The Digital Double Bind Mohamed Zayani, Joe F. Khalil, 2024 The Middle East's digital turn has renewed hopes of socio-economic development and political change across the region but it is also marked by stark contradictions and historical tensions In this book Mohamed Zayani and Joe F Khalil contend that the region is caught in a digital double bind in which the same conditions that drive the state market and public immersion in the digital also inhibit change and perpetuate stasis The Digital Double Bind offers a path breaking analysis of how the Middle East negotiates its relation to the digital and provides a roadmap for a critical engagement with technology and change in the Global South Digitalization of Society and

Cohen-Tanugi, 2003 In the immediate aftermath of the events of September 11 people around the world and Europeans in particular came together in unprecedented demonstrations of compassion for and solidarity with the people of the United States Since then however relations between Europe and America have become perilously contentious The new unilateral and pre emptive tone of US foreign policy wedded to old fears of American hegemony and an irreducible strain of anti Americanism have alienated and angered Europeans even as Europe s refusal to endorse key American policies has drawn charges of ingratitude and irrelevance dates back to the end of the Cold War and poses profound dangers for the intertwined futures of America Europe and the world In this book he argues that although the ties that have united Europe and America for decades remain stronger than the propagandists of a transatlantic schism would have us believe deepening transatlantic differences foster an increasing mistrust that prevents constructive dialogue and action perspective and tracing the evolution and progressive alteration of European American relations from the post war period to the Iraqi crisis Stressing the need for strong transatlantic solidarity in the new global environment Cohen Tanugi sets forth the case and prerequisites for such co operation calling on Europe to assume fully its responsibilities on the world stage and on America to address the contradictions and inadequacies of its foreign policy and become more attentive to the international community its sensitivities and rules Envisioning what this renewed partnership might look like in the future he concludes that in a world plagued by profound disorder and rabid anti Westernism the distance between the United States and the European Union must be bridged to propagate the democratic values they share confront global challenges and ensure the stability of the world

Power-Sharing in the Global South Eduardo Wassim Aboultaif, Soeren Keil, Allison McCulloch, 2024-02-22 Power sharing serves as a popular conflict resolution device at war s end Yet the performance record of such arrangements is highly variable sometimes leading to peace and stability and at other times to immobilism and institutional collapse This book explores the adoption function and dissolution of power sharing arrangements across the Global South including case studies of Colombia Ethiopia Malaysia and Iraq and others to make sense of this mixed record Authors identify a range of contextual factors as well as significant variations in the institutional rules and their meaning across the cases that help to explain divergent power sharing outcomes Emphasis throughout the chapters is placed on system adaptability for power sharing success

The Media in Arab Countries

Tourya Guaaybess, 2019-05-21 In early research work on international communication the countries of North Africa and the Middle East were seen as part of the Third World and the media had to be at the service of development However this situation is changing due to the transnationalization and liberalization of the media Indeed since the 1990s the entry of the South and Arab countries in this case into the information society has become the dominant creed although the vision is still globalizing and marked by stereotypes Representations of these societies are closely associated with international relations and geopolitics characterized by tensions and conflicts However a force has come to disrupt the traditional rules of the game Arab audiences Digital media the dissemination of which has been enabled by the implementation of the information society empowers them to participate fully in a media confluence This liberation from the discourse has two major consequences the media and journalism sector has become more strategic than ever and action toward development must be reinvented
