Histoire De Lynx:

Histoire de Lynx Claude Lévi-Strauss, 1994 Se fondant sur l'étude de nombreux mythes recueillis chez les Indiens d'Amérique et qui font apparaître une opposition entre des termes proches par nature deux frères deux jumeaux par exemple Claude Lévi Strauss montre comment cet art qui ne se comble jamais dans la pensée indienne est constitutif d'une représentation originale de la nature et de la société en perpétuel déséquilibre comme si toujours le même engendrait l'autre et que la bonne marche de l'univers en dépendait Ainsi dans la pensée des Amérindiens leur existence impliquait celle des non Indiens et la place des Européens était marquée en creux dans leur système On est alors conduit à douter sur la rencontre entre deux mondes son retentissement dans chacune des deux cultures sur les sources du dualisme des Indiens d'Amérique l'origine d'une ouverture l'autre que les conquérants sauront exploiter pour mieux détruire les peuples et les valeurs du Nouveau Monde

Histoire de lynx - Réédition d'une oeuvre majeure de Claude Lévi-Strauss avec une préface de Jean-Loïc Le Quellec
Claude Lévi-Strauss, 2025-02-20 Troisième volet du triptyque inauguré par La Voie des masques et La Poterie jalouse l'Histoire du lynx est un conte répandu en Amérique du Nord et dont les thèmes principaux fondés sur l'idée de gemellité se retrouvent dans les plus anciens mythes du Brésil et du Pérou La comparaison entre des mythes les uns provenant de l'Amérique du Nord les autres recueillis dès le XVI^e siècle dans le sud du Brésil et au Pérou fait apparaître travers le temps et les lieux ce qu'on pourrait appeler une constante de la pensée amérindienne Cette pensée procède en opposant les termes que les mythes conjoignent si proches qu'ils les incarnent dans une paire de frères souvent jumeaux ou presque entre lesquels toutefois une différence existe en germe Mais contrairement à Castor et Pollux qui refusent cette différence et obtiennent de devenir parfaitement égaux les jumeaux américains ne surmontent jamais leur art Ils s'appliquent même à le creuser comme si une nécessité métaphysique contraignait des termes apparents à diverger Car la nature la société sont en perpétuel déséquilibre interne le même engendre toujours l'autre la bonne marche de l'univers en dépend Ainsi dans la pensée des Amérindiens leur existence impliquait celle des non Indiens Bien avant la découverte du Nouveau Monde la place des Blancs était marquée en creux dans leur système Ils taient de ce fait prêts à les accueillir Tel est le thème de ce livre Un parcours plein d'imprévu d'aboutir par l'analyse approfondie de mythes qui s'organisent autour de la notion d'une impossible gemellité Il poursuit en les comparant avec les contes populaires franco-canadiens que les Indiens connurent et qu'ils incorporèrent leurs propres traditions C'est l'occasion d'esquisser une théorie de l'emprunt On est ainsi conduit à douter sur la rencontre des deux mondes son retentissement dans la pensée de Montaigne et celle de ses contemporains On croit enfin possible de remonter aux sources philosophiques et théologiques du dualisme amérindien Celui-ci tire son inspiration d'une ouverture l'autre qui se manifesta lors des premiers contacts avec les Blancs bien que ceux-ci fussent animés de dispositions très contraires , Il était une fois le lynx Christophe Woehrle, 2011 Ouvrages miscellanées et théories de la connaissance à la Renaissance Dominique de Courcelles, Ecole nationale des chartes (France), 2003 La Renaissance voit le développement de la pratique des manières en m me temps que la naissance de la philologie l'apparition de nouvelles interprétations des textes canoniques bibliques philosophiques théologiques politiques etc la découverte du Nouveau Monde de nouvelles connaissances de nouveaux savoirs Ces actes montrent en quoi les mélanges sont des théories de la connaissance Argonauts of the Desert Philippe Wajdenbaum, 2014-09-19 Argonauts of the Desert presents a revolutionary new commentary on the Bible and its origins arguing that most biblical stories and laws were inspired by Greek