Once Upon a Time in Yorkville Thomas Douglas Adelman,2022-04-21 Thomas Douglas Adelman looks back at an eventful life in this engaging memoir about growing up in a Jewish family and becoming a successful producer and director Born in 1954 he grew up on the Upper East Side of New York City in an upper middle class family with the normal dysfunction that you find in all families Notably his family was Jewish but celebrated Christmas although he never could figure out why His father was a businessman passionate about politics and his mother was an actress in the forties When they met it was love at first sight The author looks back at his adventures growing up including being thrown out of private schools as a boy and rubbing elbows with notable people He also looks back at how he made his way into the entertainment industry producing directing and working on numerous films and projects and ultimately launching his own company Join the author as he looks back at his childhood adult life and his rise to the top of the entertainment industry

Early Years ,1983 God Gave Me You PJ Beckley,2018-09-12 God Gave Me You was written to show God works in mysterious ways his wonders to perform Jean was raised in church and Kenneth was not God got a hold in Kenneth s life and changed him entirely They were two individuals raised in entirely different environments and God used them for his service They met in church married in church called to preach in church and raised their family in church God did miraculous wonders in their lives Healed their marriage several times Healed their daughter of rheumatic fever In their ministry several received Christ as their Savior And in the end God called Kenneth home to be with him What a great God we serve

Never Alone Sayif M. Sanyika,2016-07-20 One of the things I learned on this thousand mile walk is I am only vulnerable when I hide and I hide when I feel threatened not up to the challenge or I am ashamed about something Also I realized as humans most of us are always host to at least one if not all three conditions that invest heavily in our sense of guilt shame and fear These conditions exist greatly because of the ill will that we have projected and invested in the image of our own creation not understanding the power we put into such an investment nor do many of us have the spiritual understanding of the spoken and unspoken word and its internal and external power over our thought processes as well as our behavior On the other hand I believe with positivism one can disinvest in all ones negativity One cannot do harm to ones neighbor without doing harm to ones own character self esteem emotional and mental stability ones own sense of self is diminished Let us step out of fear and free the heart free the heart and step into the power of ones eternal self and you are once again walking in humanity in spirit reflecting the loving image of Spirit not the confusion we have placed upon such a concept The Power of Visual Imagery Karen Kelly,2006-03-01 Formerly published by Peytral Publications This user friendly resource provides the theory for improving students reading skills through visual imagery plus actual lesson plans to use independently or alongside your language arts program
