Muslims in Global Politics

Mahmood Monshipouri,2011-07-07 In Egypt Islamists clash with secularists over religious and national identity while in Turkey secularist ruling elites have chosen to accommodate Islamists in the name of democracy and reconciliation As Islam spreads throughout the world Muslims living in their traditional homelands and in the Western world are grappling with shifting identities In all cases understanding the dynamics of identity based politics is critical to the future of Muslims and their neighbors across the globe In Muslims in Global Politics Mahmood Monshipouri examines the role identity plays in political conflicts in six Muslim nations Egypt Iraq the United Arab Emirates Turkey Iran and Indonesia as well as in Muslim diaspora communities in Europe and North America In each instance he describes how conservatives neofundamentalists reformists and secularists construct identity in different ways and how these identities play out in the political arena With globalization the demand for human rights continues to grow in the Muslim world and struggles over modernity authenticity legitimacy and rationality become increasingly important Muslims in Global Politics deepens our understanding of how modern ideas and norms interact with the traditions of the Islamic world and in turn shows how human rights advocates can provide an alternative to militant Islamist movements