literature From Genesis to Kings the books of the Bible may have been written by a single author a Hellenized Judean scholar who used Plato's ideal state in The Laws as a primary source As such biblical Israel is a recreation of that twelve tribes State and the stories surrounding the birth life and death of that State were inspired by Greek epics Each chapter presents the biblical material and compares this to the Greek or Roman equivalents discussing similarities and differences The Origins of the World's Mythologies E.J. Michael Witzel, 2012-12-13 This remarkable book is the most ambitious work on mythology since that of the renowned Mircea Eliade who all but single handedly invented the modern study of myth and religion Focusing on the oldest available texts buttressed by data from archeology comparative linguistics and human population genetics Michael Witzel reconstructs a single original African source for our collective myths dating back some 100 000 years Identifying features shared by this Out of Africa mythology and its northern Eurasian offshoots Witzel suggests that these common myths recounted by the communities of the African Eve are the earliest evidence of ancient spirituality Moreover these common features Witzel shows survive today in all major religions Witzel's book is an intellectual hand grenade that will doubtless generate considerable excitement and consternation in the scholarly community Indeed everyone interested in mythology will want to grapple with Witzel's extraordinary hypothesis about the spirituality of our common ancestors and to understand what it tells us about our modern cultures and the way they are linked at the deepest level French Global Christie McDonald, Susan Rubin Suleiman, 2010 Recasting French literary history in terms of the cultures and peoples that interacted within and outside of France's national boundaries this volume offers a new way of looking at the history of a national literature along with a truly global and contemporary understanding of language literature and culture The relationship between France's national territory and other regions of the world where French is spoken and written most of them former colonies has long been central to discussions of Francophonie Boldly expanding such discussions to the whole range of French literature the essays in this volume explore spaces mobilities and multiplicities from the Middle Ages to today They rethink literary history not in terms of national boundaries as traditional literary histories have done but in terms of a global paradigm that emphasizes border crossings and encounters with others Contributors offer new ways of reading canonical texts and considering other texts that are not part of the traditional canon By emphasizing diverse conceptions of language text space and nation these essays establish a model approach that remains sensitive to the specificities of time and place and to the theoretical concerns informing the study of national literatures in the twenty first century Inuit Stories of Being and Rebirth Bernard Saladin d'Anglure, 2018-11-30 Ujarak Iqallijuq and Kupaaq were elders from the Inuit community on Igloodik Island in Nunavut. The three elders among others shared with Bernard Saladin d'Anglure the narratives which make up the heart of Inuit Stories of Being and Rebirth Through their words and historical sources recorded by Franz Boas and Knud Rasmussen. Saladin d'Anglure examines the Inuit notion of personhood and its relationship to cosmology and mythology. Central to these stories are womb memories, narratives of birth and reincarnation, and the concept of the third sex, an intermediate identity between male and female. As explained through first person accounts and traditional legends, myths, and folk tales, the presence of transgender individuals informs Inuit relationships to one another and to the world at large, transcending the dualities of male and female, human and animal, human and spirit. This new English edition includes the 2006 preface by Claude Lévi-Strauss and an afterword by Bernard Saladin d'Anglure.

