Les Armoires Vides:

Les armoires vides Annie Ernaux, 1974 Rewriting Cathy Jellenik, 2007 Although the storytelling of any time rewrites itself rewriting became a primary concern in the literature of the twentieth century an era characterized as having quoted reenacted cannibalized revised redone refurbished and outright plagiarized the texts of earlier times The modern obsession with literary reiteration manifests itself in a rather unique way in the narratives of Marguerite Duras Annie Ernaux and Marie Redonnet These authors systematically and repeatedly rewrite their own texts and in so doing give evidence of three of the more salient aspects of twentieth century French literature a trend toward the representation of multifaceted selves a desire to reevaluate the literary paradigm and an acute concern for the unreliability of language This book argues that the rewriting performed by Duras Ernaux and Redonnet moves beyond the tacit rewriting that occurs in any text toward a renovation of various features of the literary arena within which they circulate Cathy Jellenik argues that all writing contains rewriting an argument grounded in the theoretical apparatuses of Saussure Bakhtin Benveniste Barthes Kristeva and Derrida She then examines and interrogates the ways in which Duras Ernaux and Redonnet use rewriting to question and rethink the literary traditions they inherit Jellenik suggests that the rewriting projects of Duras Ernaux and Redonnet promise to lead them and their readers toward the creation of a new literary aesthetic capable of responding to the questions of our times Annie Ernaux Siobhán McIlvanney, 2001-01-01 This text provides an analysis of Annie Ernaux's individual texts It engages in a series of provocative close readings of her works to highlight the contradictions and nuances in her writing demonstrating the intellectual intricacies of her work Leftovers Ruth Cruickshank, 2020-01-31 The intrinsic ambivalence of eating and drinking often goes unrecognised In Leftovers Cruickshank's new theoretical approach reveals how representations of food drink and their consumption proliferate with overlooked figurative psychological ideological and historical interpretative potential Case studies of novels by Robbe Grillet Ernaux Darrieussecq and Houellebecq demonstrate the transferrable potential of rethinking eating and drinking Women Taking Risks in Contemporary Autobiographical Narratives Kenneth Reeds, Anna Rocca, 2013-10-03 Women Taking Risks in Contemporary Autobiographical Narratives explores the nature and effects of risk in self narrative representations of life events and is an early step towards confronting the dearth of analysis on this subject The collection focuses on risk taking as one of women's articulations of authorial agency displayed in literary testimonial photographic travel and film documentary forms of autobiographical expression in French Among many themes the book fosters discussion on matters of courage strength resilience freedom self fulfillment political engagement compassion faith and the envisioning of unconventional alliances that follow a woman's stepping out of her comfort zone The fourteen essays included in this collection discuss works of women authors from North Africa Sub Saharan Africa France and the Caribbean They exemplify a variety of self narratives that blur unified conceptualizations of both identity and national belonging They address questions about women writers attitudes towards risk and their willingness to change the status quo They also explore the many personal and public forms in which agency manifests through risk taking engagements the ways in which women challenge the conventional wisdom about feminine reserve and aversion to danger the multiplicity of seen and unforeseen consequences of risk taking the all too frequent lack of recognition of female courage the overcoming of obstacles by taking risks and frequently the amelioration of women s lives Addressing both the broader context of the study of risk and the more specific areas of female expression and autobiography in Francophone cultures this collection is attractive to a diverse audience with the potential to cross disciplines and inform a wide body of research A number of the essays deal with issues born in postcolonial circumstances This examination of the elucidation of marginalized voices should prove enlightening to an array of scholars researching specific ethnic sexual gender and general subjects related to identity In making inroads towards expanding the well developed area of risk studies into the humanities this collection makes an important contribution that has the potential to promote a variety of cross disciplinary research including examinations of the psychology and sociology behind chauvinism personal expression and formative experiences

