emergency managers on how to manage and overcome the impact of emergencies in the hospitality industry Selling in Customer Service Leon Cai,2024-08-27 Service in this book refers to the behaviors and actions of serving customers Selling in this book refers to the behaviors and actions of selling products to customers Hence this book is completely different from other books on these subjects Despite the fact that there are many books on service improvement and many related to selling skills worldwide there are few books on how service and selling are integrated and coordinated Primarily it focuses on the interaction and transition between the behavior of service and the behavior of selling by sharing methods and skills of how those two are interrelated This book provides many helpful guidelines and solutions for turning customers satisfaction with service into growth in sales Through many refreshing ideas the author helps you deeply understand the significance of integration of and conversion between service and selling and the harm of disconnection between service and selling Many new ideas and viewpoints which are different from other service books or sales books are discussed such as the contention that over service and over selling should be prevented Instead of Giving highly complex and abstract definitions of service or selling this book redefines service and selling with say YES to customers and Make customers say YES respectively Insisting that customers satisfaction with service will naturally lead to their long term loyalty this book emphasizes that customers satisfaction with service has a shelf lifetime which will soon fade over time Taking the achievement of customer satisfaction as the final purpose of service the author believes that the end of service is not customer satisfaction but to create new customer needs and achieve increased sales Taking meeting or exceeding customer expectations as the golden rule the author insists that customer expectations need to be reduced first then satisfied and upgraded finally Focusing on the development of customers buying needs like other books do this book focuses oppositely on the research of why customers have no buying needs Instructor's Guide to the Worksheets for The Gregg Reference Manual, Eighth Edition William A. Sabin,1996 Public Relations ,2007 Information and Communication Technologies in Tourism 2013 Lorenzo Cantoni,Zheng (Phil) Xiang,2013-11-18 The papers presented in this volume advance the state of the art in social media and Web 2 0 electronic tourism marketing web site and search engine optimization technology adoption and diffusion online communities tourism management and decision support eLearning mobile technologies and applications in tourism recommender systems e intermediaries and networks in tourism customer research in e tourism and user generated content The volume collects research papers of prominent scholars from around the world with a disciplinary background in the fields of social or computer sciences The book covers the most significant topics within the study field of electronic tourism and addresses both academics and practitioners interested in the latest advances in the electronic travel and tourism domain Connective Branding Claudia Fisher,Christine Vallaster,2010-04-01 This book bridges the gap between strengthening the employee brand and the building external brand image by synthesizing the two approaches The result is a blurring of the boundaries and assigning creative powers to both A customer has a number of interactions with the company and each of these interactions has an impact on the brand equity account either positive or negative Examples of interactions include the product itself the purchasing process the consumption experience the face of the organization the call center media etc The real issue for the company is how to translate the optimized ideal customer journey into effective company programmes how to track their progress and their actual impact on brand equity customer satisfaction and loyalty This book takes a holistic view to brand management and distills this complex system into palatable chunks involving all functions of the company The book demonstrates the effect of an organization that facilitates and rewards employee brand commitment on external brand equity eg customer satisfaction and loyalty and internal brand equity eg product improvement and innovation potential resident in the organization While the more obvious benefits of this approach include the usual suspects such as increased sales and revenues less obvious benefits include employee stress reduction through the elimination of tensions and incongruity between external and internal value systems The result is a significant contribution to creativity brand commitment overall employee satisfaction and finally a company's ability to attract and retain talent The above is achieved via a very practical step by step guide lavishly illustrated with case studies from over 100 fascinating brands the authors have researched and surveyed companies such as Aer Lingus BMW BP Deutsche Bank Ducati Edun Google innocent drinks Lacoste Lego Manner Maggi Orange Old Mutual Rabobank Sony SOS Childrens Villages Siemens Thomas Sabo TED United TUI UBS Vauxhall Wal Mart Wikimedia any many more the authors are able to paint a very real picture of the issues facing business and provide powerful solutions Refreshingly this book draws on examples from across the globe giving the book cultural depth Each case helps demonstrate the arguments put forward by the authors After reading this book the audience should be able to answer the following questions How can I build a strong brand Where do I start Which analyses do I have to conduct Who needs to be involved How can I make sure every part of the organisation lives the brand How can I revive the brand How can I create a new and relevant connection between the brand and key target audiences How can I develop and expand the brand How can future orientation become part of the brand How can I best structure the brand portfolio Which role should each of the brands adapt in order to optimise results How do I best manage the brand How do I cultivate and empower brand enthusiasts in the organisation How do I foster and leverage networked collaboration
