Verdenskrig indførte flere krigsførende lande et nyt hidtil ukendt ritual Kroppen af en anonym soldat døde på slagmarken blev begravet i den ukendte soldats grav for at symbolisere den fælles sorg over slagmarkens voldsomme traumer Ved at undersøge hvordan forskellige lande ofte med vidt forskellig politisk og kulturel baggrund har anvendt Den ukendte Soldat symbolsk hver forfatteren at der er skabt en ny måde at udtrykke fælles national sorg på The Unspeakable Amy L. Hubbell, Névine El Nossery, 2013-10-03 The Unspeakable Representations of Trauma in Francophone Literature and Art is situated at the crossroads of language culture and genre it contends that suffering transcends time space and cultural specificity Even when extreme trauma is silenced it often still emerges in surprising and painful ways This volume draws together examples from throughout the Francophone world including countries such as Algeria Morocco Lebanon Rwanda Cameroon Congo Côte d'Ivoire Haiti New Caledonia Quebec and France and across genres such as autobiography poetry theater film fiction and visual art to provide a cohesive analysis of the representation of trauma In addition to the survivors expression of trauma the witnesses and receivers are also taken into account By gathering studies that explore diverse bodily and psychological traumas through tropes such as repetition silence and working through it tackles ethical responsibility and interrogates how expressive forms evoke a terrible reality through the use of imagination The aim of this volume is not to question if suffering is representable but rather to examine to what extent art surpasses its own limitations and goes straight to its essence The Unspeakable hopes to provide models for the cultural translation of trauma because when represented and released from silence and isolation trauma can give way to the arduous process of healing Cosmic Connections Charles Taylor, 2024-05-21 Charles Taylor delves into the poetry of the Romantics and their heirs a foundation of his distinctive philosophy of language Taylor holds that Romantic poetry responded to disenchantment with old cosmic orders depleted artists groped to articulate new meanings by bringing connections to life rather than merely reasoning abstractly about life The Flowers of Evil Charles Baudelaire, 2025-01-07 A DUAL LANGUAGE EDITION OF THE WORK THAT SCANDALIZED PARIS AND REINVENTED BEAUTY Probing the depths of the modern psyche in a voice at once caustic and vulnerable melancholic and humorous Baudelaire's infamous book brings to the

Syrový, 2021-01-18 The third volume of the collected papers of the ICLA congress The Many Languages of Comparative Literature includes contributions that focus on the interplay between concepts of nation, national languages and individual as well as collective identities. Because all literary communication happens within different kinds of power structures (linguistic, economic, political), it often results in fascinating forms of hybridity. In the first of four thematic chapters, the papers investigate some of the ways in which discourses can establish modes of thinking or how discourses are in turn controlled by active linguistic interventions, whether in the context of the patriarchy, war, colonialism or political factions. The second thematic block is predominantly concerned with hybridity as an aspect of modern cultural identity and the cultural and linguistic dimensions of domestic life and in society at large. Closely related, a third series of papers focuses on writers and texts analysed from the vantage points of exile and exophony as well as theoretical contributions to issues of terminology and what it means to talk about transcultural phenomena. Finally, a group of papers sheds light on more overtly violent power structures, mechanisms of exclusion, totalitarianism, torture and censorship, but also resistance to these forms of oppression. In addition to these chapters, the volume also collects a number of thematically related group sections from the ICLA congress, preserving their original context. Révelations d'outre-tombe ... Politique et religion. Rédacteur H. D. Premier

