impacts our daily lives Readings touch on such diverse topics as what influences a person's work ethic inequalities in American work culture how technology has impacted today's workplace the ways that men and women strive to balance work and family life and more The Hip Hop Reader Timothy Francis Strode, Tim Wood, 2008 Composition and hip hop may seem unrelated but the connection isn't hard to make Hip hop and rap rely on a complex of narrative practices that have clear ties to some of the best American essay writing A Hip Hop Reader brings together work about this cultural phenomenon and provides selections that represent a variety of styles and interests American Dreams Larry R. Juchartz, Elizabeth A. Stolarek, Christy Rishoi, 2009 American Dreams explores the evolution and multiple meanings of the American Dream inviting students to consider how the concept has changed over time which groups have and have not been included in the dream and how rhetoric has enabled the dreams of a few to be shared by millions The British National Bibliography Arthur James
