M. Montgomery's Emily of New Moon Yan Du, Joe Sutliff Sanders, 2024-04-23 Contributions by Yoshiko Akamatsu Carol L Beran Rita Bode Lesley D Clement Allison McBain Hudson Kate Lawson Jessica Wen Hui Lim Lindsey McMaster E Holly Pike Katharine Slater Margaret Steffler and Anastasia Ulanowicz Lucy Maud Montgomery 1874 1942 was a Canadian author best known for writing the wildly popular Anne of Green Gables At the time of its publication in 1908 it was an immediate bestseller and launched Montgomery to fame Less known than the dreamy and accidentally mischievous Anne Shirley is Emily Byrd Starr the title character in the trilogy that followed much later in Montgomery's professional career Emily of New Moon Published in 1923 Emily of New Moon is the first in a series of novels about an orphan girl growing up on Prince Edward Island a story that mirrors Anne's but intentionally resists many of the defining qualities of Montgomery's most famous creation Despite being overshadowed by the immense popularity of Anne of Green Gables the Emily of New Moon trilogy has become a subject of endless fascination to fans and scholars around the world The trilogy was conceived during an important phase in Montgomery's career during which she turned from Anne and plunged into more intricate aspects of gender adolescence nature and authorship While the novels have attracted rich critical attention since their publication book length studies proved surprisingly scarce L M Montgomery's Emily of New Moon A Children's Classic at 100 is the first scholarly volume exclusively dedicated to the trilogy coalescing different research perspectives It offers a fresh point of entrance into a well-loved classic at its one hundredth anniversary Making Avonlea Irene Gammel, 2002-01-01 Invoking theories of popular culture film literature drama and tourism contributors probe the emotional attachment and loyalty of many generations of readers to L M Montgomery's books The Fragrance of Sweet-Grass Elizabeth Rollins Epperly, 2014-05-01 When it originally appeared Elizabeth Rollins Epperly's The Fragrance of

Sweet Grass was one of the first challenges to the idea that L M Montgomery's books were unworthy of serious study. Examining all of Montgomery's fiction, Epperly argues that Montgomery was much more than a master of the romance genre and that through her use of literary allusions, repetitions, irony, and comic inversions, she deftly manipulated the normal conventions of romance novels. Focusing on Montgomery's memorable heroines from Anne Shirley to Emily Byrd Starr, Valancy Stirling, and Pat Gardiner, Epperly demonstrates that Montgomery deserves a place in the literary canon not just as the creator of Anne of Green Gables but as an artist in her chosen profession. Since its publication more than twenty years ago, The Fragrance of Sweet Grass has become a favourite of scholars, writers, and Montgomery fans. This new edition adds a preface in which Epperly discusses the book's contribution to the ongoing research on the life and writing of L M Montgomery, reflects on how Montgomery studies have flourished over the past two decades, and suggests new ways to approach and explore the Canadian writer's work.

Literary Culture and Female Authorship in Canada 1760-2000 Faye Hammill, 2021-10-18. There are two ladies in the province I am told who read writes Frances Brooke's Arabella Fermor but both are above fifty and are regarded as prodigies of erudition. Brooke's The History of Emily Montague 1769 was the first work of fiction to be set in Canada and also the first book to reflect on the situation of the woman writer there. Her analysis of the experience of writing in Canada is continued by the five other writers considered in this study: Susanna Moodie, Sara Jeannette Duncan, L M Montgomery, Margaret Atwood, and Carol Shields. All of these authors examine the social position of the woman of letters in Canada, the intellectual stimulation available to her, the literary possibilities of Canadian subject matter, and the practical aspects of reading, writing, and publishing in a post-colonial country. This book turns on the ways in which those aspects of authorship and literary culture in Canada have been inscribed in imaginative, autobiographical, and critical texts by the six authors. It traces the evolving situation of the Canadian woman writer over the course of two centuries and explores the impact of social and cultural change on the experience of writing in Canada.

Children and Childhoods in L.M. Montgomery Rita Bode, Lesley D. Clement, E. Holly Pike, Margaret Steffler, 2022-10-15. From Jane Austen to contemporary fanfiction and adaptations, literary portrayals of the child and imaginings of childhood are particularly telling indicators of cultural values and when they shift. Inspired by the responsive reading practices of L M Montgomery herself, those demonstrated by her characters and those of her diverse readership, Children and Childhoods in L M Montgomery works with concepts of confluence based on organic, non-linear readings of texts across time and space. Such readings reconsider views of childhood and children by challenging power hierarchies and inequities found in approaches that privilege more linear readings of literary influence. While acknowledging differences between childhood and adulthood, contributors emphasize kinship between child and adult as well as between past and present selves and use both scholarly approaches and creative reimagining to explore how the boundaries between different stages of life are blurred in Montgomery's writing. Children and Childhoods in L M Montgomery addresses Montgomery's challenges to prescribed assumptions about childhood while positioning her novels as essential texts in twenty first century literary childhood and youth studies Contributors include Yoshiko Akamatsu Notre Dame Seishin University Balaka Basu UNC Charlotte Rita Bode Trent University Holly Cinnamon Lesley D Clement Vappu Kannas Heidi Lawrence University of Glasgow Kit Pearson Rosalee Peppard Lockyer E Holly Pike Laura Robinson Acadia University Kate Scarth UPEI Margaret Steffler Trent University William Thompson MacEwan University Bonnie Tulloch UBC Asa Warnqvist Swedish Institute for Children s Books The English Catalogue of Books [annual] Sampson Low,1928 Vols for 1898 1968 include a directory of publishers