Volume Supplémentaire Henri DOZON, 1864 Announcements Kristina Mendicino, 2020-01-01 Walter Benjamin claimed that the notion of novelty took on unprecedented importance with the growth of high capitalism in the nineteenth century. In this book, Kristina Mendicino analyzes a selection of canonical texts that reflect profound concern with novelty and its apparent contrary, the eternal return of the same, including Nietzsche's Thus Spoke Zarathustra, Baudelaire's lyric and prose poetry and Marx and Engels's Communist Manifesto. She also addresses Eternity by the Stars by Louis Auguste Blanqui, who is less well known and often underestimated in considerations of his significance for revolutionary political theory. Mendicino argues that the notion of a novum cannot be understood without attentiveness to the language of announcement, not least of all because the new has always been associated with a particular mode of linguistic performance. Through close readings of emphatically annunciatory texts, she demonstrates how the extreme possibilities of expression that they present through specific citational and rhetorical praxes render the language of announcement overdetermined and anachronistic in ways that exceed any systematic account of historical time and experience. This excess in and through language is precisely what opens hitherto unheard-of alternatives for conceiving of historical temporality and political possibility. The Penguin Book of French Poetry, 2005-02-24 This collection illuminates the uniquely fascinating era between 1820 and 1950 in French poetry, a time in which diverse aesthetic ideas conflicted and converged as poetic forms evolved at an astonishing pace. It includes generous selections from all the established giants among them Baudelaire, Verlaine, Rimbaud and Breton, as well as works from a wide variety of less well known poets such as Claudel and Cendrars, whose innovations proved vital to the progress of poetry in France. The significant literary schools of the time are also represented in sections focusing on such movements as Romanticism Symbolism Cubism and Surrealism Eloquent and inspirational this rich and exhilarating anthology reveals an era of exceptional vitality

The Embattled Self Leonard V. Smith, 2014-07-03 How did the soldiers in the trenches of the Great War understand and explain battlefield experience and themselves through that experience Situated at the intersection of military history and cultural history The Embattled Self draws on the testimony of French combatants to explore how combatants came to terms with the war In order to do so they used a variety of narrative tools at hand rites of passage mastery a character of the soldier as a consenting citizen of the Republic None of the resulting versions of the story provided a completely consistent narrative and all raised more questions about the truth of experience than they answered Eventually a story revolving around tragedy and the soldier as victim came to dominate even to silence other types of accounts In thematic chapters Leonard V Smith explains why the novel structured by a specific notion of trauma prevailed by the 1930s Smith canvasses the vast literature of nonfictional and fictional testimony from French soldiers to understand how and why the embattled self changed over time In the process he undermines the conventional understanding of the war as tragedy and its soldiers as victims a view that has dominated both scholarly and popular opinion since the interwar period The book is important reading not only for traditional historians of warfare but also for scholars in a variety of fields who think critically about trauma and the use of personal testimony in literary and historical studies

France and the Origins of the Second World War Robert J. Young, 1996-09-18 France's drift into war and subsequent collapse have often been attributed to her level of confidence Either she had too much or too little This work contends that these two moods were not mutually exclusive that they coexisted throughout the interwar years sustained by competing visions of the Republic and of the best way to ensure national security Early chapters describe the tensions within French interwar foreign policy as well as the ensuing historiographical tensions among scholars intent on interpreting the French experience Subsequent chapters explore tensions in defence and economic policies domestic politics and ideological allegiance public attitudes and opinion

War, Memory, and the Politics of Humor Allen Douglas, 2002-05-31 War Memory and the Politics of Humor features carnage and cannibalism gender and cross dressing drunks and heroes militarism and memory all set against the background of World War I France Allen Douglas shows how a new satiric weekly the Canard Enchaîné exploited these topics and others to become one of France's most influential voices of reaction to the Great War The Canard still published today is France's leading satiric newspaper and the most successful periodical of the twentieth century and Douglas colorfully illuminates the mechanisms of its unique style Following the Canard from its birth in 1915 to the eve of the Great Depression the narrative reveals a heady mix of word play word games and cartoons Over the years the journal generally leftist specifically antimilitarist and anti imperialist aimed its shots in all directions using some stereotypes the twenty first century might find unacceptable But Douglas calls its humor an affirmation of life and as such the most effective antidote to war
