Dissident Writings of Arab Women Brinda J. Mehta, 2014-03-14 Dissident Writings of Arab Women Voices Against Violence analyzes the links between creative dissidence and inscriptions of violence in the writings of a selected group of postcolonial Arab women The female authors destabilize essentialist framings of Arab identity through a series of reflective interrogations and contesting literary genres that include novels short stories poetry docudramas interviews and testimonials Rejecting a purist literature for literature's sake ethic they embrace a dissident poetics of feminist critique and creative resistance as they engage in multiple and intergenerational border crossings in terms of geography subject matter language and transnationality This book thus examines the ways in which the women's writings provide the blueprint for social justice by voicing protest and stimulating critical thought particularly in instances of social oppression structural violence and political transition Providing an interdisciplinary approach which goes beyond narrow definitions of literature as aesthetic praxis to include literature's added value as a social historical political and cultural palimpsest this book will be a useful resource for students and scholars of North African Studies Postcolonial Studies Francophone Studies and Feminist Studies

Race on Display in 20th- and 21st- Century France Katelyn E. Knox, 2016-06-01 Race on Display in 20th and 21st Century France argues that the way France displayed its colonized peoples in the twentieth century continues to inform how minority authors and artists make immigrants and racial and ethnic minority populations visible in contemporary France The School Story David Aitchison, 2022-02-04 The School Story Young Adult Narratives in the Age of Neoliberalism examines the work of contemporary writers filmmakers and critics who reflecting on the realm of school experience help to shape dominant ideas of school The creations discussed are mostly stories for children and young adults David Aitchison looks at serious novels for teens including Laurie Halse Anderson's Speak and Faiza Guane's Kiffe Kiffe Tomorrow the light hearted middle grade fiction of Andrew Clements and Tommy Greenwald and Malala Yousafzai's autobiography for young readers I Am Malala He also responds to stories that take young people as their primary subjects in such novels as Sapphire's Push and films including Battle Royale and Cooties Though ranging widely in their accounts of young life such stories betray a mounting sense of crisis in education around the world especially in terms of equity the extent to which students from diverse backgrounds have fair chances of receiving quality education and empowerment the extent to which diverse students are encouraged to gain strength confidence and selfhood as learners Drawing particular attention to the influence of neoliberal initiatives on school experience this book considers what it means when learning and success are measured more and more by entrepreneurship competitive individualism and marketplace gains Attentive to the ways in which power structures institutional routines school spaces and social relations operate in the contemporary school story The School Story offers provocative insights into a genre that speaks profoundly to the increasingly precarious position of education in the twenty first century Ethnic Minority Women's Writing in France Claire Mouflard, 2020-11-17 In Ethnic Minority Women's Writing in France Mouflard argues that the identity politics surrounding the immigration discourse of early twenty first century France were reflected in the marketing and editing practices of the Metropole's key publishers specifically with regards to non white French women's literature Echoing the utopic Black Blanc Beur model of integration which surfaced during the 1998 soccer World Cup select publishers fashioned unofficial literary categories based on neocolonial racial and gender stereotypes either lauding integrated Beur authors or exploiting Black political dissenters Concurrently metropolitan women writers in their autobiographies autofictions and manifestoes problematized notions of French multiculturalism and literary hierarchies thereby exposing the dangers of utopian thinking Mouflard ultimately reveals that the absence of the Franco Vietnamese identity from the Black Blanc Beur paradigm enabled authors of Southeastern Asian origin to establish themselves outside of the era's reductive multicultural utopia within a realm directly adjacent to littérature française if not in a newly designed truly multicultural French literature category Overall Mouflard's research highlights the discrepancies between France's official discourse on immigration and the actual identity formation processes created by the institutions and exploited by influential publishers in the years leading to the historic 2005 banlieue civil unrest Approaches to

Race and Sex across the French Atlantic Frieda Ekotto, 2012-07-10 Jean Genet's masterpiece Les Nègres was first published in 1958 in the midst of the Algerian war and first performed at the Théâtre de Lutèce in Paris in October 1959 Yet even though the play is more than 50 years old it remains a fundamental contribution to critical race theory as Genet unequivocally posits that no matter what a black person does or doesn't do simply to be black in our times is itself a tragedy Placing Genet in the context of Negritude movement Race and Sex across the French Atlantic equally reveals and examines blackness within the African American dialogue with a white French author's provocative questions about race Is a black man always black and even more fundamentally What is blackness Within this framework to question blackness therefore is to set out on an ontological quest as blackness has become a real living thing in its own right within European ideology social theory and historical consciousness even as Les Nègres has taken its place as a major text in the francophone and philosophical tradition of writing on race In essence this book concentrates on the way in which language particularly the French language has shaped ideas about race within transatlantic discourses and with its companion continental philosophy has also shaped the historical understanding of discourse on race It navigates between multiple readings of race within the French Atlantic using Lorraine Hansberry's play Les Blancs Dany Laferrière's Comment faire l'amour avec un Nègre sans se fatiguer Genet's dialogue with the Black Panthers and different conceptions of the so called N-word Race and Sex across the French Atlantic thus explores how Les Nègres offered a groundbreaking reading of how race functioned and continues to function as an all pervasive discourse that provides a central principle around which society in general is organized The play stages a deeply self reflexive and critical examination of the very essence of
