Creating Great Ebooks Using Jutoh , Teaching Adult Learners Jessica A.

Curtis,2019-06-12 As adult instruction becomes a more common part of library practice librarians need guidance in an area that may not always have been a part of their library science education This book provides the instruction necessary to instruct adult patrons Presenting complex concepts and ideas in an easy to understand format this book applies learning theory to real life situations and provides a much needed resource for those responsible for or seeking to instruct adults in library settings The book introduces learning principles and techniques that will enhance your classes programs and one on one interactions as well as increase the memory retention of participants It will help you not only to promote learning but also to create positive library interactions and build retention Current library instructional and theoretical texts address instructional programming but do not explain how the instructor handles learning instruction differently for individuals general audiences and specific audiences or in passive situations such as through handouts or online interactions This guide differs from other works in that it addresses all adult services positions not only those with the title of instructional librarian and addresses the full scope of instruction that librarians need to better meet patron needs

Something's Gotta Give

Beth R. Bernhardt,Leah H. Hinds,Katina P. Strauch,2012 The theme of the 2011 Charleston Conference the annual event that explores issues in book and serial acquisition was Something s Gotta Give The conference held November 2 5 2011 in Charleston SC included 9 pre meetings more than 10 plenaries and over 120 concurrent sessions The theme reflected the increasing sense of strain felt by both libraries and publishers as troubling economic trends and rapid technological change challenge the information supply chain What part of the system will buckle under this pressure Who will be the winners and who will be the losers in this stressful environment The Charleston Conference continues to be a major event for information exchange among librarians vendors and publishers As it begins its fourth decade the Conference is one of the most popular international meetings for information professionals with almost 1 500 delegates Conference attendees continue to remark on the informative and thought provoking sessions The Conference provides a collegial atmosphere where librarians vendors and publishers talk freely and directly about issues facing libraries and information providers In this volume the organizers of the meeting are pleased to share some of the learning experiences that they and other attendees had at the conference
