Le Petit Galopin De Nos Corps:

The Pink and the Black Frédéric Martel, 1999 While acknowledging that the development of France's homosexual communities was influenced by America Martel highlights the differences arising from the fact that homosexuality has not been criminalised in France as in the United States back cover Encyclopedia of Lesbian and Gay Histories and Cultures George Haggerty, Bonnie Zimmerman, 2003-09-02 Beginning in 1869 when the study of homosexuality can be said to have begun with the establishment of sexology this Encyclopedia offers accounts of the most important international developments in an area that now occupies a critical place in many fields of academic endeavours While gays and lesbians have shared many aspects of life their histories and cultures developed in profoundly different ways To reflect this crucial fact the Encyclopedia has been prepared in two separate volumes assuring that both histories receive full unbiased attention and that a broad range of human experience is covered Written by some of the most famous names in the field as well as new researchers this is intended as a reference for students and scholars in all areas of study as well as the general public

OK2BG Jack Dunsmoor, 2015 OK2BG is narrative nonfiction a Memoir about a guy who wants to be a Mentor preferably to a teenager so they can have a decent meaningful conversation about stuff preferably with a kid at risk or just otherwise lost in order to help both the teenager as well as the determined subject of this story realize their unique potential find or reinforce their place in the world Overall a chronicle about the author's attempt over several years to understand the question of why do I want to be a Mentor which eventually helps him become a more insightful person Subsequently in September 2010 after a plague of teen suicides Jack turns his attention to researching gay biographies into optimistically appropriate groups of books for gay kids at risk from bullying After 5 years Jack has categorized 2 000 books in the form of Memoirs Biographies Autobiographies written by or about 1 000 allegedly gay men The primary message in OK2BG is to read reassess before you run asunder Encyclopedia of Gay Histories and Cultures George Haggerty, 2013-11-05 First Published in 2000 A rich heritage that needs to be documented Beginning in 1869 when the study of homosexuality can be said to have begun with the establishment of sexology this encyclopedia offers accounts of the most important international developments in an area that now occupies a critical place in many fields of academic endeavors It covers a long history and a dynamic and ever changing present while opening up the academic profession to new scholarship and new ways of thinking A groundbreaking new approach While gays and lesbians have shared many aspects of life their histories and cultures developed in profoundly different ways To reflect this crucial fact the encyclopedia has been prepared in two separate volumes assuring that both histories receive full unbiased attention and that a broad range of human experience is covered Written for and by a widerange of people Intended as a reference for students and scholars in all fields as well as for the general public the encyclopedia is written in user friendly language At the same time it maintains a high level of scholarship that incorporates both passion and objectivity It is written by some of the most famous names in the field as well as new

Intercultural Movements Keith Harvey, 2014-07-16 How was American gay liberation received in France between the events of Stonewall and the AIDS crisis What part did translations of American gay fiction play in this reception How might the various intercultural movements that characterize the French response to American gay be conceptualized as translational Intercultural Movements attempts to answer these questions by situating detailed analyses of key textual and paratextual dimensions of selected translations within an understanding of the French fascination in the 1970s with the model of gay emancipation in the United States Through an examination of the translations of Andrew Holleran's Dancer from the Dance John Rechy's Rushes and Larry Kramer's Faggots the book explores the dynamic of attraction assimilation transformation and rejection that characterizes French attitudes at the time In particular representations of the figure of the queen of the effeminate homosexual are identified as particularly sensitive textual zones for understanding French views on homosexual emancipation in the light of American developments Key figures involved in these debates include translators academics and activists such as Alain Emanuel Dreuilhe Michel Foucault Guy Hocquenghem Brice Matthieussent Philippe Mikriammos and Georges Michel Sarotte many of whom lived out the translational pressures of the time through various types of physical as well as textual displacement into the foreign space More broadly the book envisages using translation and translatedness as the paradigm case for all sorts of intercultural traffic while also intimating the possibility of an intercultural studies predicated upon a vision of cultural spaces as necessarily traversed and constituted by mis recognitions of cultural others

Soi-disant Australian Society for French Studies. Annual Conference, Joe Hardwick, 2005 A cross section of current work in autobiographical studies Soi disant brings together essays on Raymond Queneau Georges Perec Jean Genet Jeanne Hyvrard Amelie Nothomb Yves Navarre Catherine Pozzi Marie Bashkirtseff and the history of Maghreb literature It highlights the intertextual nature of autobiographical writing the ways in which it is shaped by other texts of various genres and bears the traces of these textual intersections Reflecting contemporary preoccupations in autobiographical studies the collection demonstrates that the aim has moved beyond the policing of a genre Autobiographical practices are taken to be plural and considered as sets of discursive manoeuvres The essays are thus concerned less with defining what life writing is than with raising questions about what it can do performatively whether in diaries autobiographies subtitled as such and novels read as autobiographies or in such unlikely genres as fourteenth century travel writing in Arabic and the elaborate games of OuLiPo texts
