No Lost Causes Club Lauren McQuistin, 2025-07-15 Brutally honest darkly funny and deeply empathetic No Lost Causes Club is a guide to the process of sobering up when it feels like the party's just getting started from the voice of the popular Instagram brutalrecovery When she was told that her life expectancy could be as low as twenty five if she did not stop drinking Lauren McQuistin felt absolutely nothing then despair and disbelief How was she here Surely sobriety was for middle aged divorcees who'd lost everything not young struggling singers who didn't have anything to lose in the first place Besides when alcohol is the only medicine that makes the world feel bearable how can you possibly stop taking it Six years later Lauren has found her way to an intricate answer Entwining practical empathetic suggestions with intimate memoir No Lost Causes Club is an intrinsically vulnerable and brutally honest exploration of what it looks like to live a full life after getting clean From delving into the social complexities that often leave people hopelessly dependent on alcohol to centering the struggles of those newly navigating sobriety this book is a soothing balm for anyone wondering how to carve out a beautiful life in a world that never made sense before Marxist Film Theory and Fight Club Anna Kornbluh, 2019-05-02 Anna Kornbluh provides an overview of Marxist approaches to film with particular attention to three central concepts in Marxist theory in general that have special bearing on film the mode of production ideology and mediation In explaining how these concepts operate and how they have been used and misused in film studies the volume employs a case study to exemplify the practice of Marxist film theory Fight Club is an exceptionally useful text with which to explore these three concepts because it so vividly and pedagogically engages with economic relations ideological distortion and opportunities for transformation At the same time it is a very typical film in terms of the conditions of its production its marketing and its popularity Adapted from a novel by

Chuck Palahniuk the film is a contemporary classic that has lent itself to significant re interpretation with every shift in the political economic landscape since its debut Marxist Film Theory and Fight Club models a detailed cinematic interpretation that students can practice with other films and furnishes a set of ideas about cinema and society that can be carried into other kinds of study giving students tools for analyzing culture broadly defined