On Both Sides of the Tracks Morgane Cadieu, 2024-01-09 Social climbers have often been the core characters of novels Their position between traditional tiers in society makes them a touchstone for any political and literary moment including our own Morgane Cadieu s study looks at a certain kind of contemporary social climber in French literature whom she calls the parvenant Taken from the French term parvenu which refers to one who is newly arrived a parvenant is a character who shuttles between social groups A parvenant may reach the level of another social class but devises literary ways to come back constantly undoing any fixed ideas of social affiliation Focusing on recent French novels and autobiographies On Both Sides of the Tracks speaks powerfully to issues of emancipation and class Cadieu offers a fresh critical look at tales of upward mobility in the work of Annie Ernaux Kaoutar Harchi Michel Houellebecq douard Louis and Marie NDiaye shedding fascinating light on social mobility today as a formal literary problem Francophone Women Coming of Age Debra Popkin, 2009-03-26 This book began as a panel of University professors on the theme of Francophone Women Coming of Age Memoirs of Childhood and Adolescence presented at the Northeast Modern Language Association Convention in Philadelphia 2006 The essays center on the plight of growing up female in male dominated Francophone cultures Issues of culture tradition religion Catholic and Muslim parental conflicts and sibling rivalry are addressed in the works of authors from France Quebec Africa and the Caribbean Authors whose memoirs and fiction are analyzed in this study span three continents europe North America Quebec and the Caribbean and Africa but they share a common search for identity and self definition Dr Beth Gale Clark University analyzes role play and the use of language in the works of Annie Ernaux France and Assia Djebar North Africa Post colonial angst and cross cultural misunderstanding are the focus of the study of Aminata Sow Fall s Douceurs du bercail Senegal West Africa by Dr Natalie Edwards Wagner College Two chapters focus on Caribbean authors from Guadeloupe Dr Debra Popkin Baruch College CUNY analyzes Gis le Pineau s special relationship with grandmother who

Wetherill, 2021-09-02 La Place looks at a daughter's relationship with her father In a fragmented and retrospective way the narrator describes her feelings of separation and betrayal that arise when education and marriage place her in a social class with different values language tastes and behaviour She explores the ways in which individual experience is related to class and group attitudes and at the same time tells us a great deal about French society in general since the turn of the century It is a concentrated text cut through with irony and may be read in different ways La Place will be an accessible and exciting addition to French studies courses Fin de millénaire French Fiction Ruth Cruickshank, 2009-10-08 The turn of the millennium in France coincided with a number of tangible crises and apocalyptic discourses and with the growth of the mass media and global market further generating and manipulating crisis In this original wide ranging but closely analytical study Cruickshank contextualizes and reads the work of four influential writers of prose fiction Angot Echenoz Houellebecq and Redonnet teasing out each one's response to this convergence She suggests that the recurrent fictional and cultural trope of the turning point has both aesthetic and critical potential Bringing together analyses spanning literature thought and culture she identifies and critiques the ways in which on the eve of the twenty first century different theoretical and fictional approaches confront the manipulation of crisis discourses Drawing on a long twentieth century of crisis thinking Cruickshank counters the perception that a postmodern model of perpetual crisis is culturally dominant and established Egalitarian Strangeness Edward J. Hughes, 2021-04-15 Shortlisted for the 2022 R

Gapper book prize The formulation egalitarian strangeness is a direct borrowing from Courts voyages au pays du peuple Short Voyages to the Land of the People 1990 a collection of essays by the contemporary French thinker Jacques Rancière Perhaps best known for his theory of radical equality as set out in Le Maître ignorant The Ignorant Schoolmaster 1987 Rancière reflects on ways in which a hierarchical social order based on inequality can come to be unsettled In the democracy of literature for example he argues that words and sentences serve to capture any life and to make it available to any reader The present book explores embedded forms of social and cultural apportionment in a range of modern and contemporary French texts including prose fiction socially engaged commentary and autobiography while also identifying scenes of class disturbance and egalitarian encounter Part One considers the refrain of class audible in works by Claude Simon Charles Péguy Marie Ndiaye Thierry Beinstingel and Gabriel Gauny and examines how these authors practices of language connect with that refrain In Part Two Hughes analyses forms of domination and dressage with reference to Simone Weil's mid 1930s factory journal Paul Nizan's novel of class alienation Antoine Bloy from the same decade and Pierre Michon's Vies minuscules Small Lives 1984 with its focus on obscure rural lives The reflection on how these narratives draw into contiguity antagonistic identities is extended in Part Three where individual chapters on Proust and the contemporary authors François Bon and Didier Eribon demonstrate ways in which enduring forms of cultural distribution are both consolidated and contested