Colonization Marc Ferro, 2005-08-19 The first comprehensive synthesis and analysis of colonialism from its origins to the present. Using a non Eurocentric approach, Ferro compares all the European colonial powers as well as Arab, Turk, and Japanese colonialism.

Beyond the Visible and the Material Laura M. Rival, Neil L. Whitehead, 2001 The contributors to this volume explore the legacy of Peter Rivière, recently retired Professor of Social Anthropology, University of Oxford, in the development of the anthropology of Amazonia. This international group of leading specialists contributes to the substantial and growing body of Amazonian ethnography, discussing topics which include kinship and genealogy, the village as a unit of ethnographic observation and analysis, the human body in political and social processes, and gender relationships as aspects of political/cosmological thinking. In addition, the ethnology of the Guianas receives particular emphasis, as do the themes of shamanism, history, and colonialism as they have affected this region. In showing how alive the field of Amazonian anthropology has become, whilst pointing to conceptual aspects in need of further elaboration, the contributors demonstrate their shared conviction that the impact of Amazonian ethnology is becoming comparable to that of African ethnology in the 1950s and Melanesian ethnology in the 1980s.

The Relative Native Eduardo Viveiros de Castro, 2016-02-15 This volume is the first to collect the most influential essays and lectures of Eduardo Viveiros de Castro. Published in a wide variety of venues and often difficult to find, the pieces are brought together here for the first time in a one major volume which includes his momentous 1998 Cambridge University Lectures, Cosmological Perspectivism in Amazonia and Elsewhere. Rounded out with new English translations of a number of previously unpublished works, the resulting book is a wide-ranging portrait of one of the towering figures of contemporary thought: philosopher, anthropologist, ethnographer, ethnologist, and more. With a new afterword by Roy Wagner elucidating Viveiros de Castro's work, influence, and legacy, The Relative Native will be required reading, further cementing Viveiros de Castro's position at the center of contemporary anthropological inquiry.

American Encounters Peter C. Mancall, James Hart Merrell, 2000 A collection of articles that describe the relationships and encounters between

Native Americans and Europeans throughout American history Oeuvres complètes de Buffon Georges Louis Leclerc comte de Buffon,1831 Modern European Criticism and Theory Julian Wolfreys,2006-04-21

Modern European Criticism and Theory offers the reader a comprehensive critical overview of the widespread and profound contest of ideas within European theory The book focuses primarily on the thought of major voices in poetics philosophy linguistics and psychoanalysis as well as in literary and cultural studies from the Enlightenment to the present day Examining how conceptions of subjectivity identity and gender have been questioned the more than 50 essays written by acknowledged experts in their fields critically assess the ways in which we think see and act in the world as well as the ways in which we represent such thought psychologically politically and culturally A further reading list accompanies each chapter

Manufacturing Otherness Sergio Botta,2014-01-14 The discovery of the New World offered European civilisation the chance to generate a process of circulation of its own cultural values the spiritual conquest that has no comparable precedents The missionary orders played an important role during this Westernisation of the world not only as key players in the spread of Christian values but also as mediators between different worlds Indeed missionary practices imposed the dominating culture s values and institutions on the vanquished peoples At the same time they also promoted the circulation of new knowledge and the negotiation between different cultures during the age of a global integration of space This book looks at the vast field of study concerning the history of missions from a specific viewpoint Firstly it focuses on local processes singling out specific case studies to be used for a general reflection On the other hand it refocuses the attention on the Indigenous cultures which the missionaries helped to bring to light in the field of Western history showing how they succeeded in entering the areas of negotiation created by missionaries and in producing their own cultural subjectivity

Far Afield Vincent Debaene,2014-04-04 Anthropology has long had a vexed relationship with literature and nowhere has this been more acutely felt than in France where most ethnographers upon returning from the field write not one book but two a scientific monograph and a literary account In Far Afield brought to English language readers here for the first time Vincent Debaene puzzles out this phenomenon tracing the contours of anthropology and literature s mutual fascination and the ground upon which they meet in the works of thinkers from Marcel Mauss and Georges Bataille to Claude Lévi Strauss and Roland Barthes The relationship between anthropology and literature in France is one of careful curiosity Literary writers are wary about anthropologists scientific austerity but intrigued by the objects they collect and the issues they raise while anthropologists claim to be scientists but at the same time are deeply concerned with writing and representational practices Debaene elucidates the richness that this curiosity fosters and the diverse range of writings it has produced from Proustian memoirs to proto surrealist diaries In the end he offers a fascinating intellectual history one that is itself located precisely where science and literature meet Women, 'Race' and Writing in the Early Modern Period Margo Hendricks,Patricia Parker,2013-08-21 Women Race and Writing in the Early Modern Period is an extraordinarily comprehensive interdisciplinary examination of one of the most neglected areas in current scholarship The contributors use literary historical anthropological and medical materials to explore an important intersection within the major era of European imperial expansion The volume looks at the conditions of women s writing and the problems of female authorship in the period the tensions between recent feminist criticism and the questions of race empire and colonialism the relationship between the early modern period and post colonial theory and recent African writing Women Race and Writing in the Early Modern Period contains ground breaking work by some of the most exciting scholars in contemporary criticism and theory It will be vital reading for anyone working or studying in the field Comparing the Incomparable Marcel Detienne, 2008 A deliberately post deconstructionist manifesto against the dangers of incommensurability Marcel Detienne s book argues for and engages in the constructive comparison of societies of a great temporal and spatial diversity
