Nostalgia after Apartheid Amber R. Reed, 2020-11-30 In this engaging book Amber Reed provides a new perspective on South Africa's democracy by exploring Black residents' nostalgia for life during apartheid in the rural Eastern Cape. Reed looks at a surprising phenomenon encountered in the post-apartheid nation despite the Department of Education mandating curricula meant to teach values of civic responsibility and liberal democracy; those who are actually responsible for teaching this material and the students taking it often resist what they see as the imposition of white values. These teachers and students do not see South African democracy as a type of freedom but rather as destructive of their own African culture, whereas apartheid at least ostensibly allowed for cultural expression in the former rural homelands. In the Eastern Cape, Reed observes, resistance to democracy occurs alongside nostalgia for apartheid among the very citizens who were most disenfranchised by the late racist authoritarian regime. Examining a rural town in the former Transkei homeland and the urban offices of the Sonke Gender Justice Network in Cape Town, Reed argues that nostalgic memories of a time when African culture was not under attack combined with the socioeconomic failures of the post-apartheid state set the stage for the current political ambivalence in South Africa. Beyond simply being a case study, however, Nostalgia after Apartheid shows how, in a global context in which nationalism and authoritarianism continue to rise, the threat posed to democracy in South Africa has far wider implications for thinking about enactments of democracy. Nostalgia after Apartheid offers a unique approach to understanding how the attempted post-apartheid reforms have failed rural Black South Africans and how this failure has led to a nostalgia for the very conditions that once oppressed them. It will interest scholars of African studies, postcolonial studies, anthropology, and education as well as general readers interested in South African history and politics.

Developmental State of Africa in Practice Steve Kayizzi-Mugerwa, Charles Leyeka Lufumpa, 2020-12-03 This book is the product of research undertaken at the African Development Bank AfDB on the lessons that the continent of Africa can draw from the role of the state in Asia's rapid economic development in the last 50 years. The book applies a cross-national comparative framework to analyse Africa's performance, drawing broadly on the developmental states of Asia, i.e. Japan, China, India, Vietnam, etc., with focus on South Korea. The book argues that for Africa to replicate Asia's developmental success, it may require more than just tweaking the public sector machinery. Dedicated institutions and a citizenry capable of demanding accountability from governments must become key ingredients of the development strategy. The book also provides insight into the learning experiences of Asia in addressing key national policy challenges, i.e. land reform and quality of public administration at the federal and local levels, enhancing technical skills, boosting capabilities for sciences, engineering, and mathematics, and industrialization.

Churchill as Home Secretary Charles Stephenson, 2023-02-22 There can be few statesmen whose lives and careers have received as much investigation and literary attention as Winston Churchill. Relatively little, however, has appeared which deals specifically or holistically with his first senior ministerial role, that of Secretary of State for the Home Office This may be due to the fact that of the three Great Offices of State which he was to occupy over the course of his long political life his tenure as Home Secretary was the briefest The Liberal Government of which he was a senior figure had been elected in 1906 to put in place social and political reform Though Churchill was at the forefront of these matters his responsibility for domestic affairs led to him facing other major challenges departmentally this was a time of substantial commotion on the social front with widespread industrial and civil strife Even given that Home Secretaries never do have an easy time his period in office was thus marked by a huge degree of political and social turbulence The terms Tonyandy and Peter the Painter perhaps spring most readily to mind Rather less known is his involvement in one of the burning issues of the time female suffrage and his portrayal as the prisoners friend in terms of penal reform Aged 33 on appointment and the youngest Home Secretary since 1830 he became empowered to wield the considerable executive authority inherent in the role of one of His Majesty s Principal Secretaries of State and he certainly did not shrink from doing so There were of course commensurate responsibilities and how he shouldered them is worth examination ¿Quién domina el mundo?
